OF

M. F. MANSFIELD & COMPANY

22 EAST SIXTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK

ADCOCK (A. St. John) —EAST END IDYLLS. Author of "The Consecration of Hetty Fleet," Etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

Mr. Adcock is the modern and English successor to Bret Harte. What the great American writer has done for the Californian miner, Mr. Adcock has done for the docker and coster of the East End of London. He has seen the redeeming elements—the fortitude, the heroism, the unconsious and spontaneous generosity, hidden beneath the gaunt figures and grimy, haggard faces of those over whom starvation and despair hover for ever.

ARMOUR (Margaret).—THE EERIE BOOK. Tall 8vo, with Cover Design by W. B. MACDOUGALL. $2.50 net.

A collection of wierd tales from the literature of our times with an altogether unique series of black and white drawings by W. B. MACDOUGALL.

BULLOCK (Shan F.).—THE CHARMER: A Seaside Comedy. Author of "By Thrasna River." Illustrated. Crown 8vo, $1.50.

Silently Mr. Shan Bullock has crept into critical esteem. He is one of that small band of enthusiasts which is doing for the Irish peasant and his country the service for which Scotland has to thank Mr. Barrie.

BINNS (Charles F.).—THE STORY OF THE POTTER. 16mo, 250 pages, 80 Illustrations, 75 cents.

A book rather for the reading public than the specialist. Rendering in popular language the growth of this important industry in many lands, and in a manner neither tedious nor abstruse. Earlier writers have been consulted, and where possible, their accounts harmonized, but the chapters on the practical side are entirely new, and are the outcome of a long experience in the famous Worcester manufactory.

BURNS (Robert).—AULD LANG SYNE. Narrow 8vo, Paper, 25 cents; Boards, 75 cents; Japan Edition, $1.25 net.

A reprint of the famous song containing both the early and the latter day texts with a brief account of its history. Each page containing a decorative sketch by Blanche McManus.

BUCHANAN (Robert).—THE REV. ANNABEL LEE. Author of "God and the Man," "Father Anthony," Etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.50.

The author's object in writing this novel is to show that, if all religions were destroyed and perfect material prosperity arrived at, Humanity would reach, not perfection, but stagnation. The story starts with the 21st Century, and deals with the efforts of a charming and beautiful maiden, the Rev. Annabel Lee, to lead back her race to the precepts of a forgotten Christianity.

BESANT (Sir Walter).—THE RISE OF AN EMPIRE. The Story of The Empire Series. 12mo, Cloth, 50 cents.

The first of a series of small books to be devoted to the rise of Britain's Wealth and Power throughout the earth. To be supplemented by other volumes forming a concise and compact mass of chronological and historical data not otherwise readily accessible; not in any sense ordinary histories, but conceived in an altogether unique manner, by writers more than ordinarily familiar with the subjects of which they write; an eminently practical plan of popularizing historical reading.

Other volumes are:

THE STORY OF INDIA. By DEMETRIUS C. BOULGER.

THE STORY OF AUSTRALIA. By FLORA L. SHAW.

THE STORY OF SOUTH AFRICA. By HON. BASIL WORSFOLD.

THE STORY OF CANADA. By HOWARD ANGUS KENNEDY.

THE STORY OF NEW ZEALAND. By WILLIAM PEMBER REEVES.

12mo, each, 50 cents.

BEERBOHM (Max).—THE ART OF AUBREY BEARDSLEY. Crown 4to, Edition limited to 300 copies on Enfield deckle edge paper, $2.50 net.

An appreciation of the work of one of the greatest geniuses in the art of black and white by Max Beerbohm and Others. With many examples of his representative Borders, Initials, Head-pieces, and Full-page Drawings, and of his work as an author as well. With a book-plate and decorative end papers adapted from his designs.

BOULGER (Demetrius C).—THE STORY OF INDIA. 12mo, 50 cents. (See BESANT. The Rise of an Empire.).

CAMERON (Mrs. Lovett).—A DIFFICULT MATTER. Author of "In a Grass Country," Etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

Fresh and entertaining. The plot is happily conceived, and its development at once dramatic and picturesque.

CHESNEY (Wetherby).—THE ADVENTURES OF A CIVIL ENGINEER. Crown 8vo, Illustrated, $1.25.

"Wetherby Chesney" is the nom de plume of a well known writer whose books, under his own name, have won him a position in the front rank of modern novelists. The book relates the strange and startling experiences of a civil engineer in all sorts of queer places and in all corners of the world.

CROMARTY (Deas).—WHEN HEARTS ARE YOUNG. Crown 8vo, with Illustrations, $1.00.

A book for girls, it would be hard to equal, combining absolute purity of tone with high literary merit and intense interest.

CHAMBERS (G. F., F.R.A S.).—THE STORY OF THE WEATHER. Of the Inner Temple, Author of "Stories of the Stars," etc. With about 40 illustrations. 18mo, Limp Cloth, 40 cents.

CARROLL (Lewis).—ALICE IN WONDERLAND—THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS. Quarto, illustrated, the set, 2 vols, in a box, $3.00. Each volume, $1.50.

A sumptuous edition of this world's classic for children, with 12 illustrations in color in each volume by Blanche McManus. Printed on antique wove paper from handsome type, with decorative end papers and cover design in colors.

DAVIS (Ellis J.) Barrister-at-Law.—HIS LITTLE BILL OF SALE. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

Mr. Davis knows his subject thoroughly, and his exposure of the evils of the whole money-lending system and of the law which protects the usurer is admirable. He gives also sound advice to those who may be tightly placed in respect to money. As a novel with a purpose it is at once useful and interesting.—Scotsman.

DODGE (Walter Phelps).—THE SEA OF LOVE. Long 12mo, Cloth, Decorative, 75 cents.

Stories of many countries and types, cleverly touched and good throughout in dialogue and characterization.

DE MAPES (Walter) —A CANTICLE OF WINE, Being the Drinking Song Walter De Mapes. Small 4to, 16 pages, Paper, 50 cents.

Metrical Paraphrase by ROBERT W. ARNOT, with decorations by Blanche McManus. The text in Latin and English.

DECLE (Lionel).—THREE YEARS IN SAVAGE AFRICA. Demy 8vo, 600 pages, with one hundred Illustrations and five Maps from original photographs, sketches and surveys by the author, $5.00.

This is the last word upon Africa, and is dedicated to Cecil John Rhodes. HENRY M. STANLEY, M.P , has written the introduction. The book relates experiences and minute observations as to native habits and customs, and views the work done in Africa by the various European Governments, whose operations have been closely studied. The whole journey extended over 7,000 miles, and occupied exactly three years.

FOWLER (Harry).—WITH BOUGHT SWORDS. A Tale of a Spanish-American Republic. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

A thrilling story of love and war with an entirely new turn as to incident and locale.

FLETCHER (J. S.).—THE BUILDERS. Crown 8vo, 330 pages, $1.50.

Not all men build alike their lives; some build with ease, but others with infinite labor. Only he is happy who will not be dismayed by grief and failure, and who finds in love a divine encouragement to raise stone upon stone till naught is wanting. Such is the story as told in The Builders. Full of interest and human sympathy, and by a writer whose past work has been highly popular.

FRANCE (Anatole).—THE CURE'S MIGNONETTE. "An Idyll from the French." Now first done into English by ROBERT W. ARNOT, with Decorations by BLANCHE MCMANUS. Narrow 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.

GADE (John A.).—BOOK PLATES, OLD AND NEW. Narrow 12mo, antique, $1.25.

A comprehensive resumé of the history and application of the Book-Plate, not exhaustive but presenting the subject matter in a manner not hitherto attempted, with numerous examples of historial, unique, and unfamiliar plates. A valuable contrubition for all "Ex Libris" enthusiasts.

GASKIN (Mrs. Arthur).—THE TRAVELLERS, And Other Stories. Written and Pictured by MRS. ARTHUR GASKIN. Beautifully printed in colors by MR. EDMUND EVANS. Foolscap quarto, $1.25.

GREY (Henry).—A KEY TO THE WAVERLEY NOVELS, In Chronological Sequence, with Index of the Principal Characters. Author of "The Classics for the Million," Etc. A New and Revised Edition (completing eight thousand). Crown 8vo, Cloth, 75 cents.

The plot of each novel is carefully condensed in as few words as possible.—Graphic.

A marvel of compactness.—Harper's Magazine.

GREY (Henry).—THE CLASSICS FOR THE MILLION. Being an Epitome in English of the Works of the Principal Greek and Latin Authors. A New and Revised Edition (completing sixteen thousand). Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1 25.

The author deals with the works of Greek authors, ranging from Homer down to Menander, and with the works of Latin authors, from Plautus to Quintilian. It was a happy idea thus to tell the story of classical lore.—Times.

The Epitomes are correct and useful for reference.—Athenæum.

An excellent edition, clearly printed and convenient in size.—Bookman.

GIBBONS (A. St. H., F.R.G.S.).—EXPLORATION AND HUNTING IN CENTRAL AFRICA. With many Maps. Full page Illustrations by C. WHYMPER and Others. Demy 8vo, $5.00.

GOODMAN (E. J.).—NEW GROUND IN NORWAY. Demy 8vo, Cloth, Extra, $2.50 net.

Ringerike—Telemarken—Sætersdalen. With numerous halftone illustrations depicting new and unfamiliar aspects and scenes of a wonderful country in which there is a fast growing interest.

HALCOMBE (Chas. J. H.).—THE LOVE OF A FORMER LIFE. Author of "The Mystic Flowery Land," Etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

An enthralling narrative of love, jealousy, vengeance, and passion, Althea, the heroine, had existed previously as Lucina, and on this idea and certain facts the novel has been cleverly based.

HIRD (Frank).—THE CRY OF THE CHILDREN. With numerous Illustrations by D. MACPHERSON. Crown 8vo, sewed, attractive Cover, 75 cents.

An Exposure of certain British Industries in which Child-labor is iniquitously employed.

HUMPHRY (Mrs.) "Madge" of Truth.—A WORD TO WOMEN. Author of "Manners for Men," and "Manners for Women." Long 8vo, Cloth, Pictorial Cover, 50 cents; Full Leather, limp, $1.00.

The Contents include: Mother and Daughter—Our School Girls—What about Sewing?—Mothers and Sons—Our Clever Children—Ultra-Tidiness—Good Manners at Home—A glass of Wine—Candour as a Home Commodity—Golden Silence—Our Debts—A Social Conscience—The Domestic Girl—The Girl-Bachelor—Deadly Dullness—The Pleasures of Middle-Age—Growing Old, Etc., Etc.

HUMPHRY (Mrs.).—MANNERS FOR MEN. Uniform with "A Word to Women." Long 8vo, Cloth, 50 cents; Full Leather, limp, $1.00.

Always in most excellent taste as well as astonishingly complete. Certainly the world would be a very much pleasanter place to live in if all men did read and practice these admirable precepts.

HUMPHRY (Mrs.).—MANNERS FOR WOMEN. Uniform with "A Word to Women." Long 8vo, Cloth, 50 cents; Full Leather, limp, $1.00.

Etiquette for Women on a broad and liberal plan, but presenting those foibles of fashion and custom in an altogether unique manner, which, duly observed, will smooth the way over many rough paths in the social world.

HYNE (Cutcliffe).—THE "PARADISE" COAL-BOAT. Author of "The Recipe for Diamonds," "Adventures of Capt. Kettle," Etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.25.

In his tales of the sea, in his pictures of life on reckless traders, in his types of dare-devil seamen, Mr. Hyne is only equalled by Rudyard Kipling.—The Pall Mall Gazette.

In Mr. Cutcliffe Hyne, our great Anglo-Indian romancer (Rudyard Kipling) seems to have found a worthy comrade.—The Echo.

HARKER (L. Allen).—THE INTERVENTION OF THE DUKE. Crown 8vo, Decorated Cover, $1.00.

A delicate and graceful tale of love and life by a new writer whose bright future is predicted by Mr. W. E. Henley.

HICKSON (Mrs. Murray).—CONCERNING TEDDY. A New Book About Children. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, Illustrated, $1.25.

"Concerning Teddy," by Mrs. MURRAY HICKSON, is charming from every point of view. Teddy is a gentleman and a joy . . . and a most fascinating specimen of the maligned race of schoolboys.—Literature.

The pleasantest and the cleverest stories about children we have met with for a very long time. Teddy is a great success.—The Bookman.

It is seldom that one comes across a book which shows so keen an insight into the mysteries of boy life.—St. James's Gazette.

Will delight readers of all ages.—The British Weekly.

Better than anything we have yet seen on the subject.—The Star.

HAWEIS (Rev. H. R., M.A.).—IDEALS FOR GIRLS. Author of "Music and Morals," etc. 12mo, Second Edition, Very Tastefully Bound, 75 cents. Full Limp Leather, Gilt Edge, $1.25.

A better book to put into the hands of girls just growing into womanhood could hardly be found. The author passes pertinent observations upon the Musical Girl, the Engaged Girl, Mannisn Girls and others No latter day young woman can conscientiously ignore its precepts, or fail to find the book interesting reading.

HOCKING (Joseph).—AND SHALL TRELAWNEY DIE? A romance of the Parish of Altarnun in the County of Cornwall. Author of "The Birthright," "All Men are Liars," etc. With full-page Illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

An engaging and fascinating romance. The reader puts the story down with a sigh, and wishes there were more of these breezy Cornish uplands, for Mr. Hocking's easy style of narrative does not soon tire.

HUME (Fergus).—LADY JEZEBEL. Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.25.

The clever author of the "Mystery of a Hansom Cab" has a no less attractive story in "Lady Jezebel," who guards her horrible and loathsome secret so cleverly that it is impossible for the reader to guess it until the author comes to his assistance.

HOLLAND (Clive).—AN EGYPTIAN COQUETTE. Author of "My Japanese Wife," etc. 8vo, Cloth, $1.25.

A wierd and wonderful tale of Hypnotic suggestion, Egyptology and of literary life in London. In the author's happiest vein.

KING (Lieut.-Col. Cooper).—THE STORY OF THE BRITISH ARMY. Of the Staff College, Camberley. Illustrated. Demy 8vo, $2.50 net.

Aims at describing the nature of the different armies that have been formed in Great Britain, and how from the early feudal levies the present standing army came to be. The changes in tactics, uniform, and armament are briefly touched upon, and the campaigns in which the army has shared have been so far followed as to explain the part played by British regiments in them. A very interesting and readable book.—Pall Mall Gazette.

KIPLING (Rudyard).—DEPARTMENTAL DITTIES. Complete with other verses. A reprint of the original edition issued in England under this inclusive title. The only edition now available and is not included in the set of MR. KIPLING'S works. 12mo, Cloth, Gilt, with Portrait, $1.25.

KERNAHAN (Mrs. Coulson).—TREWINNOT OF GUY'S. Author of "The House of Rimmon," "A Laggard in Love," etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.50.

Mrs. Coulson Kernahan's pictures of medical student life, of doctors dispensers, locum tenens—are admirable.—Sketch.

A vividly realistic picture of medical life which one connected with the noble profession of healing should at once read.—St. James's Budget.

KENNEDY (Howard Angus).—THE STORY OF CANADA. 12mo, 50 cents. (See Besant. The Rise of An Empire.)

KHAYYÁM (Omar).—AN OMAR KAYHAM CALENDAR. Crown Quarto, with decorations, $1.00. Limited Japan Edition, $2.50 net. Being a correct rendering of The Rubáiyât with page decorations after a unique manner by Blanche McManus. There being also inserted a series calendar pages for the ensuing year.

LANG (Andrew) and others.—A BATCH OF GOLFING PAPERS. A series of more than ordinary readable sketches, depicting the salient points of the ancient sport, as well as the humors and vagaries of the game and its players. New Edition, Red Cloth, limp, 25 cents, LENNOYS (Annis).—IN A CHINESE GARDEN. Illustrated by Lawson Wood. Foolscap, 8vo, Cloth, Decorative, 75 cents.

A unique book of Chinese Stories and Allegories taken down from the lips of the Chinese peasantry by the Author. Its quaint humors and old-world wisdom will commend it equally to young and old.

LEYLAND (John).—THE PICTURESQUE THAMES. From London to Oxford. Quarto, 400 pages, $3.50.

Picturesque saunterings through this historic and romantic region. Embellished with over 300 full-page illustrations, with text of much literary merit.

(L.).—ROUND LONDON. Oblong 4to, Cloth, Gilt, 284 Illustrations, $3.50.

Pictures and Text of most of the historic and famous places and structures around the Great Metropolis. Valuable to the Student and Tourist alike.

LANGBRIDGE (Rev. F.)—THE DREAMS OF DANIA. Author of Sent Back by the Angels, etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25. Illustrated by J. B. Yeats.

Mr. Langbridge's novel will be read with unmixed pleasure. . . . A story at once so healthy and so pleasant should be heartily welcomed.—British Weekly.

LEE (Charles).—THE WIDOW WOMAN. Uniform with Litanies of Life. Crown 8vo, Gilt Top, Decorative, $1.00.

A Cornish tale, which may be considered a departure in these days of braw Scotch. The book is a character study altogether novel; and the trend of plot and humor is absolutely unique and highly entertaining.

LINDSAY (Harry).—METHODIST IDYLLS. Crown 8vo, $1.25.

Prose chapters which give an insight into the true romance of certain phases of Methodist life, and which will arrest attention on the first page, and hold one enthralled to the last, by the sheer force of their consummate skill and deep human interest.

MARSH (Richard).—THE DUKE AND THE DAMSEL. Author of "The Beetle," etc. Crown 8vo, $1.25.

This is a delightful book—witty, humorous, interesting, and entertaining from beginning to end. The dialogue is capital, and the plot and its working out alike unconventional.—Birmingham Daily Gazette.

MARSH (Richard).—TOM OSSINGTON'S GHOST. Author of "The Beetle: A Mystery," "The Duke and the Damsel," Etc. Illustrated by HAROLD PIFFARD. Crown 8vo, Pictorial Cloth, $1.25.

"One of the best pieces of work Mr. Marsh has produced. A story of a buried treasure revealed by supernatural agency, and yet, while full of "creepy" and exciting scenes, they are not so elaborated as to be unpleasant.

MARSH (Richard).—THE BEETLE: A MYSTERY. Crown 8vo, Symbolical Cover Design, $1.50.

A book to be read; the kind of a book you put down only for the purpose of turning up the gas and making sure no person or thing is standing behind your chair. Ingenious, weird and thrilling, and written with a remarkable clearness of style, which is undeniable.

MACQUOID (Katharine S.).—THE STORY OF LOIS. Author of "Patty," "At the Red Glove," Etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.50.

Especially as a study of the artistic temperament. Skilfully told with all Mrs. Macquoid's charm of style, and the book is, we think, the strongest that the author has given us.—Daily News.

McDONNELL-BODKIN (M) Q. C.—PAUL BECK—THE RULE OF THUMB DETECTIVE. Crown 8vo, $1.25.

The mantle of Sherlock Holmes would seem to have fallen upon Paul Beck the assiduous, energetic and brilliant dectective, to whom most matters of mystery are as clear as the sky is blue.

(M).—THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE.—Long 8vo, 48 pp , in slip case, 50c.

Being certain patriotic verses presented in an entirely novel and attractive form. With page decorations in red from designs by Blanche McManus. The volume contains the correct rendering of Columbia ; the Gem of the Ocean ; America ; My Country 'tis of Thee ; The Star Spangled Banner and Yankee Doodle.

OLIPHANT (Mrs.).—A HISTORY OF SCOTLAND FOR THE YOUNG. 8vo, 307 pages, with frontispiece, $1.50.

A most extensive and yet concise History of Scotland for Young Folks. Should find a ready welcome in all libraries which cater to solid reading for children. A department which is to-day doubtless not ignored. Elders, too, should appreciate the facts as told by this popular writer who during her life filled a position unique in letters of the age.

OLIPHANT (Mrs.).—THE LADY'S WALK. Crown 8vo, Gilt, 250 pp. $1.50.

A charming Idyll of life at a country house in Scotland. In a lighter vein than the author's usual style, and a story which should prove of especial interest and value, aside from that attached to all recent work by the same gifted author.

OATES (Rev. John).—THE TEACHING OF TENNYSON. Author of "The Sorrow of God." Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, Flat back, Gilt Top, $1.00.

PICKERING (Sidney).—WANDERERS. Author of "Margot," "The Romance of His Picture," etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.50.

This unconventional story of the wanderings of Francis Mayne and his daughter will come as a refreshing surprise and delight, recalling the charm of Borrow's fascinating "Lavengro." Wanderers is distinctly a book to be bought, not borrowed.

PALINURUS.—THE PAPER BOAT. 8vo, Cloth, Unique Cover, $1.25.

Yachting stories of international interest, dealing throughout with the same characters.

PATTERSON-MUIR (M. M.) M.A.—THE STORY OF THE CHEMICAL ELEMENTS. 18mo, Limp, Cloth, 40 cents.

Fellow and Prælector in Chemistry of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge.

ROBINSON (F. W.).—ALL THEY WENT THROUGH. Author of "Grandmother's Money," "Young Nin," etc. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, $1.25.

This faculty of vitalizing a whimsical situation by means of organic details made Rossetti rank this author so high among latter-day humorists. His forces are as fresh wholesome, and vigorous as ever.—Athenæum.

ROBERTSON (C. Grant) M.A. Oxon.—VOCES ACADEMICAE. Pott 8vo, 270 pp., $1.00.

The book is of especial interest to the University and club man, from whom it positively cannot fail of appreciation. The get up of the book with its dainty sepia tint frontispiece and charming letterpress, makes it a volume to be preserved and treasured and not to be thrown lightly aside. Decidedly clever and amusing.

ROBERTSON (Morgan).—FUTILITY. 16mo, Cloth, Decorative, 75 cents.

The writer an American, bred to the sea, but master of a style of writing which for grimness and humor may be likened unto that of Mr. Kipling himself; discovered by McClure's Magazine here gives his first long tale in Futility. A story of human mistake, of a wonderful human interest, familiar yet new.

RAYNER (Olive Pratt).—THE TYPE-WRITER GIRL. Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.25.

There is not a dull page in the book. Clever, fresh and original, this tale by an unknown writer which ought to command an immediate success, and lovers of smart and original writing should look out eagerly for further efforts from OLIVE PRATT RAYNER'S witty and racy pen.

ROSETTI (Dante Gabriel).—THE BLESSED DAMOZEL. Small 4to, 36 pp. Paper, 50 cents; Boards, 75 cents. Limited Edition, 150 copies, Japan Paper, $1.50 net.

The text, as originally published in the Germ, in 1850, the apologia of the Pre-Raphaelites. With decorative border on each page by Blanche McManus, and printed in two colors.

RANDS (William Brighty) "The Laurete of the Nursery."—LAZY LESSONS AND ESSAYS ON CONDUCT. Fcap, 8vo, Buckram, $1.25. LILLIPUT LECTURES. Fcap, 8vo, Buckram, $1.25. Edited, with Prefaces, by R. BRIMLEY JOHNSON.

For reading to children or for children to read for themselves, we know of no books of the kind likely to be more enjoyable and at the same time more informing, helpful, and stimulating.—The Westminster Gazette.

These volumes certainly deserve the attention of parents and teachers who are wont to be careful as to the sort of reading which they put in the way of children.—The Athenæum.

REEVES (William Pember).—THE STORY OF NEW ZEALAND. 12mo, 50 cents. [See BESANT. The Rise of an Empire].

RODWAY (James, F.L.S.).—THE STORY OF FOREST AND STREAM. Author of "In the Guiana Forest," etc. With 20 Illustrations. 18mo, Limp, Cloth, 40 cents.

SHERARD (R. H.).—THE IRON CROSS. Author of "Rouges," "The White Slaves of England." Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.50.

Sufficiently novel in its scene, which is fishing a village in the Landes, situate in the Bay of Biscay and about 30 miles from the Spanish frontier, to be interesting; sufficiently romantic in its theme, which is the search for hidden treasure and the things which resulted therefrom, to satisfy the popular taste for romance; and sufficiently short and smartly written by an author of marked literary attainments wherein it should be acceptable to critics to whom literary form counts for something.

SHERARD (Robert H.).—THE WHITE SLAVES OF ENGLAND. Being True Pictures of certain Social Conditions in England. With about 40 Illustrations by HAROLD PIFFARD. New and Popular Edition. Crown 8vo, sewed, Attractive Cover, 75 cents

The appalling revelations of Robert Sherard are enough to make a man's heart bleed for the awful sufferings of women in the bitter struggle for bread. —Mr. Hall Caine.

SHAW (Flora L.).—THE STORY OF AUSTRALIA. 12mo, 50 cents. [See BESANT. The Rise of an Empire].

SCOTT (G. Firth).—THE LAST LEMURIAN. A Westralian Romance. With Illustrations by STANLEY L. WOOD. Crown 8vo, Pictorial Cloth, $1.25.

A thrilling story of mystery, romance, and adventure with an account of the destruction of the strange race of people called the Lemurians.

SMITH (Herbert G.).—CASTLE SOMBRAS. An Historical Romance. Crown 8vo, Gilt Top, $1.25.

An historical romance of vital power and interest. . . . It is a dashing and splendid story of Captain Dare and his ideal love, of wit, valor, and sheer devilry.

ST. BERNARD OF CLUNY.—THE CELESTIAL COUNTRY. Long 8vo, Cloth Decorative, $1.00.

Translated by Rev. JOHN MASON NEAL, D.D. With a decorative border for each page, especially designed, by Blanche McManus, as is also the title page in two colors.

TABB (John B.).—AN OCTAVE TO MARY. Square 18mo, Cloth, 75 cents.

An original poem by this much valued and appreciated of our younger poets, and one which shows fully his power and sweetness of expression.

VANDELEUR (Seymour), Lieut. Scots Guards.—CAMPAIGNING ON THE UPPER NILE AND NIGER. With Maps and Illustrations. Demy 8vo, $3.50 net.

VOGEL (H. B.).—A MAORI MAID. Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.25.

A remarkably strong novel of Life among the Maoris, wherein caste, adventure and the love element are admixtured wholesomely and entertainingly.

WILLIAMSON (David).—GLADSTONE: THE MAN. A Non-political Biography. With numerous Illustrations. Crown 8vo, Attractive Cloth, 75 cents.

Much of the information is derived from exclusive sources. Profusely illustrated by portraits of Mr. Gladstone at various periods—including some recent and privately taken photographs—of his home and of his family.

WILSON (Dr. Andrew, Ph D., M.B., F.R.S.E., etc.).—THE LIGHT SIDE OF SCIENCE. Crown 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, Flat Back, $1.00.

As a holiday companion few books could be better, many of the examples being drawn from out-door life; while at the same time it serves to whet the appetite for more serious study at home.

WATSON (Kathleen).—LITANIES OF LIFE. Second Edition. Small Crown, 8vo, Cloth, Gilt, Flat Back, $1.00.

MR. T. P. O'CONNOR, reviewed "Litanies of Life," as "the book of the time." "A book which tells of the Mystery of Life in the unspeakable language of the soul."—New York Times.

WEDMORE (Frederick).—ORGEAS AND MIRADOU. With Other Pieces. Crown 8vo, Crimson Art Linen, Gilt, $1.25.

The author's masterpiece; one knows of nothing resembling it.—Bookman.

WORSFOLD (Hon. Basil).—THE STORY OF SOUTH AFRICA. 12mo, 50 cents. [See BESANT. The Rise of an Empire.].

WHITE (J. W. Gleeson) and C. Hazelwood Shannon.—THE PAGEANT. Crown Quarto, $2.50 net.

WOOD (Jay Hickory).—THE CHRONICLES OF MR. POTTERSBY. Crown 8vo, Cloth, $1.00.

It is no exaggeration to say that this book can be called the legitimate successor to "Three Men in a Boat."

THE NEW-CHURCH REVIEW.

A Quarterly Journal of the Christian Thought and Life set forth from the Scriptures by Emanuel Swedenborg.

THE doctrines given to the world in the theological writings of EMANUEL SWEDENBORG are of the loftiest and broadest scope, dealing with the subjects of the Divine Being, His Incarnation in the person of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Glorification of His Human, His Second Coming by the opening of the internal sense of His Word, the spiritual nature of man and the order of his creation and regeneration, the spiritual world as man's eternal abode and as the world of causes from which all things in nature come forth as effects, the correspondence therefore of the two worlds with each other in general and in each particular, the universality of the Divine Providence and its relation to permitted evils, the heavenly nature of marriage, and the relation of gentile religions to Christianity.

Under the Divine Providence the world, as we believe, has thus been furnished with a revelation of truth drawn from the Divine Word, which, as it comes gradually to be received in heart and mind and life, will accomplish the fulfilment of prophecy and restore the Lord's kingdom upon the earth.

THE REVIEW seeks to give some expression to this truth and to bring its light to bear not only on events within the organization of the New Church, but on matters of general interest. It will stand ready to recognize whatever is hopeful and progressive in the religious world and in the fields of literature and science.

THE REVIEW is in the hands of a board of editors, consisting of the Rev. Theodore F. Wright, Ph.D., who has general charge, the Rev. James Reed, the Rev. Samuel M. Warren, and the Rev. Julian K. Smyth.

Each quarterly number contains one hundred and sixty pages, about one third of which is editorial. The yearly subscription is two dollars; single numbers, fifty cents.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Ruskin's Works—The Authorized (Brantwood) Edition.*
In accordance with a contract with Mr. Ruskin's English publisher, we have the pleasure of announcing the publication of the Brantwood Edition of Ruskin's Works in 22 volumes. This is the only edition published in this country with Mr. Ruskin's consent, and from the sale of which he derives a profit. The illustrations have been prepared under the author's personal supervision, and the type, paper, and style of binding are in accordance with his suggestions. Each of the prose works contains a special introduction by Prof. Charles Eliot Norton, of Harvard College, explaining the purposes for, and the conditions under which, it was written. These introductions from the pen of Mr. Ruskin's most intimate friend and most acute and sympathetic critic, many of them containing extracts from personal letters written while the works were in preparation, give to this edition a rare and unique value. The two volumes of poetry, written between the ages of seven and twenty-six, with an appendix of later poems, now first collected from original manuscript and printed sources, are edited in chronological order, with notes biographical and critical by Mr. Ruskin's secretary, William G. Collingwood, M.A. The chronological arrangement of the poems—the author's age at the time of writing being printed at the top of each page—illustrates in a most interesting manner the development of his mind and style. The two volumes of poems have been copyrighted in this country under the new law, and the attention of the public is called to the fact that, by virtue of this copyright, we shall hereafter be the only publishers in this country able to supply Ruskin's works in a uniform style of binding. This edition is intended to include what Mr. Ruskin and his literary advisers regard as the essential and permanent part of his writings, and comprises the following:

The Army of the United States.

A Series of Historical Sketches of Staff and Line, edited for the Military Service Institution by General Theo. F. Rodenbough and Major William L. Haskin. Illustrated with autotype portraits of Generals-in-Chief, 1789-1895.

Complete in one Octavo Volume. 755 pages. Bound in cloth, gilt top $5 00

"It is with pleasure that I avail myself of an opportunity to commend this effort of the Military Service Institution to provide an authentic and condensed account of the services of the Army, from the creation of our military establishment to the present day. Each staff-corps and regiment of the line has here its chosen historian and its modest memoir replete with biographical as well as historical data. Its form gives it a unique character of special value as a work of reference. It represents the completion of a series of historical sketches which have appeared from time to time during the last few years in the Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States, and comprises an amount of gratuitous labor by contributors and of public spirit on the part of the publishers that merits public acknowledgment. I have no hesitation in saying that it deserves a place in every public library, and is worthy of preservation by all collectors of military works."—Introduction by Major-General Nelson A. Miles.

The Political Cyclopædia.

Every one who wishes to think, speak, and act intelligently upon the great questions of the day needs this work, written by the most eminent specialists in this country and Europe; e.g., David A. Wells discusses the Tariff and Tariff Legislation from the standpoint of the free-trader, and D. H. Mason from the point of view of the protectionist. E. L. Godkin writes of Office-Holders, Prof. Alexander Johnston the articles on the Political History of the United States, Dorman B. Eaton of Civil-Service Reform, Pres. D. C. Gilman of Universities, Simon Sterne of Railroads, Pres. F. A. Walker of Public Revenue and Wages, Edward Atkinson of Banks, John J. Knox of the Currency, etc., Thomas M. Cooley, President Interstate Commerce Commission, of The Bar, Law of Corporations, etc., Horatio C. Burchard, ex-Director of the Mint, of Coinage, Gold, Silver, etc.

Of the multitude of cordial endorsements of the Cyclopædia received from prominent men in all parts of the country, the following are fairly representative:

GEORGE F. EDMUNDS writes: "A well-arranged and useful book of reference."

Prof. DAVID SWING says: "The three large volumes seem like foundation stones of our world. The most fundamental terms are defined and their import discussed. Events which acted as causes or come as results of society are to be found in this massive collection. These books, like a radius, sweep around the circle of political knowledge."

JAMES G. BLAINE writes: "I use it almost daily for reference, and regard it as a model."

THOMAS M. COOLEY writes: "An excellent work, convenient for any one to have, and invaluable to a student of the Political Sciences or of American History."

J. C. BANCROFT DAVIS writes: "The work will materially help to make better citizens and more intelligent voters of the young men into whose hands it will go and who are to control our destinies."

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION says: "It is doubtful indeed if a more important work of reference has ever been prepared."

THE NEW YORK NATION says: "A timely and valuable aid to political education. We cannot withhold our warm commendation of the industry and discrimination of the editor, and the enterprise of the publishers."

Retail Price.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE says: "The type, binding, and all the technical details of this really great work of reference are of the best kind, and we can heartily echo President White's commendation and say, 'The book ought to be in the library, not only of every man who takes an active part in politics, but of every one who wishes to give thought to the discharge of his ordinary political duties.'"

The publishers have just prepared a 16-page pamphlet descriptive of this great work, which they will send free to any one who wishes to know about it.

It is published in three superb volumes, averaging one thousand pages each, and sold by subscription at the following prices: Cloth, $5.00; Sheep, $6.00; Half Morocco, $7.00; Full Morocco, $8.00 per vol. We can offer good positions and exclusive territory to agents of high character and ability, and invite correspondence from this class only. Parties to whom our local agents are not accessible may remit the subscription price direct to the publishers and have the book promptly delivered free of express charges. Send for the Descriptive Pamphlet.

AUTUMN LIST OF BOOKS ISSUED IN CHOICE AND LIMITED EDITIONS
BY THOMAS B MOSHER AT XLV EXCHANGE ST PORTLAND MAINE

SEASON OF MDCCCXCVIII-IX

TO THE TRADE

I.

BELIEVING that the interests of the Bookseller and Publisher are mutual, Mr. Mosher has from the start placed all his publications on the net price basis, and has yet to learn of an instance where these prices have not been easily obtained. This was because they were genuine net prices, and the book-buyer saw it without argument.

Mr. Mosher also preferred to make it some object to the Bookseller to carry a moderate stock of his editions, while never urging any dealer to overstock.

II.

Booksellers who make a specialty of high class trade have found that Mr. Mosher's editions contain greater value, and are more salable at sight, than any books yet offered entirely on their book-making merits.

All books are put up in separate slide cases with extra wrappers, a small attention to detail the dealer will appreciate who places a stock order.

III.

Therefore, the Bookseller is asked to consider: Are there not certain exclusive customers of his who would become interested purchasers of Mr. Mosher's editions were such brought to their attention by him?

To be able to exhibit a few choice volumes not found everywhere,—is not this a means of attracting the approval, and consequent patronage, of that cultured minority of book-lovers that carries with it prestige in every city?

BESIDES the foregoing List of Books, Mr. Mosher can still supply several of his earlier issues, of which a few copies only remain. Booksellers should therefore send for his full Descriptive List with rates of discount and terms to the trade. He is particularly desirous of placing his publications with those who make a specialty of choice but moderate priced editions; and who wish to sell books that will yield them a fair and uncut profit.

THIS independent and enterprising publisher of Portland, Maine, whose position and products give him a somewhat unique rank among the American members of his profession, will continue this coming season the issues which have made his press famous in the past. It is difficult to set forth in words the nature of the outward attractions which are given to these publications of Mr. Mosher by the combination of his taste, his pains and his resources. There are few books like them; we do not know that there are any nowadays exactly like them. Their form and size are unusual; the type is new and brilliant in its impression; the papers Dutch hand-made of the choicest quality; the decorations are artistic in the best sense; the bindings and wrappers are chaste and refined; and the cases which contain some of the issues are themselves results of study. Finally, their prices are extremely low. And we advise all lovers of the beautiful in books to look out for them.—The Literary World.

The New Prayer Book ordered by the Third Plenary Council.

MANUAL OF PRAYERS,

For the Use of the Catholic Laity.

722 pages. 16mo.

Size 4 × 5½ inches.

PREPARED AND ENJOINED BY ORDER OF THE THIRD PLENARY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE.

The only Complete Compendium of the Prayers and Ceremonies of the Church ever compiled, having a replete explanation of each of the Sacraments, aiding Catholics and converts to fully understand the sacred offices of the Catholic Church.

338 THANKSGIVING AFTER COMMUNION.

Thine own the whole powers of my soul, my memory, my intellect, and all my will. All that I am, and all that I have, Thou hast bestowed upon me: therefore I give back all to Thee, and surrender it to be wholly governed by Thy sovereign will. Grant me but grace to love Thee alone, and I am rich enough and ask no more.

Here may be said the Tantum Ergo (p. 222), the Lauda Sion (p. 632), the Pange Lingua (p. 627), or any other Hymn in honor of the Blessed Sacrament.

A PRAYER (i)

*To which Pope Pius VII. has annexed a Plenary Indulgence, which all the faithful may obtain who, after having confessed their sins with contrition, and received the Holy Communion, shall devoutly recite it before an image or representation of Christ crucified.

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of Faith, Hope, and Charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm desire of amendment, whilst with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Thy five most precious Wounds: having before my eyes that which David spake in prophecy: They have pierced my hands and feet; they have numbered all my bones.

* Add five Our Fathers and five Hail Marys, for the intentions of the Holy Father. (S. Cong. Indulg., July 31, 1858.)

To correct errors found in many Catholic Prayer Books this Manual was prepared, by order of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore. It is endorsed by His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons and by the Most Rev. Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, who had special supervision of the work. Each page in proof-sheets was submitted to all the Bishops of the country and by them approved. Being the only Prayer Book having this high endorsement, it will take the place, as the Council intended it should, of the various Prayer Books heretofore used.

It is universally conceded that the Fathers of the late Council have in this book given to their people the best expression of Catholic devotion to be found in the English language.

India Paper Edition.

Our India Paper Edition is the marvel of book-making. Printed from the original plates on paper made expressly for the purpose, it reduces the thickness nearly one-half, fully meeting the wants of those wishing a thinner book. It contains 792 pages and measures only one-half of an inch in thickness.

The styles of binding are varied and beautiful, showing the utmost care and refined taste in every design. Structure, combined with the most perfect mechanical features, place it far in advance of any Prayer Book published in this country.

DEVOTIONS FOR MASS. 123

The Creed.

Renew here your faith. All these things, which the Church proposes to your belief, are founded on God's own word, revealed in the Scriptures, announced by the prophets and the apostles, supported by miracles, confirmed by the martyrs, verified by the establishment of our faith, and obvious by the sanctity of our religion.

CREDO in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem cœli et terræ, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in

I BELIEVE in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. And in one

(Specimen of type.)

A standard Catholic prayer book recommended for general use by the most Rev. The Archbishops of Baltimore, and the Right Rev. Bishops of the U. S., who composed the Seventh Provincial Council, held in Baltimore, May, 1849, and the National Council in May, 1852, as being the most COMPLETE, COMPREHENSIVE, and ACCURATE CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK published in the United States.

The universal popularity of this Manual among the Rev. Clergy and the people of the country—which has steadily increased from its first appearance,—renders it needless to enlarge upon its merits here. Originally prepared for use of the Sisters of Charity, it became not only their ordinary manual, but that of many thousands of pious Catholics throughout the land. Since its adoption for general use, upwards of two hundred thousand copies have been sold, which fact evidences its standing among the faithful.

The many high eulogiums passed upon the book by the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States and Canada have all been sustained and repeated by the authorities of the Church.

Many devotions, not usually found in prayer books, have been included in this edition: such as The Way of the Cross, the prayers of Bona Mors, Meditations for every day in the year, The Scapular, The Living Rosary, The Month of May, etc., etc., making it complete, accurate and convenient.

THE HOLY MASS.

The Priest at the foot of the Altar, says:

IN the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I will go unto the altar of God.

R. To God, who rejoiceth my youth.

P. Judge me, O God, and dis-

(Specimen of type.)

A pocket manual of small and compact size, containing all the principal Prayers, Litanies, Way of the Cross, and other devotions that are in daily use. To which has been added the Epistles and Gospels. It may be justly regarded as one of the most complete Pocket Prayer Books ever offered to the Catholics of this country.

VEST-POCKET PRAYER BOOK.—With Epistles and Gospels.

COMPLETE IN ONE VOLUME.

Ordinary of the Mass.

The Priest begins at the foot of the altar.

IN nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

Ant. Introibo ad altare Dei.

R. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Ant. I will go unto the altar of God.

R. To God, who giveth joy to my youth.

(Specimen of type.)

This is a handy book, containing all the essential prayers for Church and home use, to which has been added the Epistles and Gospels. It is printed on an extra grade of white paper, which makes it practically as thin as our India Paper Edition.

The unprecedented demand for this book enables us to bind in large quantities, and we therefore offer them at greatly reduced prices.

WHEN THE PRIEST GOES TO THE ALTAR.

The Prayer.

LORD Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, when thy passion drew near, wouldst for me, wretched sinner, fear and grow sad; grant that I may ever direct all my sorrows unto thee, the God of my heart: and thou, O Lord, in union of thy passion and sorrow, deign to assist me to bear them with patience, that by the merits of thy sufferings, they may be saving to me. Amen.

THE

SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS.

This book relates the transactions from the death of Saul until the end of David's reign, being a history for the space of about forty-six years.

CHAP. I.

David mourneth for the death of Saul and Jonathan: he ordered the man to be slain who pretended he had killed Saul.

NOW x it came to pass, after Saul was dead, that David returned from the slaughter of the Amalecites, and abode two days in Siceleg.

2 And on the third day, there appeared a man who came out of Saul's camp, with his garments rent, and dust strewed on his head: and when he came to David, he fell upon his face and adored.

3 And David said to him: From whence comest thou? And he said to him: I am fled out of the camp of Israel.

4 And David said unto him: What is the matter that has come to pass? tell me. He said: The people are fled from the battle, and many of the people are fallen and dead: moreover Saul and Jonathan his son are slain.

5 And David said to the young man that told him: How knowest thou that Saul and Jonothan his son, are dead?

6 And the young man that told him, said: I came by chance upon mount Gelboe, and Saul leaned upon his spear: and the chariots and horsemen drew nigh unto him.

7 And looking behind him, and seeing me, he called me. And I answered, Here am I.

"Of the one hundred and fifty poems embraced in this volume, there are many worthy of being read by all men, and all of them posess true poetic merit." Episcopal Register, Baltimore.

"Father Faber, though a Roman Catholic, was one of the sweetest of our religious poets, and his verse must endear itself to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ." The Christian Union, New York.

We have been frequently urged by many admirers of these great writers to publish an edition of their works in fine bindings suitable for private libraries. We offer this issue as in every way worthy of these noted authors.

PUBLICATIONS

OF

The National Temperance Society

AND

PUBLICATION HOUSE,

3 and 5 West Eighteenth Street, NEW YORK.

POST-OFFICE ADDRESS: P O. BOX 150, MADISON SQUARE BRANCH, NEW YORK CITY.

JOSHUA L. BAILY, President. | JAMES B. DUNN, D. D., General Secretary. | Wm. D. PORTER, Treasurer. | J. W. CUMMINGS, Publishing Agent.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY, organized in 1866 for the purpose of supplying a sound and able Temperance Literature, has already stereotyped and published over two thousand publications of all sorts and sizes, from the one-page tract up to the bound volume of 1,000 pages. This list comprises Books, Papers, Tracts, Pamphlets, and Leaflets, containing Essays, Stories, Sermons, Arguments, Statistics, History, etc., upon every phase of the question. Special attention has been given to the department

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

One hundred and ninety-five volumes have already been issued, written by some of the best authors in the land. These have been carefully examined and unanimously approved by the Publication Committee of the Society, representing the various religious denominations and temperance organizations of the country, which consists of the following members :

These volumes have been cordially commended by leading clergymen of all denominations, and by various National and State bodies all over the land.

The following is the list, which can be procured through the regular Sunday-school trade, or by sending direct to the rooms of the Society :

At Lion's Mouth. 16mo, 410 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.00

It speaks boldly for the entire suppression of the liquor traffic, depicting vividly the misery and wrongs resulting from it. The Christian tone is most excellent, showing the influence which one ealous Christian can exert upon his companions nd the community.

Adopted. 18mo, 236 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, author of "The McAllisters"..... .50

This book is written in an easy, pleasant style, seems to be true to nature, true to itself, and withal is full of the Gospel and Temperance.

Nat, the Coal Miner's Boy. 12mo, 451 pp. By Rev. T. L. Baily. 1.25
The peace, prosperity, and successful government of a mining community are largely due to the good example and wise counsels of the Superintendent, who prohibited all liquor selling and drinking, and who daily lived up to the precepts of the "Golden Rule." Indeed, strikes among the men were unknown. His boy, "Nat," early adopted the same motto, and in his life we see the zealous student, the successful engineer, and at last the honored president of a rich mining company.

No Danger. 16mo, 360 pp. By Mary J. Hedges..... 1.00
It illustrates, through well-chosen characters, chief among whom are a moderate-drinking physician and his family, various aspects of the temperance problem, but especially the great peril involved in moderate drinking.

Norman Brill's Life-Work. 16mo, 218 pp. By Abby Eldridge. .75
A book of rare merit and unexceptionable religious tone, showing the power of little things, and the value of a word rightly spoken. The simple words of a text, "Every man to his work," changed the thoughts and life of Norman Brill.

Nothing to Drink. 16mo, 400 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright.. 1.25
The story is of a lighthouse keeper and thrilling adventures at sea, being nautical, scientific, and partly statistical, written in a charming, thrilling, and convincing manner.

One More Chance. 12mo, 598 pp. By Mrs. S. M. I. Henry. Paper cover 50 cents; cloth..... 1.50
It treats of the principle of heredity—the old stone distillery and the little meeting house of one hundred years ago sending their antagonistic influences down the generations in the same veins, bringing about that strange conflict of the spirit and the flesh, of purity and impurity, that is at the bottom of so much crime and insanity in this day.

Old Tavern, The, and other Stories. 12mo, 386 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis 1.25
This book contains several temperance tales of this most interesting writer, and will be found full of interest and instruction.

Old Brown Pitcher, The. 16mo, 222 pp ..... .75
Beautifully illustrated. This admirable volume for boys and girls, containing original stories by some of the most gifted writers for the young, will be eagerly welcomed by the children.

Old Benches with New Props. 12mo, 321 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis 1.25
This is the last work of that able author, who died soon after completing the MSS. It is an intensely interesting story, and contains many strong characters, chief among whom is a young inventor, whose life and habits give a good example for the young to follow.

Old Times. 16mo, 351 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.00
It discusses the whole subject of moderate drinking in the history of a New England village. The incidents, various and amusing, are all facts, and the characters nearly all drawn from real life.

On London Bridge. 18mo, 91 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright.. .40
An excellent story showing the necessity and power of Divine aid in the hour of temptation and in the effort of reform, when human strength is but weakness.

Our Coffee-Room. 16mo, 278 pp. By Elizabeth Cotton..... .90
This is a striking narrative of successful Christian work among the workingmen and poorer classes.

Our Homes. 16mo, 427 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.25
It deals with people in their homes, showing the importance of right home relations and principles.

Our Parish. 18mo, 252 pp. By Mrs. Emily Pearson..... .50
The manifold evils resulting from the "still" to the owner's family, as well as to the families of his customers, are truthfully presented.

Out of the Fire. 16mo, 420 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis.... 1.00
It is one of the most effective and impressive temperance books ever published. The evils of the drinking customs of society, and the blessings of sobriety and total abstinence, are strikingly developed in the history of various families in the community.

Over the Way. 16mo, 213 pp. By Mrs. H. J. Moore..... .75
A short, simple story, told in a charming way, of a widow and her son brought to poverty through drink, but at last, through the industry of the son and the trust of the widow, restored to affluence again, and living in the house "over the way," which the rumseller had to abandon.

Profit and Loss. 16mo, 387 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.00
This is one of the author's best books. It traces the life of the family of a liquor dealer, and shows how fearful are the ravages of the drink curse.

Packington Parish. and The Diver's Daughter. 16mo, 327 pp. By M. A. Paull..... 1.00
In this volume we see the ravages which the liquor traffic caused when introduced in a hitherto quiet village, and how at length a minister's eyes were opened to its evils.

Paul Brewster and Son. 16mo, 238 pp. By Helen E. Chapman.. .75
A book of intense interest. Paul Brewster and Son were extensive liquor dealers and manufacturers, whose gains were large and their business productive of evil in the community.

Philip Eckert's Struggles and Triumphs. 18mo, 216 pp. By the author of "Margaret Clare." .50
This interesting narrative of a noble, manly boy, in an intemperate home, fighting with the wrong and battling for the right, should be read by every child in the land.

Pot of Daisies, A. 12mo, 127 pp. By Ernest Gilmore..... .60
One of the sweetest stories of Christian Endeavor work ever told, with a temperance moral.

Piece of Silver, A. 18mo, 180 pp. By Josephine Pollard..... .40
This story is especially pleasing, sprightly and attractive, and will be interesting to all.

Prince of Good Fellows, The. 16mo, 367 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer. 1.00
The hero of the story is the son of a man who was hailed as the "Prince of Good Fellows" by his club and political associates, until broken by drink in purse and health, and was then discarded by them to linger and die as a burden upon his long-neglected family, cared for by his heroic son and his sainted Christian mother.

Pitcher of Cold Water, The. 18mo, 180 pp. By T. S. Arthur.... .40
This little book consists of a series of temperance stories, handsomely illustrated, written in Mr. Arthur's best style, and is altogether one of the best books which can be placed in the hands of children.

Pledge and the Cross, The. 16mo, 256 pp. By Mrs. S. M. I. Henry. Paper, 50 cents; cloth..... .90
It shows the power and value of the pledge, the true relation of the Reform Club to the Church, and gives a record of stirring incidents and thrilling scenes connected with "Our Pledge Roll," which was kept by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Queer Home in Rugby Court, The. 16mo, 450 pp. By Annette L. Noble..... 1.25
This is a naturally and attractively written story of Canadian life, including a tale of temptation and recovery through persistent human love, devout prayer, and Christian persuasion.

Roy's Wife. 12mo, 256 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond..... 1.00
A quiet story showing how Sabbath-breaking, profanity and drunkenness were lessened, mill operatives helped toward a bright and happy life, and the whole community benefitted through the efforts of a consecrated, earnest Christian woman.

Rachel Noble's Experience. 18mo, 325 pp. By Bruce Edwards.. .60
It is just the book for the home circle, and cannot be read without benefitting the reader and advancing the cause of temperance.

Red Bridge, The. 18mo, 321 pp. By Thrace Talman.. ..... .60
We have met with few temperance stories containing so many evidences of decided ability and high literary excellence as this.

Rev. Dr. Willoughby and His Wine. 16mo, 458 pp. By Mary Spring Walker.....1.25
This thrillingly interesting book depicts in a vivid manner the terrible influence exerted by those who stand as the servants of God, and who sanction the social custom of wine drinking. It is fair and faithful to the truth.

Rex Ringgold's School; or, The Imperial Club. 16mo, 399 pp. By Rev. Pliny Steele Boyd..... 1.00
It is just the kind of book the boys like, for whom it is more especially intended, being sprightly, full of life and spirit, and withal teaches excellent lessons.

Ripley Parsonage. 16mo, 351 pp. By Faye Huntington..... 1.00
This is the sequel to "Mr. Mackenzie's Answer," and is a story in which the Gospel is shown to be the power of God unto salvation to all who are enslaved by strong drink.

Rosa Leighton; or, In His Strength. 16mo, 178 pp. By Mrs. M. F. Martin..... .60
This is a charming temperance story, giving the experience of the inner life of a little blind girl with her burden of sorrow and mission of love.

Rose Clifton. 16mo, 426 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond..... 1.25
It shows the beauty of Christian character, pointing to Christ as the true helper and rock upon which to build, and also impressing valuable temperance lessons.

Roy's Search; or, Lost in the Cars. 16mo, 364 pp. By Helen C. Pearson..... 1.00
This book is one of the most interesting ever published—written in a fresh, sparkling style, especially adapted to please the boys.

Spinning-Wheel of Tamworth, The. 16mo, 206 pp. By Rev. Wm. A. Smith..... .75
Belonging to a pious New England woman, whose favorite text, "Trust ye in the Lord forever," was engraved on the wheel; it played an important part in after years, when it came into the possession of her son.

Save the Boys. 16mo, 379 pp. By Miss M. E. Winslow..... 1.00
An interesting and thrilling story of the life and temptations which surround the boys of our land; how one strong-willed boy led others on the downward road.

Susy's Opinions. 16mo, 150 pp. By Faye Huntington..... .50
It consists of a series of short and exceedingly well-written stories, both entertaining and helpful, contains several choice illustrations, and is well adapted for a Christmas gift.

Summerwild. 12mo, 312 pp. By Annette L. Noble..... 1.25
A charming story by this gifted writer. It should be in every library.

Saved. 16mo, 318 pp. By Miss M. E. Winslow..... 1.00
It shows, above all things, the need of God's grace in the heart all through the struggle of life, and demonstrates the ruinous custom of social wine-drinking.

Secret of Victory. 16mo, 170 pp. By Miss M. E. Winslow..... .60
It is a true story of the fall and redemption of a young man of great promise, but easily overcome through the influence of the social glass.

Seymours, The. 16mo, 231 pp. By Miss L. Bates..... .75
A simple story, showing how a refined and cultivated family are brought low through the drinking habits of the father, their joy and sorrow as he reforms only to fall again, and his final happy release in a distant city.

Silver Castle. 16mo, 340 pp. By Margaret E Wilmer..... 1.00
This is a sequel to "The Dumb Traitor," published not long since by this Society, following out the lives of the characters introduced therein, and introducing others equally interesting.

Slaying the Dragon. 12mo, 267 pp. By Mrs. D. O. Clark..... 1.00
A story of Cape Ann. It shows how a lovely seaport town was cursed by the opening of the Maypole Tavern, a drinking and gambling den.

Step by Step. 18mo, 92 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright..... .40
It shows the power of the Gospel, and the good that may be accomplished by a very few consecrated individuals.

Strange Sea-Story, A. 16mo, 427 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright. 1.25
This is one of the strangest yet thrilling and interesting stories from the pen of this gifted author. The strangest thing, possibly, about it is that it is true—so entirely true that even the names of the ship and the abandoned sailor have been retained.

Susan's Sheaves and Other Stories 12mo, 364 pp. By Mrs. C. M. Livingston..... 1.25

It shows the power of the Gospel, and what a consecrated heart can do for the good of souls. The harvest time brings its sure reward.

Story of Rasmus, The; or, The Making of a Man. 12mo, 338 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright. Paper cover, 50 cents; cloth.. 1.25

Most valuable because of the temperance, religious, and scientific truths it teaches. Rasmus had grown to manhood ignorant of book knowledge, but had become a keen observer of nature through his wanderings for many years in search of a long-lost brother. Any boy who possesses the sterling principles of Rasmus has in him "the making of a man."

Sunset on Mt. Blanc. 16mo, 456 pp. By Mrs. M. F. Martin..... 1.25

It beautifully illustrates how the lives of true Christians can rise above the shadows which gather round those who live merely a nominal Christian life, as the stately and majestic mountain lifts its head and basks in the sunshine of God's love, leaving the shadows in the valley and shrouding other hills and mountains in gloomy darkness.

Turning of the Wheel, The. 12mo, 342 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.25

It is a most interesting book in every way; a story of work, showing that success is sure to come to those who deserve it; that by economy, industry, and perseverance, united with strictly total abstinence habits, a boy can override poverty and win for himself both a name and a fortune.

Temperance Anecdotes. 16mo, 288 pp. By Geo. W. Bungay... .90

This new book of temperance anecdotes, edited by George W. Bungay, contains nearly four hundred anecdotes, witticisms, jokes, conundrums, etc., original and selected, and will meet a want long felt and often expressed by a very large number of the numerous friends of the cause in the land. The book is handsomely illustrated with twelve choice wood engravings.

Temperance Doctor, The. 16mo, 370 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.00

This is a true story, replete with interest, and adapted to Sunday-school and family reading.

This book contains 288 pages of declamations and dialogues suitable for Sunday and day schools, Bands of Hope and temperance organizations. It consists of choice selections of prose and poetry, from the temperance orators and writers of the country.

Tim's Troubles. 12mo, 350 pp. By M. A. Paull..... 1.00

This is a second prize book of the United Kingdom Band of Hope Union, reprinted in this country with all the original illustrations. It is the companion of "Frank Oldfield," written in a high tone, and will be found a valuable addition to our temperance literature.

True to his Colors. 12mo, 349 pp. By Rev. T. P. Wilson, M. A.. 1.00

The hero of the story is an earnest Christian man, consecrated to the cause of temperance, who made his home a sort of temperance refuge and hospital, and many a poor drunkard was rescued and rehabilitated through his timely aid and beneficent counsel.

Ten Cents. 16mo, 334 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis..... 1.00

It is a remarkably well sustained story in freshness and variety of interest, and is of a high order of literary merit.

Time Will Tell. 16mo, 307 pp. By Mrs. Wilson..... .90

A temperance tale of thrilling interest and unexceptionable moral and religious tone. It is full of incidents and characters of every-day life, while its lessons are plainly and forcibly set before the reader.

Tom Blinn's Temperance Society, and other Stories. 16mo, 316 pp. By T. S. Arthur..... 1.00

The well-known author of "Ten Nights in a Barroom," whose fame as an author should bespeak for it a wide circulation.

Under Ban. 12mo, 325 pp. By Miss M. E. Winslow..... 1.25

This is an interesting story of village life, where the leaders of society put the liquor traffic and those concerned in it under ban by refusing to receive as equals the families of those whose hands were soiled by complicity with the ruinous, soul-destroying traffic.

Voice of the Home, The. 16mo, 404 pp. By Mrs. S. M. I. Henry. Paper, 50 cents; cloth..... 1.25

It is a story of a boy and his mother and home. The mother is a true Christian woman, and her home everything which a home can be with one "small" exception—that among its furnishings are the cider and wine of domestic manufacture. Roy is a representative boy, containing many of the things good and grand. The story shows how time and his surroundings developed latent powers, and opened promises of strong and efficient manhood, and also shows how he is defeated at every point by the love of his mother's wine, until sorrow, for which this life can find no room for any compensation, comes to the old homestead.

Vow at the Bars. 18mo, 108 pp. .40

It contains four short tales, illustrating four important principles connected with the temperance movement, and is well adapted for the family circle and Sabbath-school libraries.

Wealth and Wine. 16mo, 338 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis.. 1.00

This book is written in her best style, showing the deception of the wine-cup and the power of woman's influence, together with the evil influence of social and moderate drinking.

White Hands and White Hearts. 16mo, 278 pp. By Ernest Gilmore..... .90

It is well written and pure in tone. Among other valuable lessons it shows the need of patience and trust by those engaged in temperance work and for the salvation of others.

White Rose, The. 16mo, 320 pp. By Mary J. Hedges..... 1.00

The gift of a simple white rose was the means of leading those who cared for it to the Saviour. How it was done is very pleasantly told, and also the wrongs resulting in the use of strong drink forcibly shown.

Wife's Engagement Ring, The. 12mo, 278 pp. By T. S. Arthur. 1.00

This story is of a high order of excellence in its literary quality, and presents in a strong light, and with great power, the peril involved in moderate drinking.

Will Hilton's Will; or, Father Against Son. 12mo, 81 pp. By J. C. Cowdrick..... .50

A capital story for every boy to read.

Work and Reward. 18mo, 183 pp. By Mrs. M. A. Holt..... .40

It shows that not the smallest effort to do good is lost sight of by the all-knowing Father, and that faith and prayer must accompany all temperance efforts.

Winning Side, The. 12mo, 323 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis... 1.00

It is written in the author's usual excellent style, is deeply interesting, and teaches valuable lessons which young men and women should early learn.

Zoa Rodman. 16mo, 262 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond..... .90

Adapted more especially to young girls' reading, showing the influence they wield in society, and their responsibility for much of its drinking usages.

TEMPERANCE IN ALL NATIONS.

Edited by J. N. Stearns. Octavo, 1,017 pp. Cheap one volume edition.....$2 00

This work is one of the most important and valuable Temperance publications ever issued. It is an Enclyclopædia of Temperance in itself. It is the result of nearly three years' work and correspondence with leading friends of the Cause the world over. It contains Histories, Papers, Addresses, etc, from over two hundred able representatives of the Cause and work in nearly every country on the globe, besides the Official Reports of about forty American Consuls in foreign countries. No such combination of temperance truth, history, argument, logic, and statistics upon every phase of the question was ever presented to the public. It should be in every library and home at this low price.

The Society still has on hand the two volume edition, the prices of which are as follows: Cloth, $2.50 per volume; $5.00 for the two volumes. Half-morocco, $4.00 per volume; $7.50 for the two volumes.

A TESTING APPARATUS.

Nine pieces, boxed and delivered, to express for $2.00.

This is a regular chemical apparatus by which the presence of alcohol in any liquid can be discovered. If it contains as much as three and three-tenths alcohol it can be shown in five minutes by boiling it in the flask and lighting the alcohol as it comes off in a vapor through the tube. This fact is certified by Davenport & Williams, chemical engineers, of Boston, Mass. If it contains less it can be found by distilling, collecting and then boiling according to directions given. It will last a lifetime. It is entirely simple, and many a young teacher uses it to the delight and satisfaction of herself, scholars and visitors. Local unions and public lecturers use and praise it. Full instructions go with it and in the

TEMPERANCE HANDBOOK,

(paper, 50 cents; cloth, $1.00) more than 50 experiments are described in ten scientific lectures which can be used with this apparatus. It is a great help in mastering the alcoholic problem which puzzles so many.

SEWALL'S STOMACH PLATES.

NEW EDITION. PRICE GREATLY REDUCED.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY AND PUBLICATION HOUSE has just republished the celebrated lithographic Drawings of the Human Stomach, showing the effects of intoxicating liquors, from the first inception of disease occasioned thereby to death by delirium tremens. The Drawings are eight in number. SIZE 27 x 34 inches.

They are invaluable to every student, scientific and medical man, and especially to those who are lecturing upon physiology or temperance. They should be in the possession of every College, School, Temperance Society, and Reading-room in the land. Price $6.00 per set, plain paper; $8.00 mounted and on rollers. Send for descriptive circular.

LITHOGRAPHIC CHARTS.

Human Anatomy and Physiology. Lithographic Charts, 42 x 48 inches. Printed in permanent colors, and including diagrams of Stomach, Heart, Brain, Liver, Kidneys, Arteries, Intestines, Salivary Glands, Tongue, showing effects of Alcohol and Tobacco, etc. Accompanied by handbook. Unmounted, $2.00; mounted on rollers, $3.00.

THE YOUTH'S TEMPERANCE BANNER.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY AND PUBLICATION HOUSE publishes a beautiful illustrated four-page Monthly Paper for Children and Youth, Sabbath-schools, and Juvenile Temperance Organizations. Each number contains several choice engravings, a piece of music, and a great variety of articles from the pens of the best writers for children in America.

Its object is to make the temperance work and education a part of the religious culture and training of the Sabbath-school and family circle, that the children may be early taught to shun the intoxicating cup and walk in the path of truth, soberness, and righteousness.

The following are some of the writers for THE BANNER: Mrs. Nellie H. Bradley, Mrs. W. F. Crafts, Edward Carswell, Miss A. L. Noble, Faye Huntington, Rev. E. A. Rand, Hope Ledyard, Miss Julia Colman, Mrs. J. McNair Wright, Mrs. E. J. Richmond, Mrs. M. A. Kidder, Mrs. S. M. I. Henry, Miss E. L. Benedict, Mrs. Laura J. Rittenhouse, Thos. R. Thompson, Ernest Gilmore, etc.

MONTHLY AND SEMI-MONTHLY.

The Regular Monthly Edition will continue to be published as before, unchanged in character except for the better, and especially designed for Sunday-school distribution. Terms same as before. A Semi-Monthly Edition will so be published for those desire it.

TERMS, IN ADVANCE, INCLUDING POSTAGE.

Monthly Edition.—Single copy, one year, 25 cents. One hundred copies, to one address, $12. For any number of copies over four, to one person, at the rate of 12 cents per year.

Semi-Monthly Edition.—Single copy, twice a month, one year, 40 cents. One hundred copies, twice a month, to one person, $24. For any number of copies over four, to one person, at the rate of of 24 cents per year.

THE WATER-LILY.

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY PAPER FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY commenced with January, 1888, the publication of a new illustrated four-page paper for the very little folks, half the size of THE YOUTH'S TEMPERANCE BANNER, full of stories and helpful reading for Sunday-schools, Juvenile Temperance Organizations, and for children in the home circle. Each number is filled with choice pictures and short stories, both helpful and entertaining, contributed by the best writers. Single subscriptions, 10 cents a year. For four or more copies, sent to one person, only 6 cents a year each; fifty copies for $3, or one hundred copies for $6.

THE NATIONAL ADVOCATE.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY AND PUBLICATION HOUSE publishes a monthly paper devoted to the interests of the Temperance Reform, which contains articles upon every phase of the movement from the pens of some the ablest writers in America, among whom are T. L. Cuyler, D.D., Hon. Henry B. Metcalf, Rev. J. B. Dunn, Mrs. E. J. Richmond, Ernest Gilmore, Mrs. J. McNair Wright, Mrs. F. M. Bradley, Miss Julia Colman, Rev. E. A. Rand, etc., etc.

It also contains a history of the progress of the movement from month to month in all of the States, which is of great value to every worker in the cause.

Terms cash in advance, including postage. $1.00 per year for single copies; five copies to one person, $2.50; all over five copies at 50 cents per copy to one post-office.

TEMPERANCE BADGES AND MEDALS.

The National Temperance Society keeps on hand a supply of Badges and Medals to meet the demands for Temperance Societies, Bands of Hope, and Juvenile Temperance Organizations for some emblem to show their loyalty to the cause.

On a list given below any society can select the ones best adapted to their use, and they will be forwarded, post-paid, on receipt of price.

NEW FOUNTAIN MEDAL

Made of aluminum suspended to a bar and pin by red, white and blue ribbon. Any organization can use this badge, as it does not specify what organization it is for, simply being a total abstinence emblem.

Price 15 cents each. $1.50 per dozen.

The medal above is made of good material, well gilded, and is suitable for any juvenile organization. On the reverse side is the motto, "'Tis here we pledge Perpetual Hate to all that can Intoxicate." Price 10 cents each, $1 per dozen.

RIBBON BADGES.—Two styles, one with Band of Hope star, and one with cut of fountain. Each on superior blue ribbon, 6x1½ inches. Only 36 cents per dozen; $3 per hundred.

A celluloid button, cheaper than the nickel pin badges. It is issued to meet a demand which often comes to us for a button instead of a pin badge.

These buttons are only 5 cents each; 50 cents per dozen.

The same badge is also made with a stick pin, and can be worn that way instead of as a button if desired. Same price, 5 cents each; 50 cents per dozen, post-paid.

A neat, plain nickel pin, with the word "Temperance" cut on it, adapted especially for adult organizations. Price, 10 cents singly; $1 per dozen.

STAR.

These stars are made especially for Bands of Hope, and are fine nickel metal pins made in two styles, plain and enameled. Price, plain, 8 cents each, 75 cents per dozen; enamelled, 10 cents each, $1 per dozen. Every organization should have some emblem, and orders will receive prompt attention.

AMERICAN PRINTING, AMERICAN BINDING.

CORRECT TEXT GUARANTEED.

NEW ILLUSTRATIONS, NEW CONCORDANCE,

NEW HELPS, NEW MAPS.

These Teachers' Bibles contain new Bible Helps, entitled "THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE TREASURY," written by Leading Scholars of America and Great Britain . . .

UPWARDS OF 350 ILLUSTRATIONS of Ancient Monuments, Scenes in Bible Lands, Animals, Plants, Antiquities, Coins, etc., are distributed through the text of the Helps.....

The Dial says:

". . . The catalogue of themes treated and the compactness and lucidity of the articles are a delight to the reader. The wealth of illustrations of the best sort—not old worn-out cuts—adds greatly to the beauty and completeness of the articles. The natural-history sections are especially fine in matter and make-up. The Concordance is the most complete yet produced, being adapted both to the Authorized and to the Revised Versions, and containing also proper names. We also find incorporated in it several themes which, in other helps, are found merely in separate sections under the dry uninteresting form of tables. . . . This feature simplifies the Bible student's task. . . . Is nearest the ideal Bible student's manual of any publication in its field."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

New York Observer says: ". . . There is no book like this. Its aim is to place the student in the age and atmosphere when each book of the Bible was written, to enable the reader to study the book amid its surroundings and to become permeated with its life. The writers who have combined to make the volume are among the most celebrated Bible students, scholars, Egyptologists, and divines of Great Britain and America. . . . More than three hundred and fifty illustrations accompany the text, and all of them are of value to the students of the Bible. They are not pictures so much as guides and expositors in the Holy Word. . . . Such a book demands attentive study and rewards it. It is a result of ripe learning consecrated to the best of uses, and it will be of great service to those who read and teach the word of God."

The Independent says: "'The Illustrated Bible Treasury.' . . . It is one of those wonderful 'helps' to the popular study of the Bible which both illustrates the enormous amount of fruitful, critical study which has been applied to the Bible in our time and gives the best possible assurance that the Sacred Book has gained in weight, importance and in the reverent feeling of the people for it. Of all the 'aids' for the popular study of the Bible, which belong in the general class of Teachers' Bibles, this is easily foremost and best. . . . The marked feature of the Treasury is that every part of it is new, and that it contains none of that sequacious compilation which is based on works once in repute but which at the best rise no higher than belated attempts to bring an old thing up to the gauge of a new one. . . . The number of contributors who have taken part in the work is thirty-eight. They make a list which commands confidence and challenges admiration."

The Evangelist says: ". . . It is in the character of the 'helps' and the men who have written them, that this edition of the Bible exceeds in value all that have preceded it."

Christian Intelligencer says: ". . . It has no superior . . . the best series of 'Helps' in existence. It is, indeed, a 'Treasury' filled with pearls of great price."

MONUMENTAL TESTIMONY TO THE OLD TESTAMENT.

MONUMENTAL TESTIMONY TO THE OLD TESTAMENT.

BY PROFESSOR A. H. SAYCE, LL.D.

PART II.

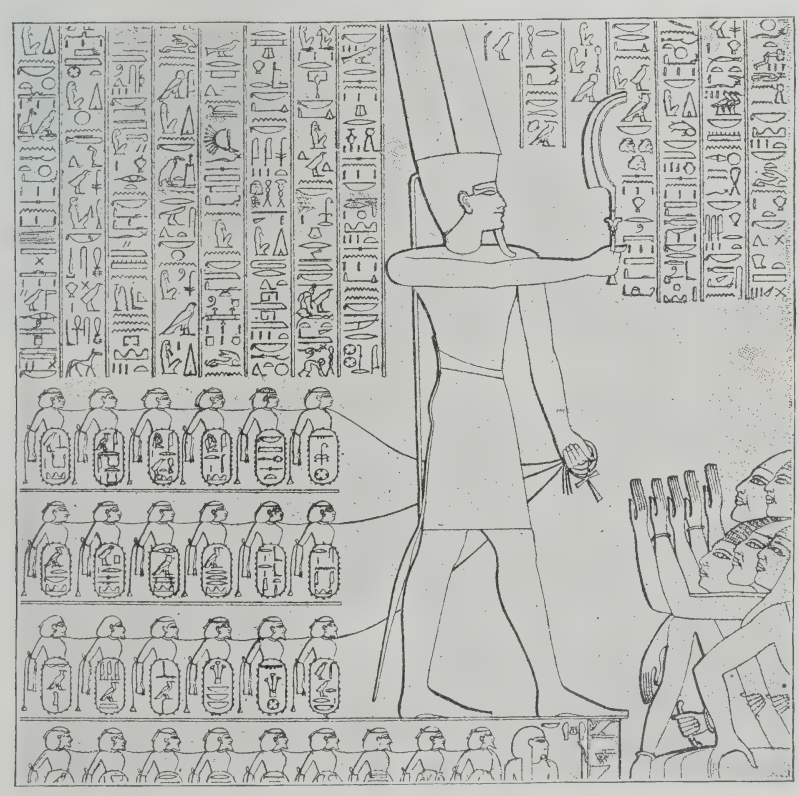
CHUSHAN-RISHATHAIM'S CONQUEST OF ISRAEL. — We have learned from the Tel el-Amarna tablets that Palestine had been invaded by the forces of Aram-naharaim (A. V. "Mesopotamia") more than once, long before the Exodus, and that at the time they were written, the king of Aram-naharaim was still intriguing in Canaan. It is mentioned among the countries which took part in the attack upon Egypt in the reign of Ramses III. (of the Twentieth Dynasty), but as its king is not one of the princes stated to have been conquered by the Pharaoh, it would seem that he did not actually enter Egypt. As the reign of Ramses III. corresponds with the Israelitish occupation of Canaan, it is probable that the Egyptian monuments refer to the oppression of the Israelites by Chushan-rishathaim. Canaan was still regarded as a province of Egypt, so that, in attacking it, Chushan-rishathaim would have been considered to be attacking Egypt.

SHISHAK'S INVASION OF JUDAH. — Shishak (Shashanq in Egyptian), the founder of the Egyptian Twenty-second Dynasty, has given on the southern wall of the temple of Karnak, a list of the places he captured in Palestine.



SHISHAK TAKING JEWS INTO CAPTIVITY.
From a Wall of Karnak (Lepsius).

Shishak holds in his hand strings, leading various captives supposed to have been taken in his invasion of Judah. (2 Chr. 12. 2–9.)

TREASURY OF ANTIQUITIES, ETC.

GOLDEN CANDLESTICK WITH SEVEN BRANCHES.

(From a Photograph.)

Being part of the spoil of Jerusalem, in the bas-relief on the Arch of Titus, Rome.

the lighting of the candlestick was attended to. No blood touched it, save that of the sin-offering, which was annually put on its corners to make atonement. It symbolized the required and acceptable adoration of the people of God (Ex. 30. 1-10; 40. 5; cf. Heb. 9. 4).

The TABLE OF SHEWBREAD stood on the northern side of the Sanctuary. It measured two cubits long, one broad, and one and a half high, was made of acacia wood overlaid with gold, was bordered by a golden crown, and was provided at each corner with a ring for the staves by which it was transported. On it were displayed in two rows the twelve cakes — which, according to Jewish tradition, were unleavened — called the Shewbread, or, literally, Bread of the Presence. The bread was changed every Sabbath, and the old loaves were eaten by the priests in the Sanctuary. These loaves, placed in the presence of Jehovah, probably symbolized the constant communion of His people with Him in those things which His bounty provided, and which they enjoyed in His presence and used in His service (Ex. 25. 23-30; Lev. 24. 5-9).

The GOLDEN CANDLESTICK stood on the south side of the Sanctuary. It consisted of a base and shaft with six branches, beaten out of solid gold, and furnished with seven lamps. A talent of gold was used in making it and its appurtenances. Pure olive oil was burned; the lamps were filled (or lighted?) every evening and cleaned every morning; and, according to Josephus, three of them were kept constantly burning by day. It was a fit symbol of the continued existence, the uninterrupted worship, and the unceasing emission of light by the people of God (Ex. 25. 31-40; 27. 20; 30. 7, 8; Lev. 24. 2-4; 1 Sam. 3. 3; cf. Zech. 4; Antiq. III. viii. 3).

The BRAZEN ALTAR, or ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING, stood in the outer court, and directly in front of the Tabernacle. It was five cubits square and three cubits high, and consisted of a frame of acacia wood overlaid with brass. It was provided with rings and staves for transportation, and had projections like horns on its upper corners, and a platform round about it and half-way up it for the priests to stand on. No steps were allowed. It was hollow, and was probably filled with earth wherever erected.

It was at this altar that all sacrifice was offered. It was the first object met by those who would approach God, and it distinctly taught that man could not approach Jehovah except as a sinner atoned for by blood (Ex. 27. 1-8).

The LAVER of brass stood upon a base of brass

THE TRAVELS OF ST. PAUL.

ATHENS.

THE TRAVELS OF ST. PAUL.

BY SIR CHARLES WILSON, K.C.B.

ANTIOCH, the metropolis of the Greek kings of Syria, and afterwards the residence of the Roman governors of the province of the same name, stood on the left bank of the Orontes, which a little lower down separates the range of Mount Amanus from the chain of Lebanon. Built partly on an island, partly on low ground, and partly on the rocky slopes of Mount Silpius, it was a city of singular beauty, adorned with magnificent temples, palaces, and colonnades. Its delightful climate, and the close proximity of the sanctuary of Apollo — with its fountains, its groves, and its licentious rites — attracted pleasure-seekers from all parts of the Roman Empire. But a large majority of its population was a worthless rabble of Greeks and Orientals, which passed its time in the theatres or in faction fights on the race-course. There was also a large Jewish colony dating from the time when, under the Seleucid monarchs, and especially during the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes, Antioch was closely connected with Jewish history. How far the Antiochian Jews had been able to resist the Greek influence to which they were exposed is uncertain; but many of the Greeks appear to have become "God-fearing proselytes," or "Proselytes of the Gate."

On the dispersion that followed the martyrdom of Stephen, certain Jews of Cyprus and Cyrene, who had been brought up in Greek lands, came to Antioch, and addressed both Jews and Greek proselytes in the synagogue. Their preaching was successful. A mixed body of Jews and Greek proselytes formed a primitive congregation, which gradually increased in numbers until it attracted the attention of the church in Jerusalem. In accordance with a former precedent (Acts 8. 14), Barnabas, "a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith," was sent by the church to encourage the new congregation. After exhorting them to "cleave unto the Lord," he went to Tarsus to seek for Saul, whose sponsor he had been before the apostles at Jerusalem, and whose special qualifications for work amongst the Gentiles he knew. They returned together (43 A.D.), and henceforth Antioch becomes the centre of progress and of historical interest in the church. Here the brethren were first called Christians, or "they that are connected with Christos"—a title that could not have originated with the Jews. Whether Christos were a god or a leader the Antiochians knew not, and popular fancy changed the name to Chrêstos ("good, useful"), a term which occurs in the form Chrêstians in inscriptions.

Agabus having foretold a dearth, the congregation sent Barnabas and Saul with relief to the brethren in Judæa. The visit, probably that referred to in Gal. 2. 2 as due to a revelation, marks an important stage in the development of the church. The older apostles recognized the apostleship of Barnabas and Saul (Gal. 2. 9), and their special mission to "preach Him among the Gentiles." Saul was also able to confer privately

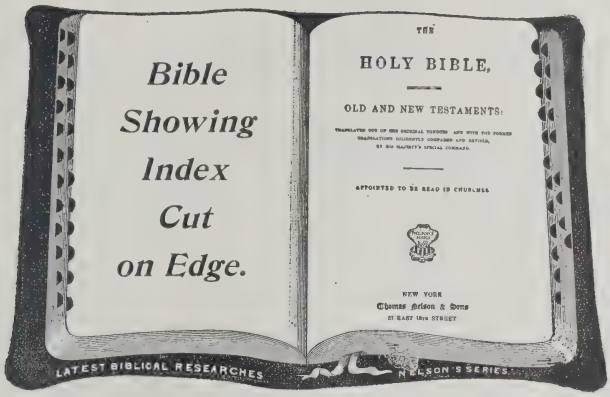
BIBLE INDEX.



DESCRIPTION.

1. Printed in gold on waterproof paper.

2. Provides separate cutting for each of the thicker books which are more frequently referred to.

3. Indexes all the small books (37 of which contain less than 10 pages each) in groups of two or more, locating the cutting at the beginning of the first book of the group.

ADVANTAGES.

1. The index names are so printed that the Bible requires no turning to read the index.

2. All cuttings are full and open, giving a clear view of the index.

3. The index for Psalms (probably most frequently referred to) stands at the top of the second series of cuttings, so that it can be turned to without reading the index name.

4. Opening at Matthew brings to view every name in each cutting of the whole index.

5. Matthew stands at the top of the third series, thereby plainly marking the beginning of the New Testament.

David trusteth in God. PSALMS. He encourageth the godly.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.
17 Unto thee, [e]O my strength, will I sing: [f]for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

[e] Ps. 18. 1.
[f] ver. 9, 10.

PSALM 60.

1 David, complaining to God of former judgment, 4 now, upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance. 6 Comforting himself in God's promises, he craveth that help whereon he trusteth.

To the chief Musician *upon Shushan-eduth, [1]Michtam of David, to teach; †when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

6 [d]Thou [1]wilt prolong the king's life: and his years [2]as many generations.
7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy [e]and truth, which may preserve him.
8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM 62.

1 David professing his confidence in God discourageth his enemies. 5 In the same confidence he encourageth the godly. 9 No trust is to be put in worldly things. 11 Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to *Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

David's thirst for God. PSALMS. He praiseth God.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: [a] if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.
11 God hath spoken [b] once; twice have I heard this; that [3] power belongeth unto God.
12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for [c] thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM 63.

1 David's thirst for God. 4 His manner of blessing God.

A Psalm of David, [e] when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: [f] my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and [5] thirsty land, [6] where no water is;
2 To see [g] thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.
3 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.
4 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.
5 My soul shall be satisfied as with [9] marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:
6 When [m] I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.
7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.
9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
10 [1] They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.
11 But the king shall rejoice in God:

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly [4] shall they be wounded.
8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: [a] all that see them shall flee away.
9 And all men shall fear, and shall [e] declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.
10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM 65.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God's chosen by reason of benefits.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE [7] waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.
2 O thou that hearest prayer, [h] unto thee shall all flesh come.
3 [8] Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt [i] purge them away.

Israelites overcome, I. SAMUEL, 4. and the ark taken.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The Israelites are overcome by the Philistines. 11 The ark is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas are slain. 18 Eli falleth backward. 19 I-chabod is born.

AND the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 ¶ And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended,

19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

Of the flesh GALATIANS, 6. and Spirit.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.
17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,
20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,
21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faithfulness,
23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped: 2 to bear one another's burden, &c.

PSALM 25.

1 David's confidence in prayer. 7 He prayeth for remission of sins, 16 and for help in affliction.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.
4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.
5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not the sins shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.
13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.
14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.
15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.
16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.
17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.
18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.
19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.
20 O keep my soul, and de-

all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.
31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.
33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.
35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.
36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.
37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.
38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

PSALM 59. Eripe me de inimicis.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O God: defend me from them that rise up against me.
2 O deliver me from the wicked doers: and save me from the blood-thirsty men.
3 For lo, they lie waiting for my soul: the mighty men are gathered against me, without any offence or fault of me, O LORD.
4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: arise thou therefore to help me, and behold.
5 Stand up, O LORD God of hosts, thou God of Israel, to visit all the heathen: and be not merciful unto them that offend of malicious wickedness.
6 They go to and fro in the evening: they grin like a dog, and run about through the city.
7 Behold, they speak with their mouth, and swords are in their lips: for who doth hear?
8 But thou, O LORD, shalt have them in derision: and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorn.
9 My strength will I ascribe unto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.
10 God showeth me his goodness plenteously:

on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answer. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

Answer. The Lord's Name be praised.

¶ Then shall follow a portion of the PSALMS, *as they are appointed, or one of the Selections, as they are set forth by this Church. OF THE AMERICAN MADE BOOKS

The Churchman says:

"In our opinion the workmanship of these volumes challenges comparison with, if it does not actually excel, that of similar books printed anywhere else in the world. This is a noteworthy fact, and points to an epoch in American book manufacture, for the plates from which these editions were struck off were made, and both printing and binding were done, in the United States.

"It is quite evident that people will have no longer to go abroad for books of this class. The United States has achieved a late and long deferred triumph at a point in the field of manufacture at which hitherto native competition has been defied.

"There are four editions issued by Messrs. Nelson, three of service books for the hand, one adapted also for the reading desk. . . . .

"We feel quite sure that these editions will meet with the popularity which they so eminently merit."

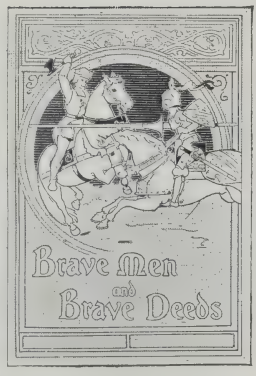
Thomas Nelson & Sons'

NEW BOOKS.

Season 1898.



Brave Men and Brave Deeds; or, Famous Stories from European History. By M. B. SYNGE. 8vo, extra cloth, illustrated. $1.00

This collection of stories describes some of the greatest men and the greatest incidents of European History. Miss Synge has aimed at telling them as real stories, not as historical sketches, and she has succeeded in making them as fascinating as any history.

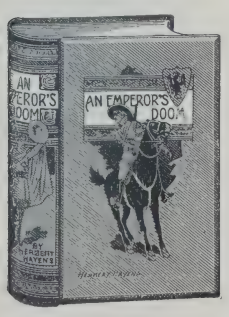
Mr. A. J. B. Salmon's illustrations make this a very attractive gift book.

Breaking the Record. The Story of Three Arctic Expeditions. By M. DOUGLAS. 12mo, extra cloth. Illustrated ..... .80

The success of the Nansen Expedition has revived in an extraordinary manner the interest in Polar voyages.

It was a happy thought which led Miss Douglas to combine in one volume narratives of the three North Polar expeditions which have struggled farthest to the North.

The bright, fresh descriptions of the voyages of Nares, Greely, De Long, and Nansen, and the numerous illustrations, make this compact little volume a gift book that is sure to please.



An Emperor's Doom; or, The Patriots of Mexico. By HERBERT HAYENS. A Tale of the Downfall of Maximilian. With illustrations by A. J. B. Salmon. 8vo, extra cloth. $1.50

"It is the story of the unfortunate Maximilian's brief and inglorious reign, and of his tragic downfall. This is a comparatively unfamiliar chapter in recent history, and this well told tale brings it vividly before the reader, whose interest never flags for a moment."—The Christian World.

Soldiers of the Legion. A Tale of the Carlist War. By HERBERT HAYENS. 8vo, extra cloth, illustrated $1.25

"The story deals in a telling way with the varied aspects of war, the horrors of inactivity, 'when men drilled and died,' suffering from exposure, lack of provisions and camp fevers, and again, with battles where men forgot danger in the hope of glory."—The Evangelist.

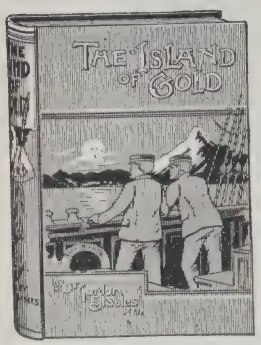
Rambles Among the Wild Flowers. A Book for the Young. By M. C. COOKE, M.A., LL.D. (Uncle Mat). The five parts in one volume. With ten colored plates, illustrating forty-two wild flowers, and 296 engravings, 12mo, extra cloth..... $1.75

This volume of Dr. Cooke's simple talks is just the thing to interest beginners in the plant life around them. It is a handsome gift book, and will please all the young people who have a taste for botany.

For the Queen's Sake; or, The Story of Little Sir Caspar. By E. EVERETT-GREEN. 8vo, extra cloth, illustrated..... $1.00

It is a pretty story with charming pictures of Sir Caspar's happy home, and of adventures that happened to him and his companions.

The cover of "For the Queen's Sake," which has been adapted for this catalogue, and the illustrations by J. H. BACON, make this a very attractive volume for the young.



The Island of Gold. A Sailor's Yarn. By GORDON STABLES, M.D., R. N., author of "Every Inch a Sailor," "How Jack Mac Kenzie Won His Epaulettes," etc. With six illustrations by ALLAN STEWART. 8vo, extra cloth $1.25

Boys like Dr. Gordon Stables' stories of the sea, and this one will not fail to please every boy who is worthy of the name.

The writer is as boyish and jolly as ever, and his hero is a boy of the right stamp.

"An amusingly interesting story for young people. It teems with thrilling incidents and healthy adventures."—Boston Daily Globe.

Partners. A new school story for boys. By H. F. GETHEN. 8vo, cloth extra $1.00

"A bracing moral atmosphere pervades the entire book."—The Sunday School Library Bulletin.

The Vanished Yacht. By E. HARCOURT BURRAGE. 8vo, extra cloth, illustrated $1.00

The "Vanished Yacht" is a stirring tale of the sea, which will appeal to boys of forty just as much as to boys of fourteen.

"Its theme is the chase of a yacht stolen by a Spanish adventurer, and its capture after many difficulties are surmounted. The illustrations are good, and the style of the narrative is well calculated to sustain interest."—The Dial.

Nellie O'Neill; or, Our Summer Time. By AGNES C. MAITLAND. 8vo, cloth extra, illustrated. (A new edition) $1.00

Poor Mrs. Dick, and Her Adventures in Quest of Happiness. By A. C. CHAMBERS. A story founded on fact. Cloth ..... .50

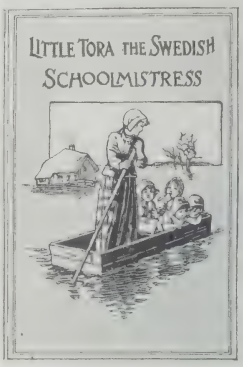
"A very interesting sketch of a canary bird. It will impress the truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive."—The Sunday School Library Bulletin.

A Clerk of Oxford, and his adventures in the Baron's War. New historical tale by E. EVERETT-GREEN. With a plan of Oxford in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, and a view of the city from an old print. 8vo, extra cloth $1.50

"It recalls the history of that spirited conflict with some fullness, glorifies the heroic figure of Simon De Montfort, and lays stress on the virtues of independence and resistance to wrong which were then displayed. It is a story which will cultivate a boy's manliness."—The Advance.

Life of Queen Victoria. By W. SCOTT DALGLEISH. Enlarged and revised edition. With six finely colored plates. Square 16mo, cloth extra .. $1.00

This "Life of Queen Victoria" is intended to furnish young people with a simple and connected account of her personal history, public events being referred to only when they have a close connection with Her Majesty's private life. The story of the Queen's own life has been kept in the front all through, and in such a way as to allow her character to reveal itself in her actions and words.



Little Tora, the Swedish Schoolmistress: And Other Stories. By MRS. WOODS BAKER. 12mo, extra cloth, illustrated ..... .60

Like all of Mrs. Woods Baker's books, "Little Tora" contains simple stories of simple people, living in the quaint and picturesque surroundings of Swedish life. The volume is made up of three short stories. The first of these is about Tora, a little schoolmistress, whose presence of mind in a great flood saved the lives of all the children at her school.

"This brave little Swedish girl was sweet in her Christlikeness and in thoughtful, tender ministries to others, saving her scholars, through her great courage, from certain death in a flood."—The Sunday School Library Bulletin.

Thoughts on Familiar Problems. By JOHN M. MCCANDLISH. "The questions involved are of a high practical character, affecting the hearts and the lives of all of us." 8vo, cloth $1.00*

Poppy. A story for girls. By MRS. ISLA SITWELL, author of "In Far Japan," "The Golden Woof," etc. With illustrations. 8vo, cloth extra $1.25

The charm of this intensely interesting tale is its fidelity to English country life.

The story is wholesome in tone. There is much tender interest in it, but nothing weak or sentimental. It has a somewhat unexpected and surprising dénouement.

"It is a story for girls, and is surely wholesome and nutritive."—The Commercial Advertiser.

JUST PUBLISHED.

The Green Toby Jug and the Princess Who Lived Opposite. By MRS. EDWIN HOHLER, Cloth, 8vo. Illustrated $1.00

Vandrad the Viking; or, the Feud and the Spell. A tale of the Norsemen. By I. Storer Clouston. With six illustrations by Herbert Paton. 8vo, cloth extra. .80

"Vandrad is the story of Estein, the son of Hakon, of Norway, about the time Christianity was making itself felt in those then remote regions, and is full of Viking lore and adventure, as bracing and invigorating as the air of the tumultuous North Sea."—Christian Intelligencer.

A Helping Hand. By M. B. Synge. 12mo, extra cloth. Illustrated..... .60

This realistic sketch of life among the London poor is by the author of "Granny," "A Child of the Mews," "Jem's Wife," etc.

"Most of the sadness and heartaches which entered into the lives portrayed in this might have been avoided had the weak minds of men and women been able to refuse the first taste of liquor."—Sunday School Library Bulletin.

The Young Emigrants. A Story for Boys. By C. T. Johnstone. 12mo, extra cloth. With illustrations..... .60

This book will be of special interest to boys who are interested in Canada. It gives a capital idea of life in the Northwest at the present day.

"A wholesome book for young boys. It tells of a small boy who emigrates from Liverpool to Canada, also of his many haps and mishaps and how he arranged for his parents to be with him."—Sunday School Library Bulletin.

Soldiers of the Queen; or Jack Fenleigh's Luck. A story of the dash to Khartoum. By Harold Avery, author of "Frank's First Term." 8vo, cloth extra..... .80

Mr. Avery is equally good in describing school, home and military life. His schools are real; his boys are fine fellows—the boys who make gallant soldiers of the Queen.

Soldiers of the Queen—Continued.

"A story of the famous dash to Khartoum for the rescue of Gordon. The story is very vivid in picturing the daily routine of the soldier's life, of his feelings when under fire for the first time. It must have been written by one who knows of the soldier's life and of his feelings."—The Advance.

Wee Doggie. The lives and adventures—which are true—of several of my "Wee Doggie" friends. By Elizabeth C. Traice, author of "Mistress Elizabeth Spencer," etc. Cloth .50

THE A. L. O. E. THIRTY-FIVE VOLUME SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARY.

12mo. Cloth Extra. In neat wooden case, $20.00.*

"The death of the lady who has been so long known to the world as 'A. L. O. E.' will snap, as it were, a link with the past to thousands of men and women over the whole English-speaking world. . . . In looking through a list of her books, one is struck by the enormous popularity which some of them have enjoyed, and by the genuine literary beauty which many of them display. 'Precepts in Practice,' 'Idols in the Heart,' 'The Young Pilgrim,'—these titles serve to indicate the character of much of her work, although, perhaps, 'Claudia' and 'The Lady of Provence' were even more successful as good stories."—The Illustrated London News.

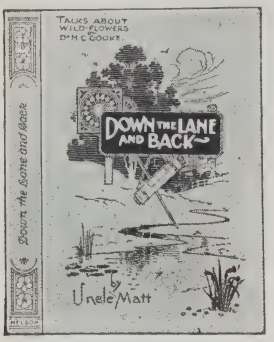
Also sold in boxed sets, 5 vols., boards $2.50



Each year greater stress is being laid upon the importance of interesting children in the common things around them. In response to the growing demand for very simple books on Botany, we have issued a series of five dainty little volumes of Rambles after Wild Flowers. They are intended to awaken in their readers a love for and an interest in common wild flowers.

"In these bright and pleasant pages the children are taken by the hand by 'Uncle Matt'—a character cheerily and sympathetically impersonated by Dr. Cooke—and led on various rambles around the neighborhood of the home or holiday centre, however it may be imagined, in search of wild flowers. These when found are made a note of, with picture and in merry chat; and so, besides getting a good time generally, the young people pick up a great deal of elementary knowledge of botany."—School Board Chronicle.,

In Taunton Town. A Story of the Rebellion of James, Duke of Monmouth, in 1685, with portrait. 8vo, pp. 502, cloth extra.....$1.75

Though the incidents of that hapless adventure have often been woven into fiction, that has never been more successfully done than in the present tale. From the first chapter, the reader's interest is seized and held firmly by the pictures it contains of life in the villages of Somersetshire.

While the pictures of camp and battlefield appeal to boyish readers, the story of the love of Viscount Vere and his bride, and of the devotion of her spirited friend Mistress Mary Bridges, cannot fail to charm girls. The minor characters, such as the hateful Rev. Nicholas Blewer and the garrulous Mother Whale, are life-like and historically true.

This is another of E. Everett-Green's charming stories of modern life—a book which will especially delight girls who are passing out of their teens.

Olive Roscoe; or, the New Sister. 8vo, cloth extra.....$1.75

The author has hit upon a novel situation, that of a girl who is, for excellent reasons, allowed to grow up under the impression that she is an orphan. At the age of twenty, the necessity for concealment being removed, she is taken from a country rectory where she has spent her childhood. Arriving at the house of her father, who is a coalmaster in the north of England, she suddenly finds herself "sprung upon" a family of three brothers and five sisters, who were till then utterly ignorant of her existence.

Little Frida. A Tale of the Black Forest. By the Author of "Little Hazel," etc., etc. 12mo, pp. 156, extra cloth..... .60

"Little Frida" is a delightful addition to the "Little Hazel" series, and by the same author. It is the story of a little girl who was found by a wood-cutter in the Black Forest in Germany, and was taken to his home and brought up there by his kind-hearted wife along with her own children. The mystery of Frida's birth and family connections is unfolded with great skill, and in a manner that involves more than one charming surprise. The interest of the story is maintained to the end, and through it all there breathes a spirit of earnest piety and high principle.

An Account of Palmyra and Zenobia, with Travels and Adventures in Bashan and the Desert. With numerous full-page illustrations, small cuts, maps, and a copious index. 8vo, pp. 394. Extra cloth, gilt top, bevelled edges $2.50*

"Palmyra is chiefly known for its ruins and its traditions of Zenobia's illustrious reign. To both of these Dr. Wright does more justice than is commonly expected from travellers' tales. He has occupied himself with original research and the study of inscriptions, so that his narrative has a very different style from that of the vapid, second-hand and tenth-rate literature of the majority of unprofessional travellers. Much entertainment as well as much information may be found in this modest volume."—New York Times.

"Thos. Nelson & Sons have set a pace that will test American authors and publishers to their utmost. There is not to be found for the money in any department of literature such beautiful books as these, from the illustrative standpoint at least. Little people do like colors, and they have grown beyond their school days before they cease to find a peculiar claim in an exquisite picture where effect is heightened by the artistic touch of color. It should not be understood that this exceptional attraction is the only merit of this series, which abounds in modern ideas, skilfully applied. The selections are interesting to children, are well guarded, are pleasingly varied, and are provided with many aids to the child and suggestions to the teacher."—Journal of Education.

Class Teaching of Writing from the blackboard, combined with copying of headlines by the pupils, has long been desired.

In the present systems of writing this has been impossible. Where scholars have commenced copy books at different times, or have had an unequal number of attendances, they are, under the present systems, writing on different pages, and therefore copying different headlines. In the Royal Copy Book is solved the problem of simultaneous instruction in writing, and class teaching of writing is now made easy for all schools.

By using the Royal Copy Books, the whole class can always copy the same headline at the same time. This great advantage has been attained by a novel arrangement—the headlines being cut away from the body of the copy book, but firmly stitched in the same cover. The headline above each page can thus be changed as often as is desired, and in this way the copying by the scholars of their own writing instead of the headlines will be completely obviated.

The Star Copy Books. The great success of the Royal Copy Books (with cut headlines) proves that they have fulfilled their aim of enabling teachers to combine the simultaneous class-teaching of writing with the use of engraved headlines in the style of penmanship best suited for clerks in the Civil Service and in Business Offices. In response to requests from teachers who have not time for simultaneous class-teaching of writing, but who wish to introduce the style of penmanship of the Royal Copy Books, the publishers are now issuing the Star Copy Books with two headlines on each page. Ten books in the series. Per dozen.....$1.00*

10. Commercial Forms, Letters and Correspondence.

The Upright Copy Books. Nine books in the series. Per dozen.....$1.00*

The series is just issued, and will be found to meet all the requirements of a truly vertical style of penmanship. Care has been taken to obtain the maximum fluency, simplicity, and legibility, and no pains have been spared by which the neatness or the workmanship of these books could be improved.

With cut-away headlines for simultaneous instruction.

"'The Upright' has the copy cut from the page so that any copy can be used for any page. This meets all classes and conditions of conservatives and cranks, who can have a whole page given to one copy, or they can have a different copy on every line. 'The Royal Copy Books' (nineteen parts) is much like the 'Upright,' but simply magnifies the grading by doubling the number of books in the series."—Journal of Education.

What Shall the Harvest Be? Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

MY SISTER HENRIETTE.—A Popular Book. By Ernest Renan. Translated from the French by Walter J. C. Gussenrode.

The first edition of this work consisted of but 100 copies, issued for private circulation, and on rare occasions when a copy chanced to be sold in some private library it brought from 400 to 500 francs. It has become justly celebrated, and is now issued in a handsome paper-covered edition. Price, 25 cents.

MISS SLIMMENS' BOARDING-HOUSE.—By the author of "A Bad Boy's Diary." 16mo, 188 pages, with nine illustrations. Complete edition. Paper cover, 25 cents.

MISS SLIMMENS' WINDOW.—Complete edition in one volume now ready. 16mo, 150 pages. Bound in heavy paper covers, with 13 illustrations, 25 cents.

NICHOLSON'S ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ARCHITECTURE.—By Peter Nicholson, the world-renowned architect and builder, whose reputation and experience make him an unquestioned authority on all questions relating to building and structures of all kinds, including railroads, bridges, lighthouses, cathedrals, churches, theaters, public and private buildings of every character. It would be impossible in any circular to give the faintest idea of the real and practical value of this work, but when we make the statement that thousands of copies of this work have been sold for $32.00, and that we now offer you the same work for $10.00, you will have some idea of the great advantage we are now offering you. It is issued in two handsome quarto volumes, bound in half morocco, each volume containing 650 pages, or a total of 1,300 pages—among which are two hundred and fifteen full-page steel engravings, which have been reproduced especially for this work. The enormous expense attendant upon the publication of this work will be understood somewhat when we state that the original cost of the plates used was nearly $11,000. A wonderful and special offer!—We are anxious to get immediate orders for this work to help to reimburse us for the immense outlay, and we make you the following special offer for a limited time: If you will send us a remittance of $9.00 within twenty days after you receive this catalogue we will send the two volumes by express, all charges paid, to your address.

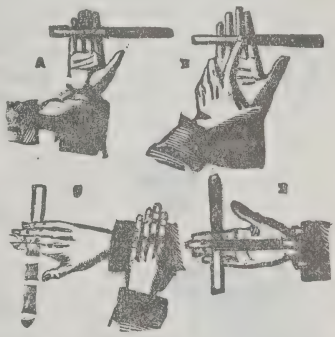
NAPOLEON'S COMPLETE BOOK of Fate and Complete Fortune Teller.—This is the celebrated Oracle of Human Destiny consulted by Napoleon the First previous to any of his undertakings, and by which he was so successful in war, business and love. It is the only authentic and complete copy extant, being translated into English from a German translation of an ancient Egyptian manuscript found in the year 1801 by M. Sonini in one of the royal tombs near Mount Libycus, in Upper Egypt. This Oraculum is so arranged that any question on business, love, wealth, losses, hidden treasures, no matter what its nature, the Oraculum has an answer for it. It also shows how to learn of one's fate by consulting the planets. Price, 15 cents.

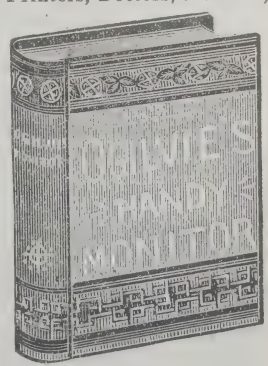


OGILVIE'S HOUSE PLANS; or, How to Build a House.—A neat new book, containing over thirty finely executed engravings of dwellings of all sizes, from two rooms up; also churches, barns and outhouses in great variety.

This handy, compact and very useful volume contains, in addition to the foregoing, plans for each floor in each and every dwelling of which an engraving is given. It has also valuable information relative to building, such as number of shingles required in a roof, quantity of plaster for a house, quantity of materials required for building a house, etc., etc., and much other information of permanent and practical value.

Any one of the plans is alone worth very much more than the price asked for the book. It is invaluable to every architect, builder, mason or carpenter, and particularly do we urge all who anticipate erecting a new or remodeling an old dwelling to send for a copy, as its fortunate possessor may save hundreds of dollars by following the suggestions it contains. Price, 25 cents.

OGILVIE'S HANDY MONITOR OF USEFUL FACTS, containing Statistical Tables of Practical Value for Mechanics, Merchants, Editors, Lawyers, Printers, Doctors, Farmers, Lumbermen, Bankers, Bookkeepers, Politicians, and all classes of workers in every department of human effort, and containing a compilation of facts for reference on various subjects, being an epitome of matters Historical, Statistical, Biographical, Political, Geographical and general interest. No more valuable book has ever been offered containing so much information of practical value in every-day life. 192 pages, bound in paper, 25 cents.

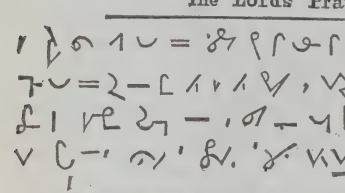


OUR BOYS' AND GIRLS' FAVORITE SPEAKER.—Containing Patriotic, Sentimental, Poetical, and Comic Gems of Oratory, by Chapin, Dickens, Dow, Jr., Beecher, Phebe Cary, Burns, Artemus Ward, Everett, Tennyson, Saxe, Webster, Parker, Clay, Curtis, Talmage and others. 15 cents.

ONE HUNDRED BEAR STORIES.—By Murat Halstead. We desire to announce that we have just issued a book written and edited from the peculiar and fascinating literature of the Bear by the well-known and popular journalist Murat Halstead, and which will have a large sale. It is fully illustrated by one of the best artists of the day. Twelve full-page illustrations. 12mo, 250 pages. Paper cover, 50c.

ODELL'S SYSTEM OF SHORTHAND.—By which the taking down of sermons, lectures, trials, speeches, etc., may be easily acquired, without the aid of a master. By this plan the difficulties of mastering this useful art are very much lessened, and the time required to attain proficiency reduced to the least possible limits. The Lord's Prayer as shown above is written in shorthand. Price, 15 cents.

The Lords Prayer.



OLD WITCHES' DREAM BOOK AND COMPLETE FORTUNE TELLER.—Do you ever dream? And would you like to know the meaning of any or all of your dreams? If so, you ought to buy this book, which contains the full and correct interpretations of all dreams and their lucky numbers. Also fortune telling by cards, by the grounds in the coffee cup, how to discover a thief, to know whether a woman shall have the man she wishes, to know what fortune your future husband shall have, to see your future wife or husband. The dumb cake, together with charms, incantations, etc., etc. This is a book that every one that wishes to know what is going to happen ought to buy. Price, 25 cents.

OLD SECRETS AND NEW DISCOVERIES.—Containing Information of Rare Value for all Classes, in all Conditions of Society.

It Tells all about Electrical Psychology, showing how you can biologize any person, and, while under the influence, he will do anything you may wish him, no matter how ridiculous it may be, and he cannot help doing it.

It Tells how to Mesmerize. Knowing this, you can place any person in a mesmeric sleep, and then be able to do with him as you will. This secret has been sold over and over again for $10.

It Tells how to make persons at a distance think of you—something all lovers should know.

It Tells how you can charm those you meet and make them love you, whether they will or not.

It Tells how Spiritualists and others can make writing appear on the arm in blood characters, as performed by Foster and all noted magicians.

It Tells how to make a cheap Galvanic Battery; how to plate and gild without a battery; how to make a candle burn all night; how to make a clock for 25 cents; how to detect counterfeit money; how to banish and prevent mosquitoes from biting; how to make yellow butter in winter; Circassian curling fluid; Sympathetic or Secret Writing Ink; Cologne Water; Artificial Honey; Stammering; how to make large noses small; to cure drunkenness; to copy letters without a press; to obtain fresh-blown flowers in winter; to make good burning candles from lard.

It Tells how to make a horse appear as though he was badly foundered; to make a horse temporarily lame; how to make him stand by his food and not eat it; how to cure a horse from the crib or sucking wind; how to put a young countenance on the horse; how to cover up the heaves; how to make him appear as if he had the glanders; how to make a true-pulling horse balk; how to nerve a horse that is lame, etc., etc. These horse secrets are being continually sold at one dollar each.

It Tells how to make the Eggs of Pharo's Serpents, which, when lighted, though but the size of a pea, there issues from it a coiling, hissing serpant, wonderful in length and similarity to a genuine serpent.

It Tells how to make gold and silver from block tin (the least said about which the better). Also how to take impressions from coins. Also how to imitate gold and silver.

It Tells of a simple and ingenious method for copying any kind of drawing or picture. Also more wonderful still, how to print pictures from the print itself.

It Tells how to perform the Davenport Brothers' "Spirit Mysteries." So that any person can astonish an audience, as they have done. Also scores of other wonderful things for which there is no room to mention.

Old Secrets and New Discoveries is worth $5 to any person; but it will be mailed to any address on receipt of only 25 cents.

ONE HUNDRED POPULAR SONGS.—Words and music. Only the latest and most popular pieces are contained in this valuable book. There is not one dull tune in the entire compilation. Each melody is given in full, together with words, complete, same as published in regular sheet music. Never before was so large a number of first-class songs given in one volume. The most successful writers of Europe and America are well represented on the pages of this attractive songster. Price, 25 cents.

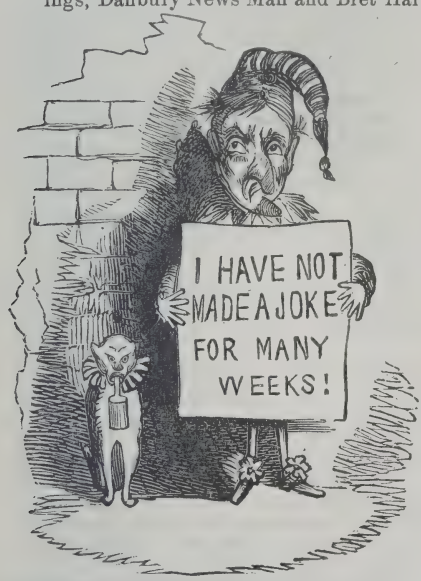
OUT IN THE STREETS.—By S. N. Cook. Price, 15 cents.

We take pleasure in offering the strictly moral and very amusing temperance drama entitled, "Out in the Streets," to all entertainment committees as one that will give entire satisfaction. The parts are taken by six male and six female characters.

PALLISER'S BOOKS ON ARCHITECTURE AND HOUSE PLANS.—We publish the full line of books prepared by the well-known firm of architects, Palliser, Palliser & Co. For full description of these books, see another page of this catalogue.

PARKER'S NEW MARRIAGE GUIDE (DR).—This work deals with subjects interesting to married people only, or such as may shortly intend entering the married state. It deals with the choice of a companion; who should and who should not marry, and the conditions essential to a happy married life. It deals with the philosophy of conception, pregnancy, and all things incident to bearing children. The errors of married people and the consequence of excesses, as also the improvement of offspring, how to have sons and daughters, limitation of progeny, and all the latest discoveries in the science of reproduction. It is the best book ever issued for all who contemplate marriage. No one should get married without procuring a copy. Read the table of contents carefully, and then decide whether or not you can afford to be without this invaluable guide on the subject of marriage. Table of contents: Chapter I., Ignorance; Chapter II., The Reproductive Organs; Chapter III., Self-Abuse; Chapter IV., Cause of Self-Abuse.—Sexual Perversion; Chapter V., Effects of Self-Abuse; Chapter VI., Sexual Diseases; Chapter VII., Treatment of Seminal Weakness; Chapter VIII., The Generative Organs. It contains 192 pages, is fully illustrated, and bound in handsome cloth. It will be sent securely sealed, to any address on receipt of only $1.00. Bound in paper cover, 50 cents. It contains advice and information worth hundreds of dollars to those who are married or who contemplate taking this very important step.

PHUNNY PHELLOW'S GRAB BAG; or, Jolly Tid-Bits for Mirthful Mortals.—Josh Billings, Danbury News Man and Bret Harte rolled into one. It is not too much to say that the book contains the choicest humor in the English language. Its size is mammoth, containing more than one thousand of the raciest jests, comical hits, exhilarating stories, flowers of wit, excruciating jokes, uproarious poems, laughable sketches, darky comicalities, clowns' efforts, button-bursting conundrums, endmen's jokes, plantation humors, funny caricatures, hifaluting dialogues, curious scenes, cute sayings, ludicrous drolleries, peculiar repartees, and nearly 500 illustrations. 25 cents.



POPULAR SONGS FOR ALL PEOPLE.—The almost universal high price for first-class songs and music has prevented the general use of it, and we have just issued in convenient form 14 popular songs, words and music, for 10 cents.

PRESERVING AND MANUFACTURING SECRETS.—Giving plain directions for preserving, canning and storing all kinds of fruits and vegetables, and for manufacturing all kinds of foreign and domestic liquors, home-made wines and summer beverages. An invaluable book for every family. Price, 25 cents.

PASSING THROUGH THE ORDEAL.—By Arthur Pratt. This is a very powerful story, as has been shown by the fact that a second edition was called for in a few days after the book was issued. 12mo, 128 pages, paper cover, price, 25 cents; bound in buckram cloth, 75 cents.

"This is a novel which has an abundance of adventures, enough, in fact, to furnish material for half a dozen ordinary tales. The hero is the person who is supposed to go through the ordeal. He starts out good, goes to bad, to worse—and while in the full tide of interesting wickedness is suddenly smitten with a desire to reform, which he straightway proceeds to do.

He has a variety of thrilling and moving adventures, among which are shipwreck, the loss of all his gold, the rescue of a beautiful maiden and her wealthy father, and a lot of other things too numerous to mention."—Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

"'Passing Though the Ordeal' is a story of sin and reformation. There is the prodigal son, the hypocritical brother, the loving mother, the sunlight of hope and repentance. A pretty girl gives zest to the tale, and love finally triumphs."—Columbia Herald, Mo.

PALLISER'S BOOKS OF PLANS.

PALLISER'S AMERICAN ARCHITECTURE, or, Every Man a Complete Builder.—The latest and best publication on modern artistic dwellings and other buildings of low cost. This book contains 104 pages, 11 x 14 inches in size, and consists of large 9 x 12 plate pages giving plans, elevations, perspective views, descriptions, owners' names, actual cost of construction, no guess work, and instructions HOW TO BUILD 70 cottages, villas, double houses, brick block houses, suitable for city suburbs, town and country, houses for the farm and workingmen's homes for all sections of the country, and costing from $300 to $4,500; also barns, stables, schoolhouse, town hall, churches, and other public buildings, together with specifications, form of contract, etc., etc., and a large amount of information on the erection of buildings, selection of site, employment of architects, etc., etc.

IT IS THE MOST PRACTICAL WORK EVER ISSUED.

The plans shown have been built from and many of them duplicated many times over. All are practical, the creation of a well-known firm of successful architects, and are alike valuable to builders, and any one who has in view the erection of a house. The plans are susceptible of slight changes that will adapt them to any taste.

The carpenter remote from a city needs just such a book to refer to or to exhibit to his customer, so that the latter can give his orders in an intelligible manner. The much-desired economy in these structures is not, however, obtained at the expense of beauty—every one of the designs, even the very cheapest, is pleasing to the eye. Following the ideas laid down, the builder is sure to obtain a pretty result. Another result aimed at by the authors is the convenience of internal arrangements. Many a good house has been spoiled by having the needed closet room omitted. All this has been carefully studied by the practical and experienced gentlemen whose names are on the book, and the owner or working builder who selects a design from this work will be sure to secure all the elegance, convenience, and economy possible in the erection of a house.

If you ever intend to build get this book and study it before you commence. This should be your first step towards building a house, so as to ascertain what kind of a house you want and find out how much it is going to cost before going ahead.

The value of this work to builders cannot be estimated, as it contains designs for just such houses as they are called on to build every day in the week. This book of 104 pages, as described above, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of price. Price, heavy paper cover, $1; handsomely bound in cloth, $2.

PALLISER'S MODEL DWELLINGS.—When you build be wise in time and not when it is too late, after paying dearly for experience. Get this new book of designs. None of them ever before published. Don't buy a book five years old.

This is a complete work on building by Palliser, Palliser & Co., the best known architects in the United States, and eminent designers and writers on common sense, practical and convenient dwelling houses for industrial Americans, homes for co-operative builders, investors and everybody desiring to build, own or live in model homes of low and medium cost.

This new book is 11 x 14 inches in size, and contains large illustrated plans and views of the above house and 145 others of every kind, description and style dwellings, ranging in cost of construction and completion from $400 to $6,000, also a model city house for 24 families, costing $15,000, giving with each full descriptions, complete dimensions and sizes of rooms, etc., the actual proven guaranteed cost, places where erected, many of the most popular built several times, with changes, in different localities, together with names of owners, names and addresses of builders, which does away with ridiculous estimating or rather guessing of the cost to build.

The descriptive letter-press and reading matter throughout this book, giving very valuable information and practical suggestions on every question that can arise in building, would alone fill an ordinary book of 450 pages. Also, specifications and form of building contract.

With this book in your possession you will find it is a pleasure to build.

Free consultation given to purchasers building and very low prices for all architects' complete services connected therewith. This elegant work, which contains 128 pages, is far superior to the $15 portfolios and premium books on the market (in fact, there is nothing that can compare with it at any price), will be sent to any address, in paper cover, by mail, postpaid, on receipt of only $1.00, or bound in cloth on receipt of $2.00.

This book, bound in paper, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of $1.00.

PALLISER'S USEFUL DETAILS.—An immense practical work on every description of modern architectural details. Forty plates, size of each 20 x 26 inches. The cost of drawing each plate for engraving is $35, and the price for the whole forty plates published has just been reduced from $3.00 to $2.00. They are worth $10.00 to any one interested in the subject. Each plate is engraved and printed on tinted plate paper, so as not to soil by handling, and is a fac-simile of original drawing without reduction, therefore just the same as if drawn by hand for placing in the hands of the mechanic for execution. They are given at a very large scale, none being smaller than ¾ inch to foot, and many larger and up to half full size; in fact, they are so plain that every mechanic and apprentice can readily understand them. That they are practical designs is evident, all the drawings having been built from, many of them duplicated several times over, and the thousands of letters received from mechanics the past two years have convinced the authors that this is the work they need. "Palliser's Useful Details" are published for the benefit of the builder, mechanic, and all people interested in the building arts. They embrace a variety of constructional drawings for all classes of work—exterior and interior—pertaining to the erection of buildings of every description, and such as never before published. We will send it to any address securely packed on receipt of $2.00.

PALLISER'S COURTHOUSES, City Halls, Jails, Etc., Etc.—The finest and best publication on public buildings of every description. By the celebrated architects, Palliser, Palliser & Co. There is not an architect, public official, mason contractor or prominent builder, or any one interested that can afford to be without it. It is a practical work. The latest, cheapest and most popular work issued on public buildings. Three hundred and fifty drawings.

A $10 book in size and style. This book is 11 x 14 inches in size and consists of 85 large 9 x 12 plates, giving plans, elevations, perspective views and detail drawings, actual cost of construction and instructions how to build public buildings of every description for villages, towns, cities, counties, states, and costing from $600 to $195,000, together with specifications, etc., etc. 16 plates of details on the practical construction of courthouses and jails. A supplement giving a double plate page of a large courthouse printed in colors and two plates of heliotype prints of courthouses taken from nature.

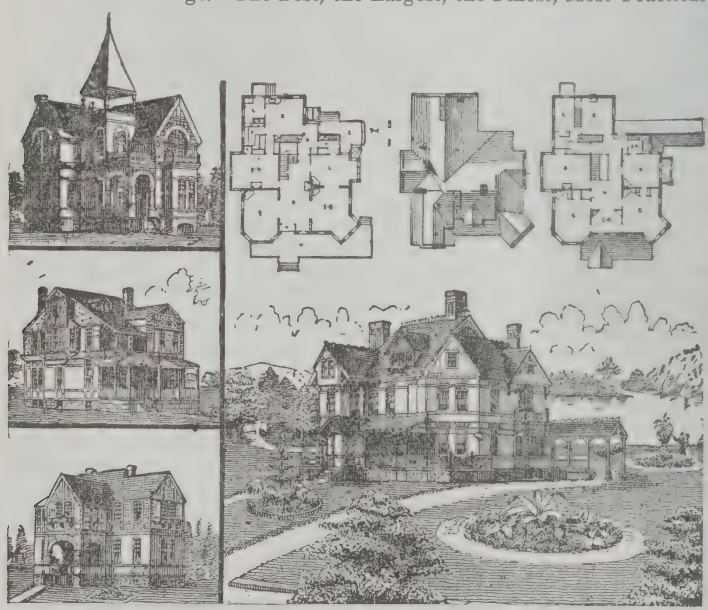
This book of 108 pages, as described above, bound in heavy paper cover, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of $2.

PALLISER'S COMMON-SENSE SCHOOL ARCHITECTURE.—Illustrating the practical and economical warming, ventilation and the correct planning, arrangement and sanitary construction of school buildings for American cities, towns and villages by Palliser, Palliser & Co., architects, who have achieved greater distinction in designing buildings for school purposes than any architect the world ever knew. It gives 83 9 x 12 plate illustrations of model schoolhouses of every description, costing from $600 up, plans, elevations, sections and perspective views, 19 plates of detail drawings showing complete construction on large scales; also an Indian school, a Methodist Industrial Home School for colored girls, colleges, parochial school, convents, Canadian and Brazilian schools, etc. Every architect, member of school board and school trustee, minister and priest, as well as all prominent builders and teachers should get this publication. The value of this work to the school-building public of America is immense, as it contains just the designs that suit every want and requirement. This book, bound in heavy paper cover, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of $1.

A NEW AND IMPORTANT WORK JUST ISSUED.—Palliser's New Cottage Homes, with Detail Drawings. The Best, the Largest, the Finest, Most Practical and Complete Work Ever Issued on Plans of Medium and Low-Cost Houses, containing 160 New and Original Designs for Cottages and Villas, including every description of Modern Dwelling for the Seaside, the South, Winter and Summer Resorts, etc., Double Houses, Country Houses, Farm Houses and City, Suburban, Village and Town Residences of every kind and variety in every conceivable combination of stone, brick, timber, plaster and frame, costing from $75 to $7,500, giving all the comforts and conveniences, and suited to every taste, location, want, etc. Also 50 New Designs for City Brick Block Houses. The whole affording the largest field of selection from the most approved and latest prevailing styles of domestic architecture. Illustrated by Plans, Elevations and Perspective Views from practical working drawings to a uniform scale, and not like the impractical sketch views which fill so many cheap architectural books that are in reality issued only as catalogues and price lists of printed plans. 1,500 Detail Drawings, covering the whole range of interior finishing and exterior construction and ornamentation of the plans in this work, and all to a uniform large scale. Cabinet work of every description—Mantels, Sideboards, Book-Cases, Cabinets, Dressers, etc., etc., in almost endless numbers and variety. Stairs, Hand Railings, Newels and Balusters. Details will be found to cover every question that can arise in constructing dwellings of every kind: Fences, Summer Houses, Pavilions, Conservatories, Arbors, Well Curbs, Outbuildings, etc., etc.; 12 New Designs for Stables and Carriage Houses; Descriptive Letter Press, giving practical suggestions, cost, etc., which would alone fill an ordinary book of 150 pages; Details of Furniture of every description, so plain that any good mechanic can understand and execute the same; Perspective Views of Four Houses Printed in Colors, showing how to paint; Specifications and Form of Building Contract, etc., etc.



Remember that Palliser's New Cottage Homes is not a catalogue of plans, neither does it contain old illustrations used in any other work. It is a complete Library of Modern Architectural Plans and Details, all of new and original design.

Those contemplating the erection of a house cannot afford to be without this book, and who does not intend building some time in their life? Hundreds of thousands of our popular books of plans, details and specifications have been sent to all parts the past ten years, and thousands of houses have been built from them; in fact, there is not a city, town or village of consequence in the United States but what contains one or more buildings so erected, and some places have as many as twenty.

We are glad to note that customers have ordered book after book from us, and that many have six or eight of our publications, all of which goes to show that our efforts are appreciated.

One large (11x14 inches) volume, printed on heavy cream plate paper, handsomely bound in boards and leather. Price, $4.00. Sent securely packed in a box by expreес, prepaid, to any address on receipt of price.

SPECIAL OFFER.—We are very anxious that all who may be interested in this book shall have a copy, and we will therefore, until further notice, send a copy of this $4.00 book described above by express, for only $2.50,-provided you send this slip with your order. No order will be filled at this special reduced price unless accompanied by this slip.

Any of these Books mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price.

SWIMMING AND SKATING.—A complete guide for learners. Every reader should possess this book so as to learn how to swim. Many a young life has been nipped in the bud, many a home made desolate for the want of knowing how to swim. Very fully illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

THE SUNNYSIDE COOK-BOOK.—12mo, 250 pages. Paper cover, 25 cents; bound in cloth, 75 cents. This book is offered as one of the best and most complete books of the kind published. Not only are all the recipes practical, but they are economical and such as come within the reach of families of moderate income.

THE SWINDLERS OF AMERICA—Who They Are and How They Work.—This is the most complete book of the kind published. It fully exposes every trick, snare and plan used by humbugs, rogues and swindlers to entrap the unwary, through the mails and otherwise, and cheat them of their dollars and cents. You may think yourself "sharp," but there are others sharper than you are, and if you are a sensible man or woman, before sending money to every Tom, Dick and Harry that may send you a letter or circular, you will send for this book, read it carefully and remember its contents. Price, 25 cents.

TON OF FUN (A).—A repository of fun, wit and humor, containing the richest comical stories, side-splitting jokes, humorous poetry, quaint yawns, brightest scintillations of wit. Profusely illustrated with funny engravings. Altogether it contains the merriest thoughts of the merriest men. Price, 10 cents.

WHAT TO EAT AND HOW TO COOK IT, with Rules for Preserving, Canning and Drying Fruits and Vegetables, by author of "The Science of a New Life," John Cowan, M.D. There are scores of Cook-Books in the market, but it is a question if the ingredients and the mixtures and combinations they offer as "recipes" do not, when used as food, result in physical suffering, rather than in health and vigor.

This book differs from that class of Cook-Books in that it aims to give, in a plain and understandable way, the kind of food that it is best to eat in order to regain and sustain health and strength, and a mode of cooking it that will make it at once palatable, nutritious and wholesome.

☞If you wish to avoid sickness and live healthfully, by eating food cooked and prepared in a simple and inviting manner, send for this book. Price, paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

WOMAN, HER POWER AND PRIVILEGES.—This is a series of Twelve Sermons by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, and should be read by all who are interested in the home and family. The following is the table of contents:

Women Who Fight the Battle of Life Alone; Worldly Marriages; Broken Promises of Marriage; Dominion of Fashion; The Veil of Modesty; Wifely Ambitions; Good and Bad; Woman's Happiness—What Can and What Cannot Make a Woman Happy; The Grandmother; Woman's Opportunity; The Queen of Home; Parental Blunders; Christ the Song. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth cover, 75 cents.

WORM THAT CEASED TO TURN (THE).—By Gorham Silva, author of "An Heroic Sinner and the Pilgrim Spinster," etc.

"The experiences of the principal character in this story with his bride chosen from the poorhouse are pathetic in the extreme, and it is altogether one of the strongest books we have ever read."

It is issued in 16mo, and bound in buckram, with gilt top. Price, 75 cents.

The Books in the following list are all thorough, practical and fully up to the times. They will be sent to any part of the world, postpaid, on receipt of price.

PRACTICAL CARPENTRY.

Illustrated by over three hundred engravings. Being a guide to the correct working and laying out of all kinds of carpenters' and joiners' work; with the solutions of the various problems in hip-roofs, gothic work, centering, splayed work, joints and joining, hinging, dovetailing, mitering, timber splicing, hopper works, skylights, raising mouldings, circular work, etc., etc., to which is prefixed a thorough treatise on "Carpenter's Geometry." By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder," author of "The Steel Square and Its Uses," "The Builder's Guide and Estimator's Price Book," "The Slide Rule and How to Use it," etc., etc.

This is the most complete book of the kind ever published. It is thorough, practical and reliable, and at the same time is written in a style so plain that any workman or apprentice can easily understand it. Cloth, gilt, $1.00.

STAIR-BUILDING MADE EASY.

For Young Carpenters and Joiners. Simple, plain, and may be learned in an hour. Being a full and clear description of the art of building the bodies, carriages and cases for all kinds of stairs and steps together with illustrations showing the manner of laying out stairs, forming treads and risers, building cylinders, preparing strings; with instructions for making carriages for common, platform, dog-legged and winding stairs. To which is added an Illustrated Glossary of Terms used in stair-building and designs for newels, balusters, brackets stair-mouldings and sections of hand-rails. By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder." Cloth, gilt, $1.00.

A NEW SYSTEM OF HAND RAILING.

Or, How to Cut Hand Railing for Circular and other Stairs, Square from the Plank, without the aid of a Falling Mould. The system is new, novel, economic and easily learned. Rules, instructions and working drawings for building rails for seven different kinds of stairs are given. BY AN OLD STAIR-BUILDER. Edited and corrected by FRED. T. HODGSON. Cloth, gilt, $1.00.

THE BUILDER'S GUIDE.

The Builder's Guide and Estimator's Price Book. Being a compilation of current prices of lumber, hardware, glass, plumbers' supplies, paints, slates, stones, limes, cements, bricks, tin, and other building materials; also, prices of labor and cost of performing the several kinds of work required in building, together with prices of doors, frames, sashes, stairs, mouldings, newels, and other machine work. To which is appended a large number of building rules, data, tables and useful memoranda, with a Glossary of Architectural and Building Terms. By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder," author of "The Steel Square and Its Uses," etc., etc, 12mo, cloth, $2.00.

CARPENTERS' AND BUILDERS' COMPLETE COMPANION.

An immense work 11x14 inches in size. Embracing eight different sections, each containing the best and quickest method of performing the work described, and completely covering the several branches of the building trades. There are 29 page plates, giving 134 different diagrams of problems in Stair-Building, Hand Railing, etc., with descriptive letter-press giving full explanation of each. Also, a graphic description of the Steel Square and its applications, the Slide Rule, etc. Treatise on painting, paper hanging, plastering and general carpentry; together with rules, memoranda, data, tables, etc., in every branch. Methods, suggestions, measurements, tables showing strength and weight of materials, glossary of terms, carpenters' geometry, how to estimate the cost of construction, etc., with much other useful information. This is the only work ever issued with which is incorporated a treatise on either the Steel Square or the Slide Rule. The sections devoted to these subjects alone being worth the price of the book.

The section devoted to Stair Building and Hand Railing contains an expeditious method of squaring the rail, with a new method of sawing the twist part of any hand-rail square from the face of the plank and to a parallel width. Also, a new method of forming the easings of a rail by a gauge; useful also to stone masons constructing stone stairs and hand-rails. The section devoted to this subject is thorough and practical within itself, and has been pronounced by some of the foremost architects and builders in the United States and Canada to be the best work on the subject ever placed before the building trades. The sections devoted to painting and paper-hanging, and plastering, contain such information as is sought after every day by both the painter and the plasterer, and that on practical carpentry is invaluable to the carpenter. All tables given on estimating, etc., together with those showing the strength and weight of materials, have been prepared with the utmost care and are absolutely correct. In fact, each section which forms part of this book is complete and thorough within itself. A $10.00 book in size and style. But we have determined to make it meet the popular demand, to suit the time, so that it may be easily reached by all. Price, handsomely bound in cloth cover, only $2.00.

NICHOLSON'S ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ARCHITECTURE.

A Dictionary of the Science and Practice of Architecture, Building, Carpentry, etc., from the Earliest Ages to the Present Time, forming a comprehensive work of reference for the use of architects, draughtsmen, designers, builders, carpenters, masons, engineers, students, professional men and amateurs, by Peter Nicholson, the world-renowned Architect and Builder, whose reputation and experience make him an unquestioned authority on all questions relating to building and structures of all kinds, including railroads, bridges, lighthouses, cathedrals, churches, theaters, public and private buildings of every character.

It would be impossible in any circular to give the faintest idea of the real and practical value of this work, but when we make the statement that thousands of copies of this work have been sold for $32.00, and that we now offer you the same work for $10.00, you will have some idea of the great advantage we are now offering you. It is issued in two handsome quarto volumes, bound in half morocco, each volume containing 650 pages, or a total of 1,300 pages—among which are two hundred and fifteen full-page steel engravings, which have been reproduced especially for this work. The enormous expense attendant upon the publication of this work will be understood somewhat when we state that the original cost of the plates used was nearly $11.000! This grand, complete work in two volumes will be shipped anywhere by express, freight charges prepaid, on receipt of the special price, $10.00.

OGILVIE'S NEW AND IMPROVED WAGES TABLES.

Calculated and arranged by Edgar B. Velie, Time-keeper under the United States Government. A great book for all who employ labor!

This new book contains full and completete Wages Tables from one hour to one month, by the hour, day, week, and month, on the basis of eight, nine, and ten hours per day, and at wages from $1.00 to $6.00 per day. Every manufacturing establishment should have a copy of this invaluable book in making up their pay roll. It will save much valuable time, avoid errors, and prove to be an indispensable assistant to every time-keeper and book-keeper. The author has held an important position under the Government for years, and saw the need of and necessity for such a work to any one employs labor. It has been very carefully prepared and verified, and as the value of such a work is to have it absolutely correct, we have no hesitation in saying that there are no errors or miscalculations in it. This work is printed on handsome paper and strongly bound in cloth. Such a book would be cheap at from $2.00 to $3.00, but we have decided to make the price only $1.00.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

By P. W.

12mo, 224 pp., Illustrated. Paper Cover, 50 Cts.; Handsomely Bound in Cloth, $1.00.

This is a most amusing book. It is made up of epigrams, and is not intended for continuous reading any more than the dictionary. Picked up at leisure half-hours it will furnish a great deal of entertainment. The author is a genial cynic who has reduced to a fine art the saying of things that contain truth spiced with malice. Here are a few of his epigrams taken at random:

Before a girl gets married she never thinks a man has such a thing as a stomach. After she's been married awhile she wonders if he's got anything else.

Most girls think married life a perpetual pink tea, with no dishes to wash.

When a man disappears, people wonder whether he ran away with a woman or from one. It's generally both.

When it is said that a man has a peculiar fascination for a woman, it means that he knows enough to keep her guessing.

When a woman gets an idea that she must be economical, she hunts around and finds an old skirt to rip up.

Before a man is twenty-five he spends most of his time trying to make the girls think he is the devil of a fellow After that he spends most of it trying to make them think he isn't.

This book has received many complimentary notices, and is considered one of the brightest books of the day and will please all old maids, bachelors old and young, all married people or those who intend to get married.

THE LOWLY NAZARENE.

BY J. LEROY NIXON,

Author of "Hypnotized," Etc., Etc.

12mo. 320 Pages. Handsomely Bound in Cloth, $1.00.

This is a story of Christ, and there are brought into action, throughout the entire narrative, characters of the times when the lowly Nazarene dwelt upon the earth. The life and works of the "Child of Bethlehem," together with the secret plans and plottings of the temple priests to place Him upon the Jewish throne, are deftly interwoven into the story with a narrative interest never attained by another author treating this subject.

Why I Am What I Am.

12mo, 160 pages, paper cover. Price, 25 cents. Mailed to any address, postpaid, on receipt of price.

The Christian Union says of it: In "Why I Am What I Am" fourteen representatives of different religious denominations give the reasons for their peculiar faith. The representative men have been well chosen; and the denominations include the Roman Catholic at one extreme and the Jew at the other. We know of no volume which in so compact a form affords so good material for a study of denominational peculiarities, their nature and the reasons for them.

"Why I Am a Baptist," by Rev. R. S. MacArthur, D.D.; "Why I Am a Presbyterian," by Rev. Charles Seymour Robinson, D.D.; "Why I Am a Methodist," by Rev. G. H. McGrew; "Why I Am an Episcopalian," by Rev. William R. Huntington, D.D.; "Why I Am a Catholic," by Rev. Walter Elliott, C.S.P.; "Why I Am a Congregationalist," by Rev. Lyman Abbott, D.D.; "Why I Am a Universalist," by Rev. Charles H. Eaton; "Why I Am a New-Churchman," by Rev. S. S. Seward; "Why I Am a Unitarian," by Rev. John White Chadwick; "Why I Am a Jew," by Rev. Dr. Gustav Gottheil; "Why I Am a Lutheran," by Rev G. F. Krotel, D.D.; "Why I Am a Friend," by John J. Cornell; "Why I Am a Disciple," by Rev. B. B. Tyler; "Why I Am a Seventh-Day Baptist," by Rev. A. H. Lewis; "Crumbling Creeds," by Col. Robert G. Ingersoll.

DON'T MARRY;

—OR—

ADVICE AS TO HOW, WHEN AND WHO TO MARRY.

This is the title of a book just issued, which has probably more good advice and suggestions in reference to marriage than any other book ever published. The object of the book is not, as some might suppose from the title, to induce people not to marry, but rather to advise them as to How, When, and Who to Marry, in order to have a happy married life. It contains 112 pages, bound in paper cover, and will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of 25 cents.

How to Get Married Although a Woman;

—OR—

THE ART OF PLEASING MEN.

By "A YOUNG WIDOW."

Girls and Matrimony—The Girls Whom Men Like—The Girl Who Wins—The Girl Who Fails—Some Unfailing Methods—A Word of Warning—The Secret of the Widow's Power—Lady Beauty—The Loved Wife, etc., etc.

Every unmarried woman, and, indeed, every woman, will be interested in reading this book. It will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of 25 cents.

DO YOU EVER DREAM?

And would you like to know the meaning of any or all of your dreams? If so, you ought to buy the which contains the full and correct interpretations of all dreams and their lucky numbers. Also Fortune Telling by cards, by the grounds in the coffee cup, how to discover a thief, to know whether the woman shall have the man she wishes, to know what fortune your future husband shall have, to see your future wife or husband. The Dumb Cake, together with charms, incantations, etc., etc.

OLD WITCHES' DREAM BOOK AND COMPLETE FORTUNE TELLER

This is a book that every one that wishes to know what is going to happen ought to buy. It will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of 25 cents.

FOUR BOOKS IN ONE, WHICH

If You are Courting, If You want to Court Or, If You want to be Courted,

You should obtain at the earliest possible moment.

HOW TO WOO; WHEN AND WHOM, which gives full and interesting rules for the etiquette of courtship, the time and place for conducting the same, and some good advice as to the selection of your partner for life.

COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE, which tells how to win the favor of the ladies, how to begin and end a courtship, and how to "Pop the Question;" and also gives full information in regards to the invitations, gifts, ushers, bridesmaids, conduct of the wedding ceremony, etc., etc.

THE LOVERS' COMPANION, which gives the flirtations of the handkerchief, parasol, glove, fan, and napkin; also the language of flowers; how to kiss deliciously; and a cure for bashfulness.

THE POPULAR LETTER WRITER, which tells how to write business, social, and love letters, giving numerous examples of all.

This valuable work, containing the four books above mentioned, is issued in one volume under the title HOW TO WOO, and it will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of 25 cents.

TALMAGE'S BOOKS.

The following books, containing Sermons by the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., are the best ever offered to Agents who want to sell a low priced book.

THE WEDDING RING.—This book contains a series of thirteen sermons delivered by Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D.D. No sermons ever delivered have created so great a sensation as this series. Hundreds of people could not get into the church to listen to them.

If you are married, or expect to be, or if you have father, mother, brother, or sister, you should read this book. The sermons are not only on the relations between husband and wife, but on all the family relations. It tells how, when, and whom you should marry, and gives good advice on all the relations of life.

The following is the table of contents: The Choice of a Wife; The Choice of a Husband; Clandestine Marriage; Matrimonial Harmony or Discord; Marital Duties; Costume and Morals; Duties of Wives to Husbands; Hotels versus Homes; The Domestic Circle; Sisters and Brothers; The Children's Patrimony; Motherhood; Trials of Housekeeping. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

TWENTY-FIVE SERMONS ON THE HOLY LAND.—By Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D.D. No Series of Sermons ever delivered by this famous preacher has created such a widespread and intense interest as this. These sermons describe with vivid interest the scenes, incidents and many various experiences met with in the Holy Land, the land in which people are now more interested than ever before.

Among the hundreds of thousands of people who have read the utterances of this wonderfully successful preacher there are none but will be glad to have this book. The following is the table of contents:

Eve of Departure; I must also see Rome; A Mediterranean Voyage; Paul's Mission in Athens; Life and Death of Dorcas; The Glory of Solomon's Reign; Peace, be Still; The Marriage Feast; Christmas Eve in the Holy Land; The Joyful Surprise; How a King's Life was Saved; The Philippian Earthquake; What is in a Name; The Half was not Told me; I Went Up to Jerusalem; On the Housetop in Jerusalem; The Journey to Jericho; He Toucheth the Hills and They Smoke; Solomon in all His Glory; The Journey to Bethel; Incidents in Palestine; Among the Holy Hills; Our Sail on Lake Galilee; On to Damascus; Across Mount Lebanon. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

BATTLE FOR BREAD (THE).—This book contains a series of Sermons by Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, the greatest of living preachers. Every workingman and those who employ them should read this book, and thus be informed of the real solution of the question of the relations of Labor and Capital. The following is the table of contents:

The Labor Question; The Treatment of Employes; Hardships of Workingmen; Monopoly and Communism; The Worst Foe of Labor Black Servants of the Sky. 12mo, 125 pages. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

"This Book is Like No Other Book."

THE EVERY-DAY EDUCATOR;

OR,

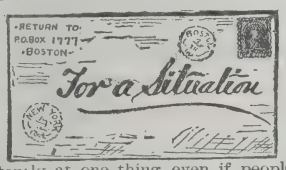
HOW TO DO BUSINESS.

By. PROF. SEYMOUR EATON.

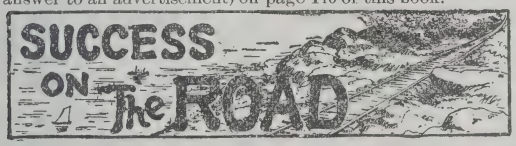
The best Help-Manual ever issued in this country, and proving to every one that has it A Stepping Stone to Success. Each one of the sixty different departments forms a unique feature. Here are the titles of a few:

Banking—Bookkeeping—Business Points for Young Business Men—Character in Hands—Civil Service Examinations—Commercial Arithmetic—Common Blunders Corrected—Compendium of Facts and Figures—Correct Thing in Dress and Manners—Correspondence—Curiosities—Easy Lessons in Astronomy—Every-day Geography—Famous Autographs—Famous Rulers—Figure Shorthand—Games, Puzzles, Conundrums, Kinks and Wrinkles—Good Openings in New Trades—Good Readings and Recitations—Handy Bible Notes—Handy Helps for Bookkeepers—Handy Helps for Coresponding Clerks—Hints on Public Speaking—How to Apply for a Situation—How to Buy and Sell Stocks—How to Conduct a Home Reading Club—How to Do Business—How to Educate Yourself—How to Form a Stock Company—How to Get a Start—How to Get Out a Patent—How to Mark the Price of Goods—How to Read Character from Chins and Noses—How to Write for the Press—How We Are Governed—Interesting Geographical Comparisons—Law Lessons for the People—Languages—Lessons in Electricity—Lessons in French Conversation—Lessons in German Conversation—Lessons in Spelling—Literature, Authors and Books—"Mayflower" Passenger List—Mechanic's Arithmetic—Mechanical Drawing—Opinions of Successful Men—Penmanship—Physical Culture—Practical Lessons in Drawing—Proof Reading—Reporting—Rules of Order for Business Meetings—Science Lessons—Secret Cipher—Shorthand Multiplication—Short Cuts in Figures—Success on the Road—Telegraphy—These Bodies of Ours—United States History, Leading Facts.

But why go further? Get the book and we will guarantee you will say it is away ahead of anything you have seen before.



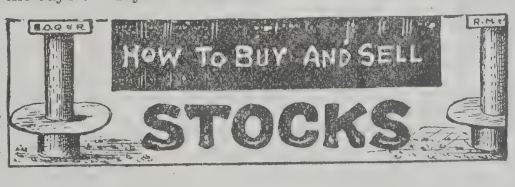
There is no use applying for a situation if you cannot do anything. Encourage and develop some one talent for the use of which the world offers a money value. The man who can do anything fairly well isn't drawing half the salary of the man who can do one thing better than other people. Do not be afraid of pounding persistently at one thing, even if people do call you a crank. If nothing turns up, turn something up. Don't quit a good position until you are sure of a better one. Remember that the very best positions are secured through promotion and not by answering advertisements. It may be worth your while to study carefully the pages devoted to this subject in The Every-Day Educator. You will find a model application (an answer to an advertisement) on page 116 of this book.



1. Are you a good salesman?
2. Why do some men succeed in almost any kind of drumming, while others fail?

Almost all business men are salesmen in some form or other. There is an old maxim: "When you buy keep one eye on the goods and the other on the seller; when you sell keep both eyes on the buyer." If you would learn the secret read this department of The Every-Day Educator.

No book ever printed gives as much valuable information in so small a space as The Every-Day Educator. Don't fail to get it if you want to be up to date in business or any thing else.



THE EVERY-DAY EDUCATOR contains 256 pages and is handsomely printed, and contains over one hundred illustrations.

YOUMAN'S DICTIONARY OF EVERY-DAY WANTS.

By A. E. YOUMAN, M.D.

Containing Twenty Thousand Recipes in Every Department of Human Effort, and will Save $100 a Year to All Who Own this Book.

The following description of this book may have an appearance of exaggeration, yet, when compared with the book itself, the impartial reader will allow that the description only faintly echoes the vast fund of information contained in it.

No trade, profession, or occupation but what is represented therein. The Housewife will find aids and suggestions therein innumerable. The Carpenter, the Builder, the Blacksmith, will find material aid each in their respective departments. The young lady will find innumerable aids to pass her time not only pleasantly, but profitably. The Farmer and Stock-raiser will there reap such valuable hints as cannot be found outside a small agricultural library. The Trapper can find in no other book or books the secrets contained in Youman's. The Sick can turn therein to the particular disease with which they are troubled, and learn the latest remedies, with methods for home treatment. But it is impossible to enumerate every particular branch of every employment that Youman's Dictionary does not advance new and valuable information thereon. The following gives briefly the different trades, etc., etc., valuable information for which is found in Youman's Dictionary:

Book-keepers,	Glass Workers,	Gilders,	Varnishers,	Electrotypers,
Stock-raisers,	Hair Dressers,	Painters,	Cooks,	Fish Dealers,
Gardeners,	Hatters,	Shoemakers,	Engravers,	Gunsmiths,
Florists,	Ink Makers,	Brewers,	Furriers,	Lithographers,
Liquor Dealers,	Lumber Dealers,	Builders,	Carvers,	Milliners,
Druggists,	Miners,	Dairymen,	Jewelers,	Dentists,
Photographers,	Opticians,	Glaziers,	Dyers,	Plasterers,
Architects,	Soapmakers,	Iron Workers,	Coopers,	Scourers,
Artists,	Tinsmiths,	Authors,	Coppersmiths,	Tailors,
Bakers,	Cabinetmakers,	Nurses,	Machinists,	Taxidermists,
Confectioners,	Barbers,	Perfumers,	Curriers,	Apiarians,
Engineers,	Bookbinders,	Roofers,	Doctors,	Paper Hangers.
Flour Dealers,	Printers,	Tanners,

☞ The Reader will understand that it is utterly impossible to insert in these pages even the merest mention of the vast amount of information contained in the large, double-column 530 pages of Youman's Dictionary. The Book itself must be seen and consulted to be fully appreciated.

It is issued in three styles of binding: Cloth, with gold back stamp, $4.00; Handsomely bound in Half Russia Leather, $4.75; heavy Paper Cover, $1.00. Sent by mail, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of price. AGENTS WANTED.

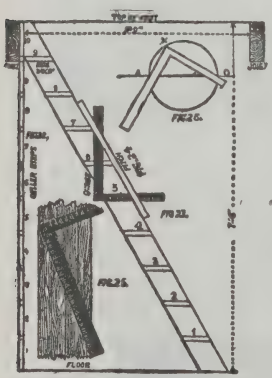
THE ⁘ STEEL ⁘ SQUARE

AND ITS USES.

By FRED. T. HODGSON.

NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION NOW READY.



From "The Steel Square and Its Uses."

This is the only work on THE STEEL SQUARE AND ITS USES ever published. It is Thorough, Exhaustive, Clear, and Easily Understood. Confounding terms and scientific phrases have been religiously avoided where possible, and everything in the book has been made so plain that a boy twelve years of age, possessing ordinary intelligence can understand it from end to end.

This New Edition is Illustrated with over Seventy-five Wood-cuts, showing how the Square may be used for solving almost every problem in the whole Art of Carpentry, and is revised up to March, 1896.

The following synopsis of the contents of the work will give some idea of its character and scope:

History of the "Square."—Description, with Explanations of the Rules, Figures, Scales, and Divisions shown on good Squares.—Brace Rules, Octagonal Scale, Board, Plank, and Scantling Rules, fully explained and described.—How to lay out Rafters, Hips, Jack-Rafters, Purlins, Revel Works, etc., etc.—Backing for Hips, Length and Bevels of Valley Rafters. Laying out Stairs and Strings.—How to describe Circles, Ellipses, Parabolas, and other figures, with the Square.—How to obtain Bevels for Hoppers and all kinds of Splayed Work and Spring Mouldings, by the Square.—Bi-secting Circles, Proportion of Circles, Division of Widths, Bisection of Angles, Diminishing Stiles, Centering Circles, etc., etc.—Theoretical Rafters, Cuts for Mitre Boxes, Measurement of Surfaces, including Painting, Plastering, Shingling, Siding, Flooring, Rough Boarding, Tinning and Roofing.—Rules for describing Octagons, and Polygons of every description and how to find their angles and areas.—Rules for finding the lengths of Rafters and Hips of Irregular Roofs, Cuts for Equal and Unequal Mitres, Trusses and Bevel Timber Work.—The Development of Hip and Curved Roofs, Veranda Rafters, Straight and Curved, Hopper Cuts of all kinds, Angle Corner-pieces, Splayed Work for Gothic Heads, etc., etc., and many other things useful to the Operative Mechanic.

It is Bound in Handsome Cloth, Price, $1.00, and will be sent by Mail, postpaid, to any Address on Receipt of Price.

An Exceedingly Valuable Book for the use of Bankers and Business Men generally. It should be used in every Bank and Counting House in America.

A NEW UP-TO-DATE BOOK!

Worth $100 in Gold to

EVERY BANK, BANKER, or MAN OF BUSINESS.

Monroe's Digest

OF

Standard Decisions,

Reports Nearly Four Thousand Cases Decided in the Courts of Last Resort of the United States, Canada, England, Scotland and Ireland, Upon Questions in Law and Equity Relating to Banks, Banking, Commerce, Trade, and Manufacturing.

Edited by JAMES H. MONROE,

Counselor-at-Law, Editor of "Smith's Leading Cases," etc., etc.

A handsome octavo volume of 500 pages, bound in heavy silk cloth with beveled edges. Sent by mail or express, all charges paid, on Receipt of price,

FIVE DOLLARS.

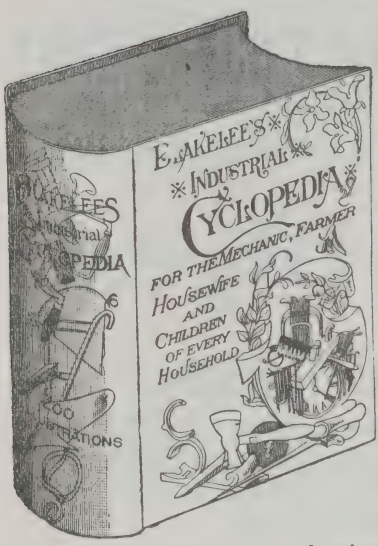
A proper regard for the decisions contained in Monroe's Digest, may save its owner each year many times its cost; besides enabling him to avoid trouble and a waste of time and energy in the effort to rectify errors committed through carelessness or want of legal information.

The decisions in this volume include ALL LEGAL QUESTIONS that are likely to arise in the business relations of Bankers, Merchants, and Business Men generally.

A ready and trustworthy means of acquiring a knowledge of the rules and regulations established by law, will not only frequently prevent expensive litigation, but will also enable one to create a PRACTICAL BASIS OF ACTION, under which your attorneys can move effectively, DEFEND RIGHTS and PRESERVE INTERESTS. If you fail to manage your business affairs in conformity with these established rules and regulations, your lawyer, let him be ever so capable and energetic, cannot maintain your rights or preserve those interests which you may have neglected or endangered, either through carelessness or by reason of a want of legal information.

BLAKELEE'S INDUSTRIAL CYCLOPEDIA,

A READY REFERENCE AND RESERVOIR OF USEFUL INFORMATION.



In this book, by George E. Blakelee, practical mechanic, and editor of a farmers' paper, seven hundred and twenty octavo pages are devoted to explaining clearly the easiest, most practical, and best way of doing every kind of work, mechanical and otherwise, that can be of use in or about a city or village home, or on a large or small farm. It not only treats fully of the use and care of tools, and shows how to make and mend an endless variety of useful articles, but also points out how to do thousands of things not requiring tools, such as mixing paints, managing teams, caring for farm stock and poultry, storing hay, grain and vegetables, harvesting a corn crop, caring for furs, leather, lamps and glass articles, butter and cheese making, pork packing, canning, preserving, and the like, without end.

Not only are the mechanic and house-holder thoroughly provided for, but matters of use and interest to the farmer are treated at such length, that there seems to be nothing in the wide range of his multifarious duties that the author has overlooked. The housewife, too, has a department of her own, where, among hundreds of other things, she is taught the mysteries of bleaching and dyeing, the management of all kinds of fabrics; how to make brackets, frames, tidies, rugs, mats and all kinds of knitted and fancy articles; how to beautify her furniture, polish and renew table-ware, make soap, etc., etc. The boys and girls are also fully cared for. The former are shown how they can make their own hand-sleds, cages, traps and snares for birds and animals, row-boats, apparatus for a home gymnasium and the like; while the latter are instructed in making hundreds of those beautiful and useful articles which add so much to the adornment and convenience of home.

The book is a substantial octavo volume of seven hundred and twenty pages, well printed on paper of fine quality, fully illustrated with over two hundred engravings, furnished with a detailed table of contents and copious index, and handsomely bound.

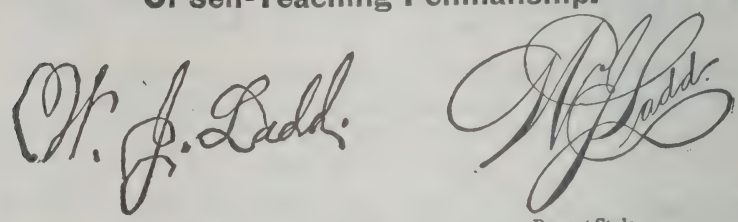
GOOD HANDWRITING OFTEN LEADS TO A FORTUNE!

A Few of the Best Autographs, showing Improvement from using

GASKELL'S COMPENDIUM

Of Self-Teaching Penmanship.



Former Style. Present Style.

Post-office address: Traer, Iowa.

The best specimens of improvement come from MR. HARRIE M REEVES, in the office of the Canada Southern Railway Lines, at Detroit, Mich., his elegant penmanship securing him the position. We give his portrait and autographs (both old and new) below:

[HON. HENRY WATTERSON in Answers to Correspondents in the Louisville Courier-Journal.]

"We have received a number of inquiries concerning this system of self-teaching penmanship, and reply here that it is valuable. Anyone who will follow the methods laid down in it, and give due application thereto, will consider that a most excellent investment of a dollar has been made. The Compendium places good handwriting within the reach of everyone, and its success has been demonstrated by the sale in this country and England of over Three Hundred thousand copies."

[N. Y. Daily Witness.]

"The salient advantages of Gaskell's system are its legibility, rapidity and beauty. * * * There is no style of writing, plain or ornamental, business or epistolary, for lady or gentleman, which is not included in this admirable system. And we think that if anything at all could fire an indifferent writer with a desire to become an expert and elegant penman, an inspection of Mr. Gaskell's system would do so."

[HON. JAMES A. WESTON, Ex-Governor of New Hampshire, in a note to the Publisher.]

"You will permit me to say that it far surpasses anything of the kind that has ever come to my notice, and I take pleasure in recommending it to the attention of all who desire to learn to write rapidly and well. With this as a guide, and tact and application on the part of the learner, a beautiful handwriting may be acquired at a trifling expense."

[Pall Mall Gazette, London, Eng.

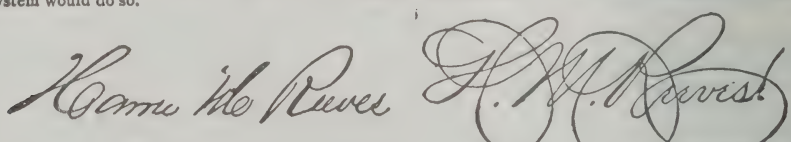
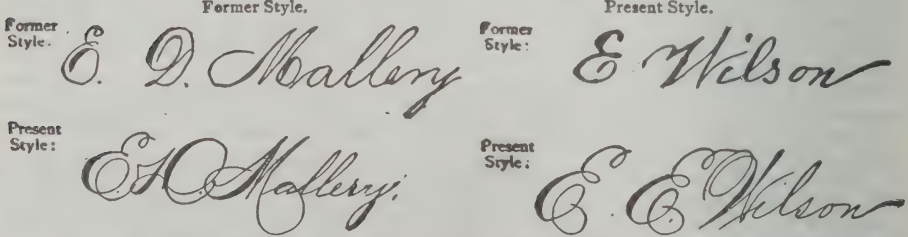
"Good penmanship is very desirable in whatever station in life you are placed, and we are pleased to note that the system of American penmanship introduced by Prof. G. A. Gaskell, of Manchester, New Hampshire, U. S., is very popular in London, and is used in many of the leading commercial houses. It is called 'Gaskell's Compendium,' and is simpler and more easily learned, and may be written with greater ease and rapidity than any of the old styles."



Former Style. Present Style.



GASKELL'S COMPENDIUM consists of a full series of COPY SLIPS, PRINTED INSTRUCTIONS, ORNAMENTAL FLOURISHING, LETTERING, PEN-DRAWING, LADIES' PENMANSHIP, &c., &c. By means of this self-teaching system anyone can acquire a rapid and beautiful handwriting at odd hours, without a teacher. It is the finest series of penmanship ever published, and put up in durable and elegant form. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR, for which it will be mailed, prepaid anywhere.

Any of the books named in this Catalogue will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any part of the world. Address all orders to

"The message of The Open Court, to state it briefly, is that science is a religious revelation; science is the unfoldment of the spirit, and its truths, if they be genuine scientific truths, are holy. If God ever speaks to his creatures, he speaks to them in the truths that they have learned from their experience, and when truths are systematised and formulated with exactness, which is the province of science, they do not become less divine, but more divine. Therefore the application of scientific exactness to the various problems of religion is a religious duty which, if obeyed, may destroy some errors that have become dear to us, but will in the end unfailingly lead to the most important religious reform."

"Considering the religious importance of science, we call a recognition of the stern rigidity of scientific truth and of its indispensableness in all the domains of life, in the workshop as well as in the social relations of man to man, The Religion of Science."

"In propounding the Religion of Science, The Open Court has never identified itself with any party within or without the various churches; it has kept aloof from both the liberals and the conservatives, and has delivered its message independently and fearlessly, neither for the love of nor in spite of any one; but in doing so it has gained friends in all countries of the world, among the ranks of all churches, among the unchurched, and even among the devotees of various non-Christian religions."—Extracts from Editor's Salutatory.

Solomon's choice II. CHRONICLES, 2. of wisdom.

to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.
5 Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.
6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the taber- | the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
15 And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance.
16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.
17 And they fetched up, and

The virtue of God's blessing. PSALMS. Profession of hope in prayer.

A Song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say;
2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:
3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:
4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:
5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.
6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.
7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.
8 Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 125.

1 The safety of such as trust in God. 4 A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.
2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.
3 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest

PSALM 128.

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God.

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.
2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.
3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.
4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.
5 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.
6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

PSALM 129.

1 An exhortation to praise God for saving Israel in their great afflictions. 5 The haters of the church are cursed.

A Song of degrees.

MANY a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say:
2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

Of God's power. JOB, 39, 40. Job humbleth himself.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not her's: her labour is in vain without fear;

17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

BY THE

American Pulpit and Press

OF THE

New Copyright Editions of the Genuine "Oxford" Teachers' Bible

---

REV. THEO. L. CUYLER, D.D. BROOKLYN, October 8, 1896.

"It is about the 'high-water mark' of all the editions of God's Word that I have ever seen; and in its completeness leaves nothing more to be desired."

REV. A. F. SCHAUFFLER, D.D. NEW YORK, October 6, 1896.

"It is the best Teachers' Bible I have ever seen. A most beautiful specimen of work, not only typographically considered, but because of the special care with which the Teachers' 'Helps' have been prepared."

REV. RICHARD S. STORRS, D.D. BROOKLYN, October 14, 1896.

"Leaves nothing to be desired in the way of mechanical execution, or of carefully selected 'Helps' to Biblical study. Such a copy cannot but be of great and constant value to any Pastor or Teacher into whose hands it may come."

REV. RUSSELL H. CONWELL, D.D. PHILADELPHIA, PA., October 15, 1896.

"The best edition of the Scriptures now published."

REV. ALVAH HOVEY, D.D. PRESIDENT NEWTON CENTRE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, November 5, 1896.

"I have examined with special satisfaction the New Copyright Edition of the Genuine 'Oxford' Teachers' Bible. It is a wonderfully interesting and useful edition, superior to anything of its kind that I have seen. The type is distinct and pleasant to the eye, while the plates are most instructive, giving to this edition a unique character and great value. Every Teacher surely would be more than satisfied with this Book. It is a gem."

SUNDAY-SCHOOL MAGAZINE. NASHVILLE, TENN., February, 1897.

"In no volume on earth is there such a display, in similar compass, of all that is magnificent in the publisher's art and all that is valuable in scholarship. The binding is the perfection of beauty and durability. No teacher should be without this Bible whatever others he may have."

CHRISTIAN WORK. NEW YORK, December 31, 1896.

"The Genuine 'Oxford' Teachers' Bible is the best and most popular Teachers' Bible published. No one can make a mistake in buying one. They have all the 'Helps' and all the latest improvements in type and bindings."

CHRISTIAN INTELLIGENCER. NEW YORK, December 16, 1896.

"Never has been and is not now equalled anywhere. These Bibles are durable, all the editions, for they are well made."

THE INTERIOR. CHICAGO, ILL., December 24, 1896.

"'Helps' prepared for this work by the most eminent Biblical scholars of the day, and revised up to the latest possible date, to keep in touch with the last discoveries of science, the last lights of interpretation. This edition has reached, in former issues, a sale of over two million copies, and it is safe to say that nothing offers even fair competition with it in general favor."

THE CONGREGATIONALIST. BOSTON, MASS., October 1, 1896.

"Everything which vigilant and unceasing care could do in editing, in selecting and manufacturing, in print, type, paper and binding, has been lavished on the effort to make this a perfect edition of the great Book of the world."

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. NEW YORK, November 26, 1896.

"A delight to the sense of sight and of touch even before the covers are opened. This edition is an attempt to carry toward further perfection a Bible so thoroughly appreciated that over two million copies of former editions have been sold. It is impossible to summarize the contents, but we are strongly impressed by the variety, value and system of these aids. Critics unite in indorsing the painstaking work done."

THE BIBLE READER. RICHMOND, VA., November, 1896.

"The 'Oxford' Bible is an unceasing wonder. About the time one has concluded that it has reached perfection, here comes another edition which eclipses all former efforts. These plates are by far the finest we have seen. They are authentic and their value is permanent."

THE CHURCHMAN. NEW YORK, April 10, 1897.

"The 'Oxford' Bible has been constantly improving with every edition, until it has now reached a state of perfection beyond which it would seem almost impossible to go. The archæological plates of the present edition are very fine, and furnish the student with the very latest records of the monuments. In fact, all the illustrations are from the very best plates, and may be thoroughly trusted. This is a great satisfaction, this feeling of confidence in one's authority, and fully repays the extra cost which is always to be expected with a guarantee of the best."

THE LIVING CHURCH. CHICAGO, ILL., November 21, 1896.

"Without doubt, the best edition of the Bible yet published for Students, Teachers, and Clergymen. The reference columns are exceedingly valuable, containing some of the best results of the Revised Version. The famous 'Oxford' India paper is used, giving the greatest degree of clearness and durability in the smallest possible space. The printing is very clear and readable, even in the smaller type."

Sunday School Times

Philadelphia, Pa., November 4, 1896.

"The selections are well made, and the names of Sir Edward Maunde Thompson, E. A. Wallis Budge, and A. S. Murray are a sufficient guarantee that the work is well done. The explanations given are clear and judiciously brief. Too high an estimate cannot be placed on the value of such materials as these for Bible study."

GENUINE "OXFORD" TEACHERS' BIBLE—Continued.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS.

The illustrations form a distinctive feature of the new edition, and present a novel and valuable departure, never before attempted in works of this description on a scale so full and complete. They have been selected and described by E. Maunde Thompson, D.C.L., LL.D., Principal Librarian of the British Museum; A. S. Murray, LL.D., F.S.A., Keeper of Greek and Roman Antiquities, British Museum; and E. A. Wallis Budge, Litt.D., F.S.A., Acting Assistant Keeper of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum. Special care has been taken to insert only authentic copies of objects which bear upon matters recorded in Holy Scripture.

THE FORMER SERIES CONSISTED OF 68 PLATES.

THE PRESENT SERIES HAS 124, WITH FULL DESCRIPTIVE LETTERPRESS.

This large increase is partly accounted for by several interesting additions to the illustrations of Old Testament History and Religion, drawn from Egyptian and Assyrian and Babylonian sources, but chiefly by a very large number of fac-similes which have been introduced into the series, in order to amplify the specimens of different versions of the Scriptures, and more particularly to place before the student a full collection of plates showing the growth of the English Bible.

NOTE ON THE MARKINGS.

It is claimed for this book that it goes further in this direction than any previous book, and that it also indicates the pronunciation of certain other words, such as "leviathan," "homer," "cherub," etc., which cannot be called proper names, but which might present difficulties to an unskilled reader.

The undersigned has endeavored in one respect to simplify matters by assigning no separate notation to what are called intermediate sounds. He considers that it is quite possible, by the use of the long (¯) and short (˘) marks, to indicate with sufficient accuracy how the proper names containing these sounds are to be pronounced.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, 41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray about the sixth hour:

Christ foretelleth ST. MATTHEW, 18. his passion.

devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Christ warneth his disciples to be humble and harmless: 7 to avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 teacheth how we are to deal with our brethren, when they offend us: 21 and how oft to forgive them: 23 which he setteth forth

LORD said unto Moses, [g]How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws? 29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. 30 So the people [h]rested on the seventh day. 31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof [1i]Manna: and it was [j]like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. 32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Let an omerful of it be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. 33 And Moses said unto Aaron, [k]Take a pot, and put an omerful of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. 34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up [l]before the Testimony, to be kept. 35 And the children of Israel [m]did eat the manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat the manna, [n]until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan. 36 Now an omer is [o]the tenth part of an ephah.

17 1 And [p]all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, by their [2]journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. 2 [q]Wherefore the people strove with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why strive ye with me? wherefore do ye [r]tempt the LORD? 3 And the people thirsted there for water; and [s]the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast thou brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? 4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready [t]to stone me. 5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pass on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, [u]wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go. 6 [v]Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. 7 And he called the name of the place [3w]Massah, and [4x]Meribah, because of the striving of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 [y]Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. 9 And Moses said unto [z]Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with [a]the rod of God in mine hand. 10 So [z]Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and [b]Hur went up to the top of the hill. 11 And it came to pass, when Moses [c]held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. 12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and [b]Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. 13 And [z]Joshua [5]discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. 14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of [z]Joshua: [6]that [d]I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. 15 And Moses [e]built an altar, and called the name of it [7]Jehovah-nissi: 16 and he said, [8]The LORD hath sworn: [d]the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

18 1 Now [f]Jethro, [g]the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, how that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. 2 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took

THE REVISED BIBLE,

WITH REVISED MARGINAL REFERENCES.

New Copyright Edition.

In 1895, the University presses undertook to meet the increasing demand, both in England and America, for an edition of the complete revised version, with marginal references. A committee was appointed to superintend the work, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Price, Master of Pembroke College, Oxford; the Ven. Dr. Palmer, Archdeacon of Oxford; Dr. W. Aldis Wright, Vice-Master of Trinity College, Cambridge; and the Rev. Dr. Kirkpatrick, Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Cambridge. On Archdeacon Palmer's death, in October, 1895, the Rev. Dr. Ince, Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, succeeded to his place on the committee.

The general editorship was entrusted to the Rev. Dr. Stokoe, of Lincoln College, Oxford, and the following scholars were appointed to assist him in preparing the references for the Old Testament and Apocrypha: the Rev. Dr. Barnes, Fellow of Peterhouse, Cambridge; the Rev. A. W. Greenup, St. John's College, Cambridge; the Rev. E. R. Massey, Exeter College, Oxford; and the Rev. J. W. Nutt, late Fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford. In regard to the New Testament references, Dr. Stokoe was instructed to consult with Dr. Moulton, who undertook to adapt for this edition the fuller body of references upon which he had been engaged. Since Dr. Moulton's death, this part of the work has been completed, under the editor's supervision, by the Rev. J. H. Moulton, late Fellow of Kings' College, Cambridge.

The marginal references given in the original edition of the Authorized Version of 1611 have been retained as far as possible, and the contributors have availed themselves largely of the references in Dr. Scrivener's Paragraph Bible, which they were instructed to make the basis of their work.

The references given may be arranged under the following heads:

1. Quotations, or exact verbal parallels.
2. Passages referred to for similarity of idea or of expression.
3. Passages referred to by way of explanation or illustration.
4. Historical and geographical references—names of persons, places, etc., which recur.
5. Passages referred to as illustrating differences of rendering between the authorized and revised versions.

The revisers' marginal renderings are transferred in this edition to the foot of the page, together with all other notes in the margin of the revised version, except:

(a) When simple references given by the revisers have been incorporated in the new body of references.

(b) When a marginal note refers to some different division or order in the original.

In previous editions of the Revised Version, the number of the verses were placed on the inner margin of each page.

THE CHURCH—MISSIONS. 221

4 Soon shall end the time of weeping,
Soon the reaping time will come;
Heaven and earth together keeping
God's eternal Harvest Home.
Saints and angels
Shout the world's great Harvest Home.

251 L. M.

LOOK from Thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.

2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from Thee!

3 Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to Thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them Thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

252 7.6.

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;

SING, with all the sons of glory
Sing the resurrection-song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the "former days" belong.
Even now the dawn is breaking,
Soon the night of time shall cease,
And, in God's own likeness waking,
Man shall know eternal peace.

48 THE CHRISTIAN YEAR—CHRISTMAS.

57 7s.

SING, oh, sing, this blessèd morn;
Unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given,
God Himself comes down from heaven;
Sing, oh, sing, this blessèd morn,
Jesus Christ to-day is born.

2 God of God, and Light of Light,
Comes with mercies infinite,
Joining in a wondrous plan
Heaven to earth, and God to man.
Sing, oh, sing, etc.

3 God with us, Emmanuel,
Deigns forever now to dwell;
He on Adam's fallen race
Sheds the fullness of His grace.
Sing, oh, sing, etc.

THE LORD'S DAY. 23

29 C. M.

WITH joy we hail the sacred day,
Which God hath called His own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at His throne.

2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair!
As here Thy servants throng
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the grateful song.

Special attention invited to the superbly printed "Oxford India Paper" Editions of Prayer-Books and Hymnals.

The "Oxford India Paper" is a specialty of the Oxford Press, and is manufactured at the paper-mills of the Oxford University Press.

A distinguishing characteristic of the "Oxford India Paper" as compared with all so-called India Paper, is that the impression on one side does not show through when the other side is being read.

A strip of this paper, only three inches in breadth, has been tested and found able to support a quarter of a hundredweight without yielding, a decisive proof of its exceeding toughness and durability.

The Living Church, Chicago, December 11, 1897, speaking of the new PICA 12MO EDITIONS, says:

"The art of book-making has admittedly reached its climax in the Oxford University Press, and perhaps there is nothing sent out by this great publishing house which is in every respect more perfect and beautiful than the new PICA 12MO PRAYER BOOK AND HYMNAL which have just been published. They are models of elegance in paper, printing, and binding. The India paper, in which,twe believe, this company leads the world, has made a revolution, almost, in the art of printing, bringing bulky works into easy dimensions; and here we have two large print volumes most pleasant to handle and easy to read; a delight to both hand and eye."

272 Second Part of [Act III.

Gave him defiance. But which of you was by,—
[To WARWICK.] You, cousin Nevil, as I may remember,—
When Richard, with his eye brimful of tears,
Then check'd and rated by Northumberland,
Did speak these words, now prov'd a prophecy?
'Northumberland, thou ladder, by the which
My cousin Bolingbroke ascends my throne;'
Though then, God knows, I had no such intent,
But that necessity so bowed the state
That I and greatness were compelled to kiss:
'The time shall come,' thus did he follow it,
'The time will come, that foul sin, gathering
head,
Shall break into corruption:'—so went on,
Foretelling this same time's condition
And the division of our amity.
War. There is a history in all men's lives,
Figuring the nature of the times deceas'd;
The which observ'd, a man may prophesy,
With a near aim, of the main chance of things
As yet not come to life, which in their seeds
And weak beginnings lie intreasured.
Such things become the hatch and brood of time;
And by the necessary form of this
King Richard might create a perfect guess
That great Northumberland, then false to him,
Would of that seed grow to a greater falseness,
Which should not find a ground to root upon,
Unless on you.
K. Hen. Are these things then necessities?
Then let us meet them like necessities;
And that same word even now cries out on us.
They say the bishop and Northumberland

Sole sound, the Sourd[1] prolongs his mournful cry;
—Yet hast thou found that Freedom spreads her power
Beyond the cottage hearth, the cottage-door:
All nature smiles, and owns beneath her eyes
Her fields peculiar, and peculiar skies.
Yes, as I roamed where Loiret's waters glide
Through rustling aspens heard from side to side,
When from October clouds a milder light
Fell where the blue flood rippled into white;
Methought from every cot the watchful bird
Crowed with ear-piercing power till then

And deem'd the stag must turn to bay,
Where that huge rampart barr'd the way;
Already glorying in the prize,
Measured his antlers with his eyes;
For the death-wound and death-halloo,
Muster'd his breath, his whinyard drew;—
But thundering as he came prepared,
With ready arm and weapon bared,
The wily quarry shunn'd the shock,
And turn'd him from the opposing rock;
Then, dashing down a darksome glen,
Soon lost to hound and hunter's ken,
In the deep Trosachs' wildest nook
His solitary refuge took.
There, while close couch'd, the thicket

OF THE EXERCISES OF A GOOD RELIGIOUS PERSON.

THE life of a good religious person ought to be mighty in all virtues[1]; that he may inwardly be such, as outwardly he seemeth to men. And with reason there ought to be much more within, than is perceived without. For God beholdeth us[2]; whom

CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS FOR 1898

Including NEW BOOKS and NEW EDITIONS

L. C. PAGE AND COMPANY
Publishers

196 Summer Street
Boston, Massachusetts

Standard Library Sets.

The Works of Catherine Charlotte, Lady Jackson.

Library Edition, Complete in Fourteen Volumes.

Old Paris: Its Courts and Literary Salons. 2 vols.

The Old Régime: Court, Salons, and Theatres. 2 vols.

The Court of France in the Sixteenth Century, 1514–1559. 2 vols.

The Last of the Valois and Accession of Henry of Navarre, 1559–1589. 2 vols.

The First of the Bourbons: 1589–1595. 2 vols.

The French Court and Society: Reign of Louis XVI. and First Empire. 2 vols.

The Court of the Tuileries from the Restoration to the Flight of Louis Philippe. 2 vols.

Of this gossipy and entertaining series of French Memoirs, published in London during the past twenty-five years, and printed from type only, all the earlier volumes are now "out of print" and "scarce."

Complete sets can only be picked up, at a high price, from dealers in rare books.

In view of this fact, and of the present widespread interest in French history, no more opportune time could have been chosen for issuing a new edition. The typographical errors of the original edition have been corrected, and a much-needed Index, which the English edition lacked, has been prepared for each work.

The titles of this celebrated series indicate the scope of Lady Jackson's writings, which touch on different periods of French history from the time of Catherine de' Medici to that of Louis Philippe, and deal with the manners and customs of the times, with chatty personal gossip taken from the memoirs of the brilliant men and women who flourished in this famous court. The writer has done her work most carefully, and is at all times historically accurate.

A new font of type has been used in setting the volumes, and the utmost care has been given to the press-work.

The size of page and size of volume (crown octavo) have been decided upon after careful comparison with the best models, and it has been the aim of the publishers to make, as nearly as possible, an ideal set of books. An English paper, smooth, without gloss, soft and flexible, and pure in color, made at Dickinson's Croxley Mills, has been selected.

Each volume is illustrated with eight photogravures or etchings, careful reproductions of celebrated engraved portraits, printed with the plate mark, and bound with gilt tops and uncut edges, in new English silk-ribbed cloth, with a striking original die stamped in gold on side and back.

Sold separately in cloth, or in complete sets in cloth, half calf, and half morocco.

Per volume, cloth	$ 1.75
Per set, fourteen volumes, cloth	24.50
Per set, fourteen volumes, half calf	49.00
Per set, fourteen volumes, half morocco	56.00

Large Paper Edition.

A large paper, octavo (size 6 x 8½ inches) edition, limited to one hundred and fifty numbered sets, is issued on parchment linen deckle-edge paper. The one hundred and twelve illustrations in this edition are printed on Imperial Japan paper.

The set is in cream-colored vellum cloth and cloth jacket, with brilliant gold stamp on sides and back, and each title is boxed, two volumes in a set.

This limited edition is sold only in complete sets of fourteen volumes, net . . . $49.00

Bulwer-Lytton's Novels. NEW HOUSEHOLD EDITION.

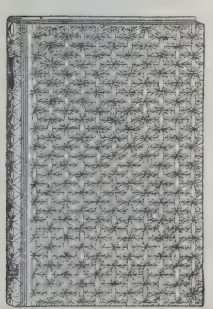
This is a new and fully illustrated edition of Bulwer, beautifully printed on fine laid paper, from new and large type, making a handy volume set. It is illustrated with about two hundred half-tone illustrations from original drawings by the best American artists, such as Dielman, Harper, Taylor, Merrill, and others, and photographs of scenes referred to in the text. Each volume will have a photogravure or etched frontispiece.

Complete in 32 volumes, maroon cloth, gilt tops . . . $40.00
Half calf or half morocco, gilt tops 80.00

Thackeray's Complete Works. NEW HOUSEHOLD EDITION.

Printed from new and large type, set in a small page, well spaced and leaded, making volumes handy in size and easy to hold without weariness. It is fully illustrated with over three hundred illustrations, consisting of new wood-engravings from drawings by the author, Luke Fildes, Barnard, and others, and original etched frontispieces by Pailthorpe, of London, or photogravures from Barnard's designs. The paper has a fine laid surface. It is an ideal set of books, and by far the best set of Thackeray ever offered.

Complete in 30 volumes, maroon cloth, gilt tops (see Bulwer cut) $37.50
Half calf or half morocco, gilt tops 75.00



Victor Hugo's Romances. NEW HOUSEHOLD EDITION.

Holiday Editions in Sets of Two Volumes.

Lorna Doone. By R. D. Blackmore.

2 vols., crown 8vo, cloth and gold with cloth jackets and box . . . . . $ 5.00

Half levant morocco, gilt, gilt tops 10.00

A superb edition with two hundred half-tone and wood-cut illustrations, and thirty new and beautiful photogravures from original photographs. Much time has been spent in gathering the pictures, and no village, hamlet, stream, or other point of interest has been overlooked. The charm of this delightful book will be greatly increased by the reproductions of the veritable scenes of the story. John Ridd and the beautiful Lorna, lively Tom Faggus, Jeremy Stickles, and the outlaw Doones, all seem more real as we look at the Bagworthy and Lynn streams, at Porlock and Brendon and Lynmouth. Legend and fact are so intermingled it is not easy to separate them, and as we linger and look and read, the whole seems real. We have been fortunate in securing for a frontispiece an exquisite ideal head of Lorna Doone, from an original by W. Wontner. There have been many editions of this famous book, but the general verdict is that ours is as near perfect as can be made.

The Innocents Abroad; or, The New Pilgrim's Progress. By Mark Twain.

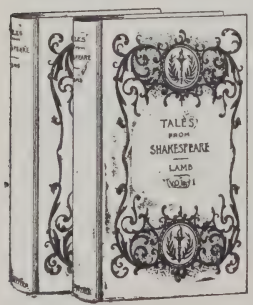
New edition. Fully illustrated with thirty photogravure illustrations of scenery, cities, and architecture, visited by the author and his fellow pilgrims on their famous excursion to Europe and the Holy Land in 1867.

2 vols., crown 8vo, cloth, gilt tops, in cloth box . . . $5.00

Half levant morocco, gilt, gilt tops 9.00

This charmingly entertaining and instructive book, the first work of its author, written with a freshness, vigor, and originality hardly equalled by any of his later works, had a phenomenal sale for some years after its publication, and has sold steadily ever since, finding new readers each year. There has been a demand for some time for another edition in place of the familiar old octavo. This new edition will meet a long-felt want. Its size and beautiful new illustrations and handsome binding will make it an attractive holiday gift-book as well as a desirable library set.

Tales from Shakespeare. By Charles and Mary Lamb.



2 vols., crown 16mo, new silk cloth, gilt top, with elaborate gold die $3.00

The same in half levant, gilt top 5.00

A new and handsome edition of this well-known classic. Illustrated with twenty etchings by the celebrated French artist, H. Pillé. Etched by L. Monzies.

Holiday Editions in Sets of Two Volumes — Continued.

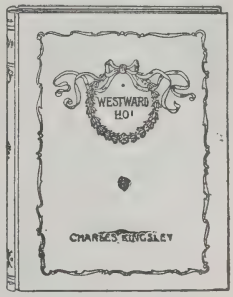
John Halifax (Gentleman). By Miss Mulock.

With colored frontispieces and forty full-page half-tone illustrations, and many text illustrations from original drawings.

2 volumes, crown octavo, cloth, gilt tops, in cloth box . $4.00
2 volumes, crown octavo, half levant morocco . . 8.00

This is the only Holiday Edition published, worthy of the name, of a book of which readers never tire. This beautiful edition will satisfy the most critical admirer of Miss Mulock's masterpiece, the style of manufacture being sumptuous in every particular.

Westward Ho! or, The Voyages and Adventures of Sir Amyas Leigh, Knight, of Burrough, in the County of Devon, in the Reign of her Most Glorious Majesty, Queen Elizabeth.



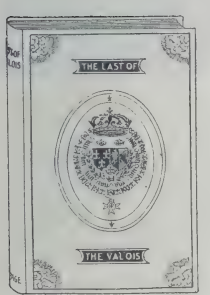
Rendered into modern English by Charles Kingsley. New edition. With two photogravure frontispieces and twenty-eight full-page half-tone illustrations, from old portraits, and original photographs of Devonshire scenery.

2 vols., crown 8vo, cloth, gilt tops, in cloth box . . . $4.00
Half levant morocco, gilt, gilt tops 7.50

The many readers and admirers of this beguiling story of adventure will be glad to know that it is to be had in illustrated form.

No illustrated edition has ever been made until now, and the charming and picturesque bits of the little-changing Devon scenery, the background of the story's beginning and close, cannot fail to make more real the word-pictures of the author.

Holiday Editions of the Works of Catherine Charlotte, Lady Jackson, in Sets of Two Volumes.



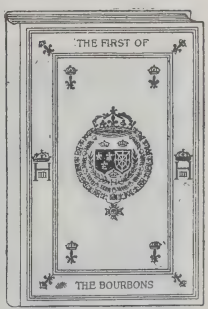
Old Paris.

The Old Régime.

The Court of France.

The Last of the Valois.

The First of the Bourbons.



The French Court and Society: Reign of Louis XVI. and First Empire. 2 vols.

The Court of the Tuileries from the Restoration to the Flight of Louis Philippe. 2 vols.

As each of Lady Jackson's works is complete in itself, we have prepared special holiday editions of the above books, printing them on larger, finer paper, and with Japan paper illustrations, and binding each in a special cover design.

Each in 2 vols., crown 8vo, cloth, gilt top, with cloth jacket and cloth box . . $ 5.00
Half levant morocco, gilt, gilt tops 10.00

Illustrated Gift Books.

Celebrated Crimes. By Alexandre Dumas.

Three vols., illustrated, 12mo, cloth, gilt tops, full gold stamp on the side, per set $4.50
Half calf or half morocco, gilt tops, per set . . . 9.00

These marvellously fascinating historical tragedies are explained and embellished by eighteen full-page illustrations in photogravure, one-half from original drawings by E. H. Garrett, and one-half reproduced from famous paintings of historical characters, the secrets of whose lives are discovered in the pages of the work.

The presswork is from new type, on a high-grade English finish paper, the binding is striking and sumptuous, and the volumes are in every particular splendid specimens of the book-maker's art, besides being the first editions ever made or offered to the trade in this country.

FitzGerald's Rubáiyát of Omar Khayyám.

Standard edition of the five versions of 1859, 1868, 1872, 1879, and 1889, complete in one volume. Illustrated with twelve photogravure plates from original drawings by E. H. Garrett and Gilbert James, and a photogravure frontispiece of FitzGerald from a signed portrait. With a Persian cover design from a drawing by Kohlil Gibrau.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $2.00
Three-quarters morocco 5.00

To Edward FitzGerald is due the credit of the discovery of the inimitable quatrains of Omar Khayyám, and his translations will always remain the standard editions. By including the five separate editions of FitzGerald's versions in one volume, this book offers to the general reader all that bears the impress of authority, while, at the same time, the choice paper, careful presswork, rich binding, superb illustrations, and the size, a handsome library 12mo, absolutely distinguish it from the cheap or gaudy 16mo editions, none of which contain more than the first and last versions.

In a word, this is the standard edition of Omar Khayyám.

The Rubáiyát of Omar Khayyám.

Being a Fac-simile of the Persian Manuscript in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, with a Transcript into Modern Persian Characters.

Translated, with an introduction and notes, and a bibliography, by Edward Heron-Allen.

1 vol., 8vo., cloth and gold cover, after a Persian design $3.50

The growth of interest in the work of Omar Khayyám, the astronomer-poet of Persia, is a remarkable phenomenon, and at last we have what the readers of FitzGerald's Rubáiyát have so long desired, — a copy of the original Persian text from which he made his world-famed rendering, together with a literal translation of the same. The results of Mr. Heron-Allen's study are presented to us in a volume which all lovers of Omar will be eager to possess. The book is sent out in a dress worthy of the contents, with a cover which deserves the epithet "superb."

The Rubáiyát of Omar Khayyám. Illustrated Multi-variorum Edition.

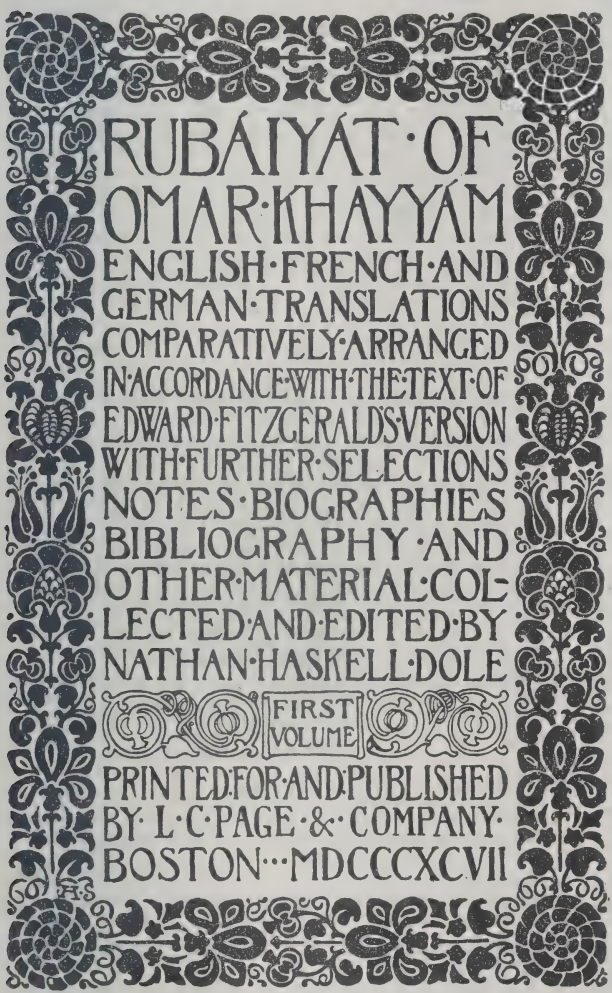
Edited by NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.



New illustrated holiday set of our Multi-variorum Edition of the Rubáiyát of Omar Khayyám, with decorative title-pages on Japan paper, and seventeen full-page photogravure illustrations, printed on Japan paper, from original drawings by E. H. Garrett and Gilbert James, and from photographs. The Library Edition of last year was very successful, and the striking beauty and spirit of the illustrations of this holiday edition will increase the charm of the books to all true lovers of Omar. The paper is a special hand-made deckle-edge laid, and the cover design by Amy Sacker shows a border emblematic of Persian and Arabian subjects.

Two vols., crown octavo, cloth, gilt tops, with cloth jacket . . $ 6.00

Illustrated Gift Books — Continued.

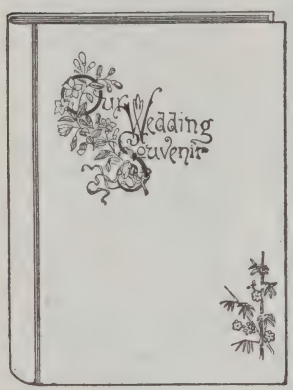
The Blessed Damozel. By Dante Gabriel Rossetti.

1 vol., cloth, decorative cover, gilt top . . . $2.50

This beautiful new edition contains the following distinctive features: The text is that of the earliest printed version, as issued in the rare periodical, The Gem, afterwards Art and Poetry, and consequently presents the poem in a form hitherto practically inaccessible. The frontispiece, by permission of Mr. Frederick Hollyer, is a reproduction of Dante Gabriel Rossetti's crayon study of the head of the Blessed Damozel.

Mr. William Michael Rossetti, the poet's brother, contributes an introduction giving full details concerning the writing of the poem, and the changes it has undergone. Each verse is enclosed in a designed border, drawn by Mr. W. B. Macdougall, who has also designed the cover.



Our Wedding Souvenir. By William F. Ferry.

A novelty in book-making that will find a ready sale among all who are married or who contemplate marriage. It consists of a series of beautiful lithographed floral designs by Antoinette A. Bassett, Lydia F. Emmett, Eleanor E. Greatorex, and other artists, pretty landscapes in sepia and tint by Louis K. Harlow, and is intended as a souvenir for the preservation of the signatures of the parties interested, relatives, and guests. Spaces are left for photographs, wedding cards, newspaper notices, etc. The lithographic work is from the press of Armstrong & Co., and is of the finest kind, the whole making a quarto volume.

Cloth binding, with photogravure design by W. St. John Harper, on side and back, each page mounted with guards . . . . . $ 5.00
White morocco 10.00
Watered silk 10.00
Full tree calf 12.00

Dames of High Degree. Being portraits of beautiful women by old English masters, with decorations and biographical annotations by Thomson Willing.

Ten portraits, with decorated borders and title-page in photogravure.

Cover design, lining paper, and head and tail pieces by the author.

One volume, small quarto, size 7 x 9, bound in cloth, gilt, gilt top $3.00

A truly sumptuous volume of portraits after English masters, with decorations and biographical notes, by Thomson Willing, the subjects being Her Grace of Marlborough, after Sir Godfrey Kaeller; the Countess of Suffolk, "My Good Howard," after a picture in the Strawberry Hill collection; Lady Sarah Lennox, after Sir Joshua Reynolds; Her Grace of Gloucester, Countess Waldegrave, after Reynolds; Her Grace of Cumberland, after Catharine Read; "True Blue and Mrs. Crewe," after Sir Joshua Reynolds; Her Grace of Gordon, after Reynolds; the Margravine of Anspach, Lady Craven, after George Romney; "Sweet Lass of Richmond Hill," Mrs. Fitzherbert, after Thomas Cosway; and the Countess of Ashburnham, after John Hoppner. Mr. Willing has shown no slight degree of ingenuity in the preparation of the decorated borders, half-titles and head and tail pieces, and his biographical notes show the results of careful reading and are admirably expressed.

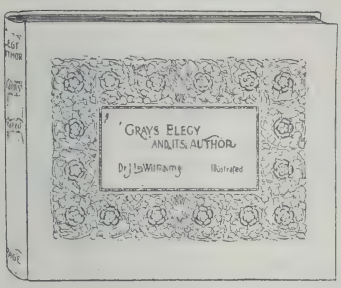
Gray's Elegy and Its Author. NEW EDITION.



The text of Gray's Elegy in a Country Churchyard, and an introduction by DR. J. L. WILLIAMS, illustrated by twenty-five photogravure and half-tone illustrations.

1 vol., quarto, rich cloth, gilt edges . . $3.50

A new edition of this immortal poem, with illustrations in photogravure and half-tone which are exact representations of the identical scenes so vividly and truthfully described by the poet. The original photographs from which the reproductions are made were taken by DR. J. L. WILLIAMS.

Colonial Stories. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE.

1 vol., small quarto, fancy cloth binding, gilt top $3.00

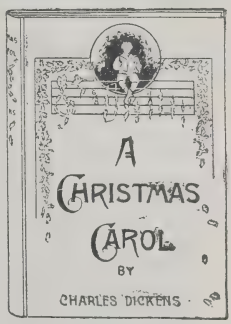
A collection of delightful stories by a great author. The colonial coloring of these stories makes them especially interesting at the present time in view of the widespread interest in all matters pertaining to the early periods of American history and society. There are eight full-page colored illustrations made especially for the book by Frank T. Merrill.

A Christmas Carol: A GHOST STORY OF CHRISTMAS. By CHARLES DICKENS.

A new edition, with photogravure portrait of Dickens, and sixteen half-tone illustrations printed in two tints, from original drawings by I. M. Gaugengigl and T. V. Chominski.

1 vol., small quarto, size 7 x 9, fancy cloth binding, gilt top, $3.00

No other of Dickens's stories, and scarcely any story in the whole range of fiction, has the perennial interest and vitality of the Christmas Carol. Readers who remember it long ago are glad to renew at frequent intervals their old-time enjoyment of this hearty, inspiring, and wholesome tale, and to the new generation of readers no better antidote to the extravagant and sensational products of the day can be offered.



Rip Van Winkle. By WASHINGTON IRVING.

With twenty-four photogravure illustrations from original photographs of Kaatskill Mountain scenery by Ernest Edwards, and text illustrations by Frank T. Merrill.

1 vol., small quarto, size 7 x 9, fancy cloth binding, gilt top, $3.00

The public never seems to weary of this romantic old-world legend adapted and localized by Irving. Starting away back at the dawn of historic time in the far East, the story has travelled Westward, varying in form and habitat, but no version has quite the charm of Irving's. Familiar to a host of readers through the many editions of the author, and brought constantly to public attention by the wonderful impersonations of Joseph Jefferson as the hero of the story, it can never cease to be full of absorbing interest. The series of photographs, which are here reproduced for the first time for the embellishment of this edition, are the spoils of many summer vacation rambles in the picturesque Kaatskill region. The scenes chosen not alone faithfully illustrate the story, but are beautiful as pictures.

ART SERIES.

Angels in Art. By CLARA ERSKINE CLEMENT.

Author of "A Handbook of Legendary and Mythological Art, "The Eternal City Rome," "The Queen of the Adriatic," etc.

1 vol., 12mo, deckle-edge paper, gilt top, flat back, with silk head-band and decorative cover . . . $2.00
The same, three-quarters levant morocco 5.00

Love in Art. By MARY KNIGHT POTTER.

1 vol., 12mo, deckle-edge paper, gilt top, flat back, with silk head-band and decorative cover . . . $2.00
The same, three-quarters levant morocco 5.00

Two beautiful gift books, companion volumes to the successful "Madonna in Art" and "Child Life in Art," written by authors who are recognized authorities on art subjects. Each is illustrated with thirty-one full-page reproductions in half-tone and photogravure from paintings by the great masters.

Child Life in Art. By ESTELLE M. HURLL, M. A.

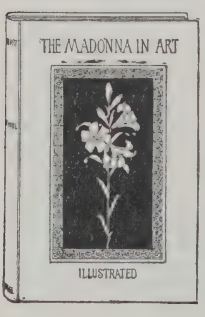
Six chapters, comprising Childhood in Ideal Types, Children Born to the Purple, The Children of Field and Village, The Child Life of the Streets, Child Angels, and the Christ Child.

Illustrated with thirty-one beautiful illustrations in half-tone and photogravure from celebrated paintings by Raphael, Titian, Van Dyck, Velasquez, Reynolds, and other artists.

1 vol., 12mo, cloth, gilt, gilt edges $2.00
Three-quarters levant morocco, gilt top 5.00

A descriptive account of famous pictures of children painted by great artists of all epochs. The author has divided her subject into chapters in a manner calculated to add greatly to its interest. Historical and biographical details and anecdote serve to give variety to the descriptions, and invest the book with a literary interest apart from its artistic value. Its many illustrations represent children of all classes and conditions, and are the artists' masterpieces. The book is designed to interest both lovers of children and lovers of art. A bibliographical list, notes, and an index of artists add to its value as a work of reference.

The Madonna in Art. By ESTELLE M. HURLL, M. A.



1 vol., 12mo, with beautiful blue and gold panel die on side and back $2.00
Three-quarters levant morocco 5.00

A new book by the author of the successful and valuable "Child Life in Art." Illustrated with forty beautiful full-page pictures in photogravure and half-tone from paintings by Raphael, Titian, Van Dyck, and other great masters. This is the first original work from Miss Hurll's pen since "Child Life in Art" was published, the greater part of her time since then having been devoted to revising the new edition of Mrs. Jameson's works, recently published in Boston. The new book will appeal strongly both to students of art and lovers of the beautiful.

The above companion books, "Madonna in Art," and "Child Life in Art," are boxed together if desired, making a beautiful two-volume set, cloth . . . $4.00
Three-quarters levant 10.00

Illustrated Gift Books — Continued.

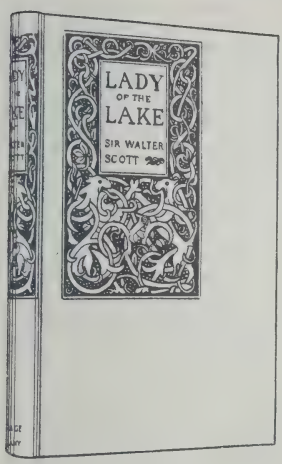
BOOK LOVERS' VOLUMES.



This series of books is unsurpassed in every detail of the art of book-making. The paper is a clear soft-surfaced paper with deckle edges, giving the artistic appearance to the pages which critical book lovers now demand, and yet permitting the printing of the illustrations on the same paper as is the text. The extra wide margins add to the effective appearance of the volumes, each of which is lavishly illustrated with original drawings by artists of note, and has also an especially designed title-page. The bindings are rich and artistic in every particular, with flat backs, silk head-bands, gold stampings, and especially designed cover for each volume. The size is a handsome, tall (crown) octavo.

Each, 1 vol., cloth $1.50
Or three-quarters blue, green, or red levant morocco 4.00

The following volumes are issued during 1898. Others will follow.

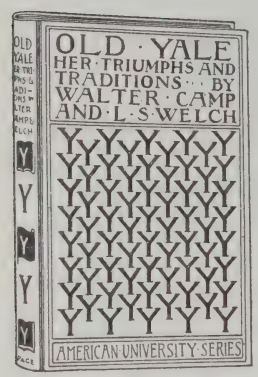
THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY SERIES.



This series will consist of a comprehensive yet popular account of each of America's greatest universities and colleges. Each book will contain an historical sketch and descriptive accounts of the academic, scientific, and professional schools, showing the growth and development of each, together with architectural descriptions of the important buildings, including libraries, dormitories, gymnasiums, etc. A feature will be made of student life now and in the past, and full accounts will be given of old college and class customs fast becoming extinct, famous deeds of famous graduates while in college and in after life, athletics and athletic triumphs, together with tables and statistics showing what graduates have distinguished themselves in after life, and in what fields. In short, the series will consist of readable, popular books, which will interest the general as well as the college public.

The editors of the books will be representative graduates of the several colleges, each thoroughly familiar with the spirit, aims, and accomplishments of his Alma Mater.

The first volume, to be published in the fall, will be —

Old Yale: Her Triumphs and Traditions. By Walter Camp and Lewis S. Welch.

1 vol., 12mo., illustrated $2.00

We also announce for later publication in the series: Fair Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, the University of Pennsylvania, Williams, Amherst, Dartmouth, Bowdoin, Brown University, the University of Michigan, Vassar, Smith, and Cornell, each uniform with Old Yale.

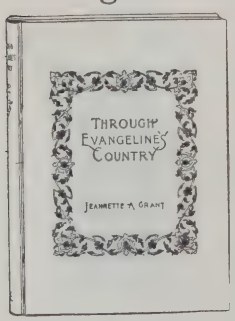
A Thousand Miles up the Nile. By Amelia B. Edwards.

1 vol., cloth, gilt top $2.00
Half levant morocco, gilt top 4.00

"A Thousand Miles up the Nile," a book truly worthy of the title classic, now applied so indiscriminately, is a proper successor to the other books of the series.

It is illustrated with ten photogravures from original photographs of the Nile and adjacent scenery and architecture, in addition to many text illustrations, and is richly bound, with a striking cover design on side and back.

Through Evangeline's Country. By Jeannette A. Grant.



The story of Evangeline and the sorrows and sufferings of the Acadians is a theme of perennial interest. The country itself is beautiful, and now, after nearly a century and a half, tourists, increasing in number each year, delight in the trip, and eagerly read over the story of the hapless people, whose industrious descendants have made a garden of the region. The author is thoroughly familiar with the country and the history of its people, and has pleasantly blended the historic and descriptive, and with the aid of a series of admirable views has made a book that should meet with a pleasant reception and a ready sale.

With color frontispiece of Evangeline and thirty half-tone illustrations from original photographs. 1 vol., square 12mo, ornamental binding, white and gold, gilt top.

New edition $1.50

Illustrated Gift Books — Continued.

Old World Memories. By Edward Lowe Temple.

With eighty photogravure and half-tone illustrations, deckle-edge, gilt top, flat backs.

2 vols., crown 16mo $3.00
Three-quarters levant morocco 6.00

An interesting collection of essays and travel sketches through both familiar haunts and out-of-the-way places of the Old World.

Mr. Temple's style is charming, his information varied, his knowledge of things classic and picturesque, broad and scholarly. As a whole, the book is a valuable contribution to American belles-lettres.

The highways and byways of English and Continental Europe have a wonderful tale to tell to those who, like these pilgrims, tread them with the purpose to listen and learn. And this recital possesses the dignity that springs from the appeal to the historic sense.

"Old World Memories" keeps the past in the foreground as a living theme, and is invested with the atmosphere that still reflects upon the spot those elder days when life was so much more picturesque, if less comfortable, than now. The note of association is truthfully and strenuously struck, and the lovely sights of vale and mount and river and the haunts of men take on a deeper worth and significance.

These dainty volumes will be read with equal satisfaction by such as have their own precious foreign memories to revive, and by those to whom Europe is still but a dream. The latter, whether they travel or not, will find themselves essentially helped by the direct and concise treatment here afforded to realize the meaning of many a foreign scene and situation beneath its outward phenomena. And as a valuable aid to this purpose, the comprehensive series of carefully selected views that follow the author's swift, yet discriminating, touch will be found as unhackneyed as they are profuse and illuminating.

The Great Composers. By Louis C. Elson.

Author of "The Realm of Music," "The Theory of Music," "The History of German Song," etc., etc.

1 vol., crown 16mo, cloth . . . $1.50
1 vol., crown 16mo, half levant morocco 3.00

Famous Singers. By Henry C. Lahee.

1 vol., crown 16mo, cloth $1.50
1 vol., crown 16mo, half levant morocco 3.00

These authors are among the leading critics and musical authorities in the country, and their graphic and authentic accounts of great musicians, living and dead, will prove a popular addition to the literature of music. Each volume is illustrated with rich photogravure and half-tone portraits of the leading figures of the world of music, including Beethoven, Handel, Haydn, Mendelssohn, and Wagner, and such renowned artists as Jenny Lind, Rubini, Nordica, Calvé, Melba, Eames, and the De Reszkes.

The above 2 vols. boxed together, cloth $3.00
Half levant morocco 6.00

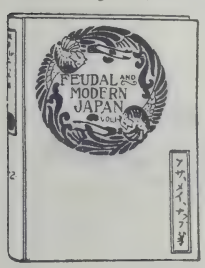
Feudal and Modern Japan. By Arthur May Knapp.

2 vols., 32mo, cloth, gilt tops, per set $1.50



The Same. Illustrated Edition.

With twelve photogravure illustrations of Japanese life, landscape, and architecture in each volume.

2 vols., 32mo, cloth or silk, gilt tops, per set $3.00
2 vols., 32mo, half levant, gilt tops, per set 6.00

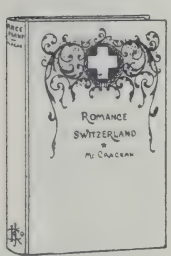
Mr. Knapp's special errand to Japan, his long residence there, and his frequent returns in later years have given him peculiar advantages for observation and comment on the land which still continues in its habit of surprising the rest of the world.

The scope of the book includes a study of the history, religions, language, art, life, and habits of a people who could not be more unlike ourselves were they located on another planet.

Though written in a thoroughly appreciative spirit, it avoids the indiscriminating praise which has characterized so many works on Japan, — and while covering well a ground which has become somewhat familiar, it presents many fresh points of view, and furnishes much information heretofore inaccessible to the ordinary reader.

Romance and Teutonic Switzerland. By William D. McCrackan, M. A. Author of "The Rise of the Swiss Republic."

2 vols., 32mo, cloth, gilt tops, per set $1.50



A new work on Switzerland, in two volumes. The first volume covers that portion of Switzerland where the French and Italian languages are spoken, and the second the German-speaking Cantons. The author is well fitted to write upon the subject, having made it his special study during many years of residence in the country. It has been his aim to picture the real Switzerland and its people as they are, divested of the glamour of romance. His book is neither a guide-book, nor the old-fashioned routine book of travel, made up of transcripts from diaries or hastily written letters to indulgent friends. It is rather a series of individual sketches, covering not only the salient points of attraction, but many places of interest out of the beaten track of the average tourist.

The Same.

Illustrated Edition, with twelve photogravure illustrations of Swiss scenery in each volume.

2 vols., 32mo, white cloth and china silk, gilt tops and green cloth, handsome gilt sides, gilt tops, per set $3.00
2 vols., half levant morocco, gilt tops 6.00

A Girl I Know. By Mrs. N. Gray Bartlett.

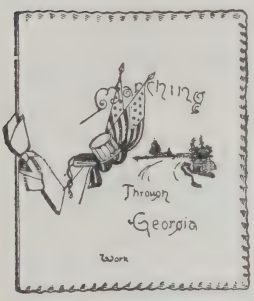
Twelve photogravures from original studies, with verses by Marian L. Wyatt.

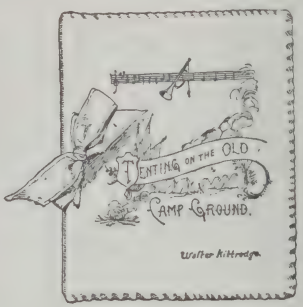
1 vol., quarto, 8 x 10, fancy cloth binding . . $2.00

It consists of a series of charming studies of a young girl, evidently about "sweet sixteen," whom Mrs. Bartlett carries through a round of summer pleasures and experiences, costumed and posed with exquisite taste and grace.

In "A Girl I Know" we have a holiday book which is not only illustrated by photographic methods, but the pictures are one and all from photographic negatives, even including the title-page; and the entire production is an adequate representation of what photography can do in skilful hands to make a fine art work.

Mrs. Bartlett has long been known as a prominent amateur photographer. The present work shows that besides being a skilful operator she is also a trained artist.





Songs of America.

Seven beautiful holiday volumes. Illustrations from nature, by Charles Copeland; ornaments, by Frank Myrick; drawn, engraved, and printed under the supervision of A. V. S. Anthony, at the University Press, Cambridge.

Anthology Series of Dainty Gift Books in Poetry and Prose.

Poems of American Patriotism. From 1776 to 1898.

Being patriotic and stirring verse by great poets and writers of to-day and yesterday on the American wars and kindred subjects. Edited by R. L. Paget.

1 vol., crown 16mo, with decorative cover $1.00

While favorite poems relating to the earlier wars of America are well represented in this collection, the greater part of the book is naturally at this time devoted to the verse which is helping us to "make the history" of the War with Spain, — verse which springs from the heart of the nation, of which a great deal deserves to be and is certain to become standard.

Such a book, issued at such a time, is bound to receive a hearty welcome from the American public, for it is not only a valuable anthology, but also a history of a great nation and a memento of the glorious deeds of the heroes and martyrs who have fallen in defence of liberty.

My Lady Sleeps. By Katherine S. Page.

With an introduction by John White Chadwick. Uniform with "Cap and Gown," "Golden Treasury," etc.

1 vol., crown 16mo, flat back, gilt top, ... $1.25

Through the courtesy of many owners of copyrighted poems, the compiler has had the widest scope in making her selection, from both the major and the minor poets, and has thus been able to present in her charming little volume all that is truest and best in the English language on the subjects of Sleep, Dreams, Rest, and Bedtime songs. A celebrated critic who has seen the MS. of the book speaks highly of the compiler's work, and pronounces "My Lady Sleeps" one of the most careful and complete anthologies ever published.

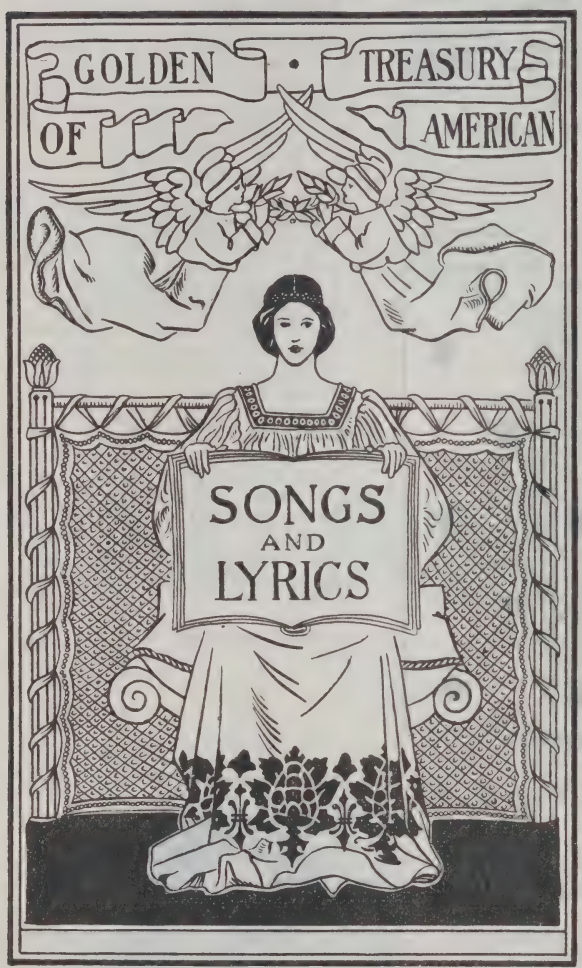
The Golden Treasury of American Songs and Lyrics.



Chosen and edited by FREDERIC LAWRENCE KNOWLES.

1 vol., cloth, printed on deckle-edge hand-made paper . . $1.25
1 vol., half calf or half morocco . . . 2.50
1 vol., full levant morocco . . . 4.00

By special arrangement with Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., and other copyright owners, Mr. Knowles has had the widest scope in making his selections from the works of all the great American poets, including Longfellow, Whittier, Lowell, Bryant, etc., etc., and his compilation, gathering as it does into one volume the choicest and most representative works of both the major and minor poets of the land, will make this volume practically indispensable both in libraries and schools. In a word, "The Golden Treasury of American Songs and Lyrics" is to American poetry what Palgrave's "Golden Treasury" is to British poetry.

Songs Ysame.

By ANNIE FELLOWS-JOHNSTON AND ALBION FELLOWS-BACON.

1 vol., crown 16mo, cloth . . . $1.00
1 vol., crown 16mo, half calf . . . 2.00

A notable critic who has seen the MSS. of these poems pronounces them to be of a high order of merit, and it is prophesied that this book of verse will bring to both writers an ever widening circle of readers.

No pains or expense has been spared to give the exquisite verse an attractive setting. It is printed on a fine deckle-edge laid paper, made especially for the book, and the striking, yet delicate, binding is strongly in keeping with the charm of the verse.

Cap and Gown. SECOND SERIES.

A selection of college verse of the past five years, chosen and arranged by FREDERIC LAWRENCE KNOWLES.

1 vol., crown 16mo, cloth, gilt top $1.25
Half morocco 2.50

This is a companion volume to our successful "Cap and Gown," first series, published in 1892, and well and favorably known to the trade since then. If anything, the new volume is an advance over the old in the spirit and charm of the selections, and in the manufacture of the book. A special feature is that, in addition to the regular edition, we have made a special edition for the adherents of each of the prominent colleges, these editions being bound in the colors of the various colleges, the cover designs showing a fine effect of college banners and flags.

The book is printed on a special hand-made deckle-edge laid paper, and is in every way a triumph of artistic book-making, with a photogravure frontispiece drawn especially for the book by Frank T. Merrill.

Special editions have been bound in the colors of the following colleges:

Harvard.
Yale.
Princeton.
University of Pennsylvania.
Columbia.
University of Michigan.
Smith.
Brown.
Cornell.
Williams.

Other special editions will follow.

"Many of the verses are worthy of a place in literature." — School Journal.

"With scarcely any exception, the rhymes are graceful in expression, and a few of them are of superior and promising quality." — New Bedford Standard.

"Taken as a whole, it is poetry of a remarkably good kind — verse quite equal to the best of the light contributors to the magazines." — Boston Herald.

"The editor has selected the verse in the book with taste and discrimination." — Chicago Inter-Ocean.

"The poems are most of them exceedingly well chosen." — Toledo Blade.

"For the purposes of entertainment, 'Cap and Gown' seems all but faultless." — Nassau Literary Magazine.

"Its contents sparkle with wit and fun." — Milwaukee Journal.

"A well-selected collection of verse." — Hartford Post.

"The book is a pleasant one, with many clever turns and pretty verses." — Hartford Courant.

"The second series of 'Cap and Gown' has all the dash and humor which made the first so popular. One can catch the atmosphere of dormitory and campus throughout these clever verses, and can hear the splash of the oars, the tinkle of the banjos, and the laughs of the undergraduates. Even the smell of the college pipe is present." — Boston Journal.

"The book is a rarely handsome one, and, as a collection, bright, entertaining, and rich in the wit, humor, and mirth of the happy life which gives the inspirations of the songs." — New York Independent.

"Light, graceful, humorous, sparkling, it will bring back to many an alumnus and alumna recollections of the happy days as an undergrad." — Washington Post.

"Not only college men, but a much larger public, will read this charming little book with appreciation and amusement." — Boston Congregationalist.

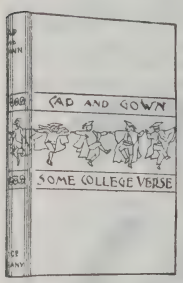
Cap and Gown. First Series. Selected by J. L. Harrison.



The text of "Cap and Gown" comprises a selection of the best verse which has appeared in twenty-seven of the leading college journals during the past ten or fifteen years. As verse is an important feature of these publications, reflecting as it does the social side of college life, this little book commends itself to a wide range of readers. Not alone does it appeal to the college student of to-day, but also to those who in the busy whirl of affairs have not altogether forgotten the light-hearted gaiety and rollicking fun of their college days.

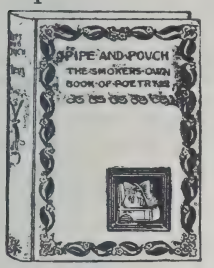
Pipe and Pouch.

THE SMOKER'S OWN BOOK OF POETRY. Compiled by JOSEPH KNIGHT. With frontispiece illustration.



1 vol., crown 16mo, cloth, gilt top $1.25
1 vol., crown 16mo, Havana colored leather, flexible, gilt top 2.50

This somewhat unique little volume of collected verse, gathered by Joseph Knight, is the result of many years' gleaning from a great variety of sources of all the best verse devoted to praise of the weed. It will be a matter of surprise to most readers to find how much has been written that is clever and bright on the theme of smoking. From the time of Raleigh and Spenser to the present day, not only the writers of lighter verse, but the more dignified of the poets have turned aside to sing of what one of the oldest of them called "The Plant of Great Renown."

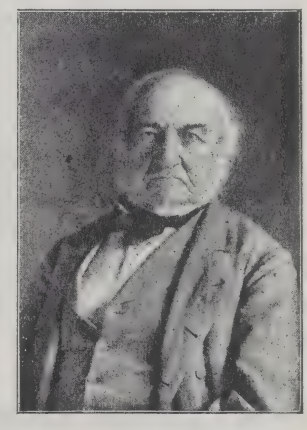
"In compiling and publishing in attractive form an anthology of the tributes of the poets to 'My Lady Nicotine,' Mr. Joseph Knight has done a graceful thing, and one that every smoker that reads and every reader that smokes ought to appreciate. There has been since Raleigh's day an unusually good lot of poetry written in praise of pipe, cigar, and cigarette. As shown by the names of the poets that figure in this book, nearly all the great writers were devotees of the weed that smooths out life's wrinkles. Milton, Addison, Fielding, Hobbes, Newton, Scott, Campbell, Byron, Lamb, Carlyle, Tennyson, Thackeray, Dickens, and Bulwer were all great smokers, though, unfortunately, not all of them felt the inclination to pay special tribute to their pipe or cigar, and the inspiration that in them lies. Kipling's tribute to his cigars is in this excellent anthology, and so is that clever thing of George Arnold's beginning, 'Here with my beer I sit, while golden moments flit.' Mr. Knight's compilation is comprehensive, and his selections show not only his good taste in verse, but his knowledge of the writers that have praised the weed that solaces. This little book ought to belong to every smoker." —Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Daily Readings from Gladstone.

Selections from the works and speeches of the greatest of England's statesmen and philanthropists of modern times. Arranged in the form of a year book, by E. S. DALTON.

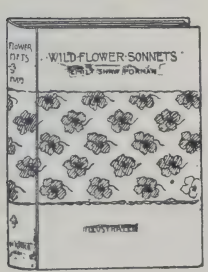
1 vol., 12mo, cloth, ornamental cover . . $1.00

The publication of this volume from the best thought of Mr. Gladstone will prove, in view of his recent death, a timely opportunity to procure a lasting memento of one who stood so high in the estimation of the American people, and possessed the greatest qualities of the statesman, financier, philanthropist, orator, scholar, and theologian.



Wild Flower Sonnets.

By EMILY SHAW FORMAN. With twelve illustrations from original drawings, by Abbott Graves.



1 vol., 16mo, fancy cloth and sateen, gilt top . . . $1.00

A series of graceful and exquisite verses in praise of our familiar wild flowers. A well-known writer says of them, "I would to all the nine muses that our songsters and rhymesters could give us always something as pure as these sonnets. No one could have written them who did not comprehend nature. There is no mistake about the author's being a botanist, a lover of nature's accuracies; she has the skill of a collector, as well as the music of a singer, and the eye of a poet."

JOHN G. WHITTIER said: "Mrs. Forman gets very near to nature, as if she were a part of it. She sees beauty in 'the meanest flower that blows,' and knows how to reproduce it for other eyes."

New Editions of Ivorine Gift Books.

By special arrangement with the manufacturers and owners of the patent fluted edge ivorine covers, of which there were several lines on the market last year, we practically control the entire output for this season of all such fluted edge celluloid or ivorine books. We are consequently able to offer the trade the following list of unexcelled gift books, none of the best titles of which can be put on the market by any other house than ourselves in celluloid, ivorine, or any similar binding with fluted edge. Each book is illustrated; is carefully sewed and gilded, and tied with silk ribbon in a flexible ivorine cover with fluted edges. Each cover is decorated by hand with a striking and beautiful design appropriate to the contents of the book.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.50

An historical romance of the 18th century, being an account of the life of an American gentleman adventurer of Jacobite ancestry, whose family early settled in the colony of Pennsylvania. The scene shifts from the unsettled forests of the then West to Philadelphia, New York, Quebec, London, Paris, and, in fact, wherever a love of adventure and a roving destiny can lead a soldier of fortune. In his progress through the Old World the hero represents the then new American spirit, whose marvellous triumph is seen to-day in successful antagonism to rotting customs and institutions of throne-ridden Europe.

Fiction — Continued.

In Kings' Houses: A Romance of the Days of Queen Anne. By Julia C. R. Dorr.

Author of "A Cathedral Pilgrimage," etc.
Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.50

Mrs. Dorr's poems and travel sketches have earned for her a distinct place in American literature, and her romance, "In Kings' Houses," is written with all the charm of her earlier works. The story deals with one of the most romantic episodes in English history. Queen Anne, the last of the reigning Stuarts, is described with a strong, yet sympathetic touch, and the young Duke of Gloster, the "little lady," and the hero of the tale, Robin Sandys, are delightful characterizations.

Rose à Charlitte: An Acadien Romance. By Marshall Saunders.

Author of "Beautiful Joe," etc.
Illustrated by H. De M. Young.

1 vol. library 12mo, cloth $1.50

In this novel, the scene of which is laid principally in the land of Evangeline, Marshall Saunders has made a departure from the style of her earlier successes. The historical and descriptive setting of the novel is accurate, the plot is well conceived and executed, and the characters are drawn with a firm and delightful touch. The idyllic life of this people, their strong sympathies, unique traditions, and peculiar customs, their fine characters and racial traits, are brought into view as the story unfolds itself. Rose à Charlitte, an illustration of a custom of fixing names common among them, is a beautiful Acadien maiden who figures in the story from beginning to end. Other characters peculiar and fine appear in this most interesting novel. Those who know the modern Acadiens say that it is realistic and true to life as Evangeline was true to the life of their forefathers. The sombre charm of a great catastrophe hangs over this people and lends a special interest to their customs and lives in this day as it did when Longfellow gave Evangeline to the world.

Cross Trails. By Victor Waite.

Illustrated by J. W. Kennedy.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.50

A Spanish-American novel of unusual interest; a brilliant, dashing, and stirring story, teeming with humanity and life. Mr. Waite is to be congratulated upon the strength with which he has drawn his characters.

Bijli the Dancer. By James Blythe Patton.

Illustrated by Horace Van Rinth.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.50

A novel of Modern India. The fortunes of the heroine, an Indian Nautch girl, are told with a vigor, pathos, and a wealth of poetic sympathy that makes the book admirable from first to last.

Fiction — Continued.

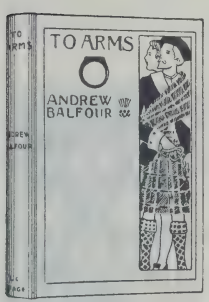
The Making of a Saint. By W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM. Illustrated by Gilbert James.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth . . . $1.50

"The Making of a Saint" is a romance of Mediæval Italy, the scene being laid in the 15th century. It relates the life of a young leader of Free Companions who, at the close of one of the many petty Italian wars, returns to his native city. There he becomes involved in its politics, intrigues, and feuds, and finally joins an uprising of the townspeople against their lord. None can resent the frankness and apparent brutality of the scenes through which the hero and his companions of both sexes are made to pass, and many will yield ungrudging praise to the author's vital handling of the truth. In the characters are mirrored the life of the Italy of their day. The book will confirm Mr. Maugham's reputation as a strong and original writer.



To Arms! BEING SOME PASSAGES FROM THE EARLY LIFE OF ALLAN OLIPHANT, CHIRURGEON, WRITTEN BY HIMSELF, AND NOW SET FORTH FOR THE FIRST TIME. By ANDREW BALFOUR. Illustrated by F. W. Glover.

1 vol., library 12mo $1.50

A romance dealing with an interesting phase of Scottish and English history, the Jacobite Insurrection of 1715, which will appeal strongly to the great number of admirers of historical fiction. The story is splendidly told, the magic circle which the author draws about the reader compelling a complete forgetfulness of prosaic nineteenth century life.

Omar the Tentmaker: A ROMANCE OF OLD PERSIA. By NATHAN HASKELL DOLE. Illustrated.

With a special Persian cover design by Kahlil Gibrau.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.50

Mr. Dole's study of Persian literature and history admirably equips him to enter into the life and spirit of the time of the romance, and the hosts of admirers of the inimitable quatrains of Omar Khayyám, made famous by FitzGerald, will be deeply interested in a tale based on authentic facts in the career of the famous Persian poet. The three chief characters are Omar Khayyám, Nizamul-Mulk, the generous and high-minded Vizier of the Tartar Sultan Malik Shah of Mero, and Hassan ibu Sabbath, the ambitious and revengeful founder of the sect of the Assassins. The scene is laid partly at Naishapur, in the Province of Khorasan, which about the period of the First Crusade was at its acme of civilization and refinement, and partly in the mountain fortress of Alamut, south of the Caspian Sea, where the Ismailians under Hassan established themselves towards the close of the 11th century. Human nature is always the same, and the passions of love and ambition, of religion and fanaticism, of friendship and jealousy, are admirably contrasted in the fortunes of these three able and remarkable characters as well as in those of the minor personages of the story.

Fiction — Continued.

FROM "SONS OF ADVERSITY."

Sons of Adversity: A Romance of Queen Elizabeth's Time.

By L. Cope Cornford, author of "Captain Jacobus," etc. Illustrated by J. W. Kennedy.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth . . . $1.25

A tale of adventure on land and sea at the time when Protestant England and Catholic Spain were struggling for naval supremacy. Spanish conspiracies against the peace of good Queen Bess, a vivid description of the raise of the Spanish siege of Leyden by the combined Dutch and English forces, sea fights, the recovery of stolen treasure, are all skilfully woven elements in a plot of unusual strength.

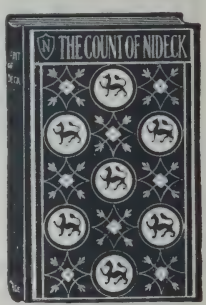
Muriella; or, Le Selve. By Ouida.

Illustrated by M. B. Prendergast.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth . . . $1.25

This is the latest work from the pen of the brilliant author of "Under Two Flags," "Moths," etc., etc. It is the story of the love and sacrifice of a young peasant girl, told in the absorbing style peculiar to the author.

The Count of Nideck.

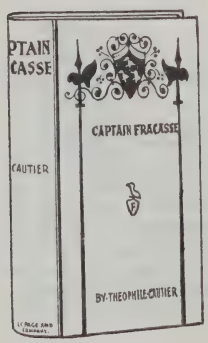


From the French of Erckman-Chatrian, translated and adapted by Ralph Browning Fiske. Illustrated by Victor A. Searles.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.25

A romance of the Black Forest, woven around the mysterious legend of the Wehr Wolf. The plot has to do with the later German feudal times, is brisk in action, and moves spiritedly from start to finish. Mr. Fiske deserves a great deal of credit for the excellence of his work. No more interesting romance has appeared recently.

Captain Fracasse.



A new translation from the French of Gautier. Illustrated by Victor A. Searles. 1 vol., library 12mo, cloth . $1.25

This famous romance has been out of print for some time, and a new translation is sure to appeal to its many admirers, who have never yet had any edition worthy of the story.

"There is a real satisfaction in turning from the tremendously modern stories produced by the score at present, and from the deliberate romances of Messrs. Hope, Weyman, and others, to this genuine old fantasy of love, adventure, and heroism. It is a belated blossom of the romantic period in fiction — not a forced and artificial bloom put forth in response to popular demand. As literature it is admirable, being exquisite in style and thoroughly refined and consistent in treatment. It is one of those things which the best French writers do so well that they inspire an eternal wonder as to why they are not done frequently." — St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Fiction — Continued.

Midst the Wild Carpathians. By Maurus Jókai.

Author of "Black Diamonds," "The Lion of Janina," etc. Authorized translation by R. Nisbet Bain.
Illustrated by F. W. Glover.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.25

A thrilling, historical Hungarian novel, in which the extraordinary dramatic and descriptive powers of the great Magyar writer have full play. As a picture of feudal life in Hungary it has never been surpassed for fidelity and vividness. The translation is exceedingly well done.

The Golden Dog: A Romance of Quebec. By William Kirby.

New authorized edition, printed from new plates. Illustrated by J. W. Kennedy.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.25

"A powerful romance of love, intrigue, and adventure in the times of Louis XV. and Madame de Pompadour, when the French colonies were making their great struggle to retain for an ungrateful court the fairest jewels in the colonial diadem of France. It is a most masterly picture of the cruelties and the jealousies of a maiden, Angelique des Melloises — fair as an angel and murderous as Medea. Mr. Kirby has shown how false prides and ambitions stalked abroad at this time, how they entered the heart of man to work his destruction, and particularly how they influenced a beautiful demon in female form to continued vengeances." — Boston Herald.

"Too little is known about the early days of Canada, and it is well for us to turn for instruction on this subject to a man like Mr. Kirby, who is not only an interesting writer, but also a thorough scholar. He seems to be entirely at home in old Canada, and his descriptions of life therein may be regarded as correct. The book is so fascinating that there are few who will not read the book from cover to cover, once they have taken it in hand." — New York Herald.

The Rejuvenation of Miss Semaphore: A Farcical Novel. By Hal Godfrey.

Illustrated by Etheldred B. Barry.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.25

A fanciful, laughable tale of two maiden sisters of uncertain age, who are induced, by their natural longing for a return to youth and its blessings, to pay a large sum for a mystical water which possesses the value of setting backwards the hands of time. No more delightfully fresh and original book has appeared since "Vice Versa" charmed an amused world. It is well written, drawn to the life, and full of the most enjoyable humor.

Friendship and Folly: A Novel. By Maria Louise Pool.

Author of "In a Dike Shanty," etc.
Illustrated.

1 vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.25

An extremely well-written story of modern life. The interest centres in the development of the character of the heroine, a New England girl, whose high-strung temperament is in constant revolt against the confining limitations of nineteenth century surroundings. The reader's interest is held to the end, and the book will take high rank among American psychological novels.

Fiction — Continued.

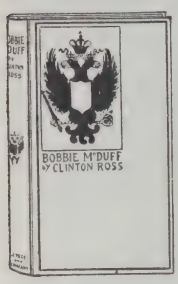
Bobbie McDuff. By Clinton Ross.



Author of "The Scarlet Coat," "Zuleika," etc. Illustrated by B. West Clinedinst.

1 vol., large 16mo cloth . $1.00

Clinton Ross is well-known as one of the most promising of recent American writers of fiction, and in the description of the adventures of his latest hero, Bobbie McDuff, he has repeated his earlier successes. Mr. Ross has made good use of the wealth of material at his command. New York furnishes him the hero, sunny Italy a heroine, grim Russia the villain of the story, while the requirements of the exciting plot shift the scene from Paris to New York, and back again to a remote, almost feudal villa on the southern coast of Italy.

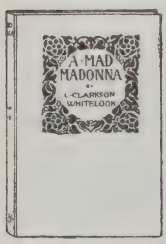
FROM "BOBBIE McDUFF."

A Hypocritical Romance and Other Stories. By Caroline Ticknor.

Illustrated by J. W. Kennedy.

1 vol., large 16mo, cloth $1.00

Miss Ticknor, well known as one of the most promising of the younger school of American writers, has never done better work than in the majority of these clever stories, written in a delightful comedy vein.



A Mad Madonna and Other Stories. By L. Clarkson Whitelock.

With eight half-tone illustrations.

1 vol., large 16mo., cloth $1.00

A half dozen remarkable psychological stories, delicate in color and conception. Each of the six has a touch of the supernatural, a quick suggestion, a vivid intensity, and a dreamy realism that is matchless in its forceful execution.

On the Point: A Summer Idyl. By Nathan Haskell Dole.

Author of "Not Angels Quite," with dainty half-tone illustrations as chapter headings.

1 vol., large 16mo, cloth $1.00

A bright and clever story of a summer on the coast of Maine, fresh, breezy, and readable from the first to the last page. The narrative describes the summer outing of a Mr. Merrithew and his family. The characters are all honest, pleasant people, whom we are glad to know. We part from them with the same regret with which we leave a congenial party of friends.

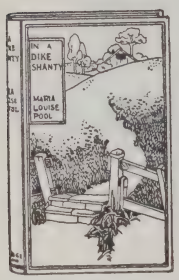
Round Table Library.



Under this general title the publishers intend to issue from time to time original stories, American and English, translations, and reprints of well-known classics of fiction. It will be their endeavor to include only fresh, bright, compactly written stories. The type will be clear and readable, the binding attractive and durable, and the size a handsome 16mo.

In a Dike Shanty. By MARIA LOUISE POOL.

1 vol., cloth $0.75

"Of the same general character as this author's 'Tenting on Stony Beach,' but written with more vigor and compactness. Each of the persons in this outing-sketch is strongly individualized, and an effective little love story is interwoven. The author has a certain hardness of tone which gives strength to her work." — Atlantic Monthly.

Boss and Other Dogs. By MARIA LOUISE POOL.

1 vol., cloth $0.75

Miss Pool is well known as a passionate lover of dogs, and her stories of them are as sweet as they are simple and sincere.

The Romance of a Poor Young Man. By OCTAVE FEUILLET.

1 vol., cloth, gilt top $0.50

This charming story has never before been published in a style worthy of Feuillet's masterpiece; and the charming illustrations in half-tone by Etheldred B. Barry greatly increase the value of the book.

An Attic Philosopher in Paris. By EMILE SOUVESTRE. With four half-tone illustrations.

This little volume of reflections and anecdotes has long been a classic in this country as well as in France, and its graceful style and delicate mingling of humor and pathos appeal to a host of readers $0.50

Little Idyls of the Big World. By W. D. MCCRACKAN, M. A. With four half-tone illustrations.

Mr. McCrackan, with cosmopolitan instinct, takes the whole world for his source of material in this new work. It has been his aim to place these idyls, or little pictures, upon the literary page as a painter blocks in his sketches upon canvas $0.50

The Starling. By NORMAN MACLEOD, D. D. With four half-tone illustrations.

With the widespread interest in everything Scotch, stimulated by the remarkable success of recent stories of Scottish life by Barrie and Crockett and Ian Maclaren, it seems altogether opportune to reissue this well-known story of Dr. Macleod's $0.50

Cavalleria Rusticana; or, Under the Shadow of Etna. By NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

Translated from the Italian of Giovanni Verga.

Giovanni Verga stands at present as unquestionably the most prominent of the Italian novelists. His supremacy in the domain of the short story and in the wider range of the romance is recognized both at home and abroad $0.50

Arne: A SKETCH OF NORWEGIAN COUNTRY LIFE. Translated from the Norwegian of Björnstjerne Björnson.

This charming idyl of Norwegian life, the early work of its distinguished author, whose career as poet, dramatist, and patriot has brought him into world-wide prominence, has long been out of print. Its simplicity and beauty and exquisite quality has never been excelled by any of its author's later work, and justifies its issuance at this time $0.50

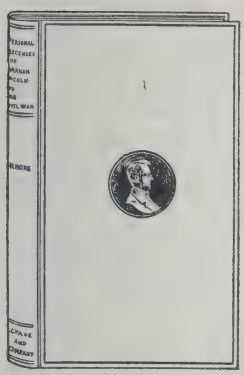
Break o' Day Tales. By FRANK WEST ROLLINS.

1 vol. $0.50

Bright, clever, and original in plot and treatment, and worthy of a wide reading.

History.

Personal Recollections of Abraham Lincoln and The Civil War. By JAMES R. GILMORE (Edmund Kirke).



Author of "Among the Pines," "The Life of James A. Garfield," etc.

1 vol., 8vo. Illustrated with eight portraits in photogravure $3.00

No more opportune time could be taken for the issue of a book giving hitherto unpublished facts about and throwing strong side-lights upon the character of the greatest figure of our greatest war.

Mr. Gilmore was a personal friend of Mr. Lincoln's, and was one of the so-called "Peace Commissioners" sent by Lincoln to Jefferson Davis. His work is an important contribution to the contemporaneous history of the United States.

Letters of a War Correspondent. By CHARLES A. PAGE.

Special correspondent of the New York Tribune during the Civil War.

Part I. The Army of the Potomac from June to July, 1862.
Part II. The Grand Campaign from May to December, 1864.
Part III. The Final Campaign from March to May, 1865.

1 vol., 8vo, cloth. Illustrated with portraits and maps $3.00

An interesting and graphic account of some of the most important scenes of the war, edited with notes by James R. Gilmore, author of "The Life of Garfield," "Among the Pines," etc.

SOME PRESS COMMENTS ON MR. GILMORE'S PREVIOUS WORKS.

"Mr. Gilmore is so well known to the reading public of America, that it would be supererogation to point out his peculiar fitness for the editorial labor of this great and generally needed work. The corps of contributors combines the literary, historical, legal, financial, commercial, industrial and political talent of the whole country." — Daily Times, Chattanooga, Tenn. "Edmund Kirke's writings have all the naturalness of Fenimore Cooper, and all the graphic power and intensity of Victor Hugo." — New York Independent. "He has produced lifelike portraitures and impressive dramatic scenes such as few artists 'in modern play or old mortality' have written." — Chronicle, Pittsburg. "He has remarkable dramatic power, and a style of singular force and flexibility." — North American Review. "His style is vivid and piquant, and charged with home thrusts, and his delineation of character is very lifelike and skilful." — Cornelius Matthews. "His books abound in truthfulness and beauty of character, and a variety of incident, both ludicrous and pathetic, all unfolded with a masterly simplicity." — Christian Mirror, Portland, Me. "He has remarkable narrative ability, and a dramatic power, which, with all its intensity, never departs from the sober simplicity of truth." — George Ripley, in New York Tribune. "He displays all the leading qualities of a great dramatist — keen insight into human nature, racy humor, and pathos which is tragic in its intensity." — True Flag, Boston.

History—Continued.

Paul Kruger and His Times. By F. Reginald Statham.

Author of "South Africa as It Is," etc.

1 vol., 8vo, cloth. Illustrated with photogravure portrait and map $2.50

In this volume an endeavor is made to give a sketch of Paul Kruger's life and career as representative of the characteristics and opinions of the Dutch settlers who constitute the majority of the European population of South Africa. The scope of the work is fairly indicated by the heads of the several chapters as under: i. The Krugers and the Cape — ii. The Krugers and the Great Trek — iii. Paul Kruger and the Republics — iv. Kruger and the Annexation — v. Kruger as the People's Advocate — vi. Kruger and the War — vii. Kruger and the Conventions — viii. Kruger and the Goldfields — ix. Kruger and Rhodes — x. Kruger and Johannesberg — xi. Kruger and the Raid — xii. The Kruger of To-day.

An undoubted welcome will be extended to the first authoritative account of the striking figure that has stood as the bulwark of his country's liberty at the southern extremity of the dark continent.

Wee Dorothy. By Laura Updegraff.

A story of two orphan children, the tender devotion of the eldest, a boy, for his sister being its theme and setting. With a bit of sadness at the beginning, the story is otherwise bright and sunny, and altogether wholesome in every way.

Rab and His Friends. By Dr. John Brown.

Doctor Brown's little masterpiece is too well known to need description. The dog Rab is already known and loved by all.

Cosy Corner Series — Continued.

A Little Puritan Rebel. By Edith Robinson.

Author of "A Loyal Little Maid." With original cover design and pen-and-ink drawings by Amy Sacker.

Like Miss Robinson's successful story of "A Loyal Little Maid," this is another historical tale of a real girl, during the time when the gallant Sir Harry Vane was governor of Massachusetts.

A Loyal Little Maid. By Edith Robinson.

A delightful and interesting story of Revolutionary days, in which the child heroine, Betsey Schuyler, renders important services to George Washington and Alexander Hamilton, and in the end becomes the wife of the latter.

"So loyal that she thought not a moment of the praise or the peril of her deed, but imbued with a victorious sense of patriotism, and love of country, she saved her country's honor and perhaps the very life of Washington. We often read of little patriotic heroines, and are charmed with the story of their deeds. But few leave so satisfactory an impression as does this narrative. Betty thoroughly proves her right to the title 'A Loyal Little Maid,' as it was given her by none other than Washington himself. She was enabled to be the means of warning the great general of a certain danger in which he inadvertently placed himself, for which deed she gained the thanks of the nation, and Alexander Hamilton for a husband. Boys and girls and grown-up people will like this story, desiring only to know more of Betty and her womanhood." — Boston Courier.

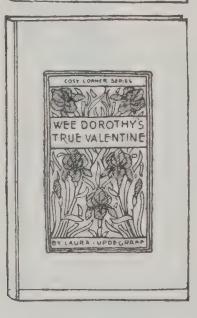
A Dog of Flanders: A Christmas Story. By Louise de la Ramé (Ouida).

Too well and favorably known to require description.

The Nürnberg Stove. By Louise de la Ramé (Ouida).

This beautiful story has never before been published at a popular price.

The King of the Golden River: A Legend of Stiria. By John Ruskin.



With twenty-five illustrations by Richard Doyle.

Written fifty years or more ago, and not originally intended for publication, this little fairy tale soon became known and made a place for itself. It should be found in every juvenile library, and will always be a favorite.

La Belle Nivernaise: The Story of an Old Boat and Her Crew. By Alphonse Daudet.

With many illustrations by Montégut.

It has been out of print for some time, and is now offered in cheap, but dainty form in this new edition. All who have read it will be glad to welcome an old favorite, and new readers will be happy to have it brought to their friendly attention.

The Young King. The Star Child.

With illustrations by C. Ricketts.

Two stories chosen from a recent volume by a gifted author, on account of their rare beauty, great power, and deep significance.

Cosy Corner Series — Continued.

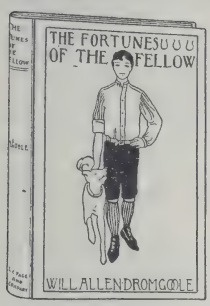
The Fortunes of the Fellow. By Will Allen Dromgoole.



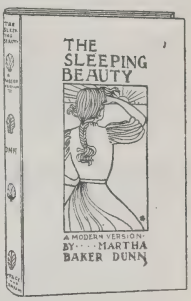
Author of "The Farrier's Dog and His Fellow," with original cover design and illustrations in black and white by Amy Sacker.

Those who read and enjoyed the pathos and charm of "The Farrier's Dog and His Fellow" will welcome the further account of the "Adventures of Baydaw and the Fellow" at the home of the kindly smith among the Green Hills of Tennessee.

The Farrier's Dog and His Fellow. By Will Allen Dromgoole.

This story, written by the gifted young Southern woman, will appeal to all that is best in the natures of the many admirers of her graceful and piquant style.

The Sleeping Beauty: A Modern Version. By Martha B. Dunn.



With original cover design by Amy Sacker, and pen-and-ink illustrations by Etheldred B. Barry.

This charming story of a little fishermaid of Maine, intellectually "asleep" until she meets the "Fairy Prince," reminds us of "Ouida" at her best in "Dog of Flanders" or "Two Little Wooden Shoes," and is an addition to the literature of Maine, made famous by the author of "Captain January" and "The Birds' Christmas Carol."

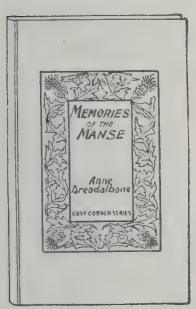
The Young Archer. By Charles E. Brimblecom.

With an original cover design and 50 pen-and-ink illustrations.

A strong and wholesome story of a boy who accompanied Columbus on his voyage to the New World. His loyalty and services through vicissitudes and dangers endeared him to the great discoverer, and the account of his exploits will be interesting to all real boys.

Cosy Corner Series for Older Readers.

Memories of the Manse. By Anne Breadalbane. Illustrated.



Before the present revival in things Scottish, depicted so delightfully in "The Stickit Minister" and "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," this faithful picture of Scotch life and character was written. Its author lived among the scenes she so lovingly and truthfully describes.

Christmas at Thompson Hall. By Anthony Trollope.

A Provence Rose. By Louisa de la Ramé (Ouida).

In Distance and in Dream. By M. F. Sweetser.

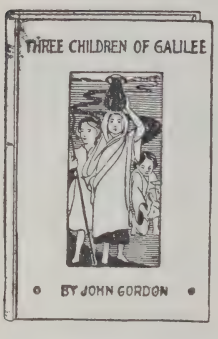
A story of immortality, treating with profound insight of the connection between the life which now is and the life which is to come. It is daring in conception, quaint in diction, and singularly beautiful in conclusion. It cannot fail to prove a source of consolation to many bereaved hearts, and a suggestion of bright hope to thousands of others.

Will o' the Mill. By Robert Louis Stevenson.

Illustrated by Amy Sacker.

An allegorical story by this inimitable and versatile writer. Its rare poetic quality, its graceful and delicate fancy, its strange power and fascination, justify its separate publication, as it must surely in time become a classic.

Gift Book Series for Boys and Girls.



A series of well-written, popular copyrighted books, by such well-known authors as Mrs. Wesselhoeft, Will Allen Dromgoole, Harriet Martineau, John Gordon, and others. Each story has been carefully selected with a view to making a series of clean, wholesome, and interesting books, especially suitable as presents for boys and girls from eight to sixteen. Each book is profusely illustrated with full-page and text illustrations, the type is clear and good, the binding rich and attractive, and each volume has a separate cover design.

Each, tall 12mo, 1 vol. $1.00

Three Little Crackers. By Will Allen Dromgoole.

Author of "The Farrier's Dog," etc., with fifty text and full-page illustrations.

A fascinating story for boys and girls. The adventures of a family of Alabama children who move to Florida and grow up in the South are described, with the combined humor and pathos which give this gifted young Southern author so high a place in the ranks of American writers.

Three Children of Galilee: A Life of Christ for the Young. By John Gordon.

Beautifully illustrated with more than one hundred text and full-page illustrations of Holy Land scenery.

There has long been a need for a Life of Christ for the young, and this book has been written in answer to this demand. That it will meet with great favor is beyond question, for parents have recognized that their boys and girls want something more than a Bible story, a dry statement of facts, and that, in order to hold the attention of the youthful readers, a book on this subject should have life and movement as well as scrupulous accuracy and religious sentiment.

"It admirably fulfils its purpose in being a history that will make more vivid to young people the exquisite narrative of the gospels. What most of us need is something to help us realize that marvellous story, and this Mr. Gordon has supplied in this book which serves the purpose of making the times and places and people of the narrative more real by reason of greater detail than the sacred story supplies."—Chicago Interior.

Miss Gray's Girls; or, Summer Days in the Scottish Highlands. By Jeannette A. Grant.

With about sixty illustrations in half-tone and pen-and-ink sketches of Scottish scenery.

A delightfully told story of a summer trip through Scotland, somewhat out of the beaten track. A teacher, starting at Glasgow, takes a lively party of girls, her pupils, through the Trossachs to Oban, through the Caledonian Canal to Inverness, and as far north as Brora, missing no part of the matchless scenery and no place of historic interest. Returning through Perth, Stirling, Edinburgh, Melrose, and Abbotsford, the enjoyment of the party and the interest of the reader never lag.

The Fairy Folk of Blue Hill: A Story of Folk-lore. By Lily F. Wesselhoeft.

Author of "Sparrow the Tramp," etc., with fifty-five illustrations from original drawings by Alfred C. Eastman.

A new volume by Mrs. Wesselhoeft, well known as one of our best writers for the young, and who has made a host of friends among the young people who have read her delightful books. This book ought to interest and appeal to every child who has read her earlier works.

Gift Book Series for Boys and Girls — Continued.

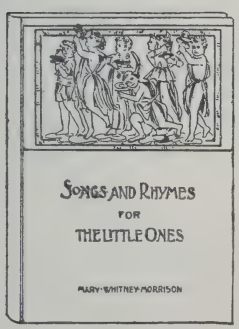
Feats on the Fiord: A Tale of Norwegian Life. By Harriet Martineau.

With about sixty original illustrations and a colored frontispiece.

This admirable book, read and enjoyed by so many young people, deserves to be brought to the attention of parents in search of wholesome reading for their children to-day. It is something more than a juvenile book, being really one of the most instructive books about Norway and Norwegian life and manners ever written, well deserving liberal illustration and the luxury of good paper now given to it.

Songs and Rhymes for the Little Ones. Compiled by Mary Whitney Morrison (Jenny Wallis).

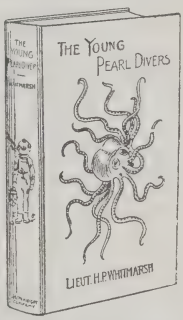


New edition, with an introduction by Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, and eight illustrations.

No better description of this admirable book can be given than Mrs. Whitney's happy introduction:

"One might almost as well offer June roses with the assurance of their sweetness, as to present this lovely little gathering of verse, which announces itself, like them, by its own deliciousness. Yet, as Mrs. Morrison's charming volume has long been a delight to me, I am only too happy to link my name with its new and enriched form in this slight way, and simply declare that it is to me — and to two families of my grandchildren who have had a copy of the first edition all read to pieces for them in their nursery days — the most bewitching book of songs for little people that we have ever known."

The Young Pearl Divers: A Story of Australian Adventure by Land and by Sea. By Lieut. H. Phelps Whitmarsh.



Author of "The Mysterious Voyage of the Daphne," etc. Illustrated with twelve full-page half-tones by H. Burgess, whose drawings have exactly caught the spirited tone of the narrative.

This is a splendid story for boys, by an author who writes in vigorous and interesting language, of scenes and adventures with which he is personally acquainted.

Timothy Dole. By Juniata Salsbury.

With twenty-five or thirty illustrations from drawings and pen-and-ink sketches.

The title gives no clue to the character of the book, but the reader who begins the first chapter will not stop until he has finished the whole. The youthful hero, and a genuine hero he proves to be, starts from home, loses his way, meets with startling adventures, finds friends, kind and many, grows to be a manly man, and is able to devote himself to bettering the condition of the poor in the mining region of Pennsylvania, the scene of his early life and adventures. The book is not of the goody-goody order; although written with a purpose, and conveying a moral lesson, this feature is not obtrusive. It is a wholesome and vigorous book, that boys and girls, and parents as well, will read and enjoy.

Blown Away: A Nonsense Narrative. By Richard Mansfield.

1 vol., 12mo, cloth, gilt top $1.25

This remarkably clever book serves more than ever to illustrate the genius and unusual versatility of a brilliant actor and artist. Not only will it prove a source of delight to the thousands of children for whom it was specifically written, but it will be not one whit less appreciated and enjoyed by their elders. Its nonsense is charming, and its humor delicious. The strange adventures of Beatrice and Jessie will prove fascinating to old and young alike.

As a genuine fairy tale, dealing in imaginary and impossible characters amid comically absurd situations, "Blown Away" will prove exceptionally popular with our youngest boys and girls, while to the older children and to parents, their appreciation of its quaint humor will give an added zest and enjoyment.

BOOKS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Beautifully Illustrated Handsomely Bound Cloth, Each, $1.25

A series of books for young people that contains the latest and best works of the most popular writers for boys and girls. The stories are not only told in an interesting and charming manner, but most of them contain something in the way of information or instruction, and all are of a good moral tone. For this reason they prove doubly good reading; for, while the child is pleasantly employing his time, he is also improving his mind and developing his character. Nowhere can better books be found to put into the hands of young people.

Dorothy Day. By JULIE M. LIPPMANN. Illustrated by IDA WAUGH. The heroine is an exceptionally clever girl; generous, free, full of spirit, intensely fond of frolic, and quite a leader among her sex. Her numerous experiences will prove most interesting.

Miss Wildfire. By JULIE M. LIPPMANN. Illustrated by IDA WAUGH. A fine portrayal of character development on the part of a young girl who is possessed of a willful disposition, but who has sufficient strength to eventually overcome it.

An Odd Little Lass. By JESSIE E. WRIGHT. Illustrated by IDA WAUGH. This is a story of the regeneration of a little street waif. She is exceptionally bright and winning, but her mischief-making tendencies easily lead her into difficulties, some of which, at times, threaten to be quite serious.

The Girl Ranchers. By MRS. CARRIE L. MARSHALL. Illustrated by IDA WAUGH. Two ambitious girls are the chief means of inducing a family to go into sheep ranching in Montana. The experience of the girls and the household will be followed with profound interest.

An Every-day Heroine. By MARY A. DENISON. Illustrated by IDA WAUGH. An inspiring story for girls, containing many touching scenes, but which, as a whole, is bright and cheerful, and moves along with a naturalness that will intently hold its readers until the end is reached.

Her College Days. By MRS. CLARKE JOHNSON. Illustrated by IDA WAUGH. A faithful picture of a girl's life at college, which has about it just enough incident, with a suggestion of romance, to make it a most pleasing and palatable tale.

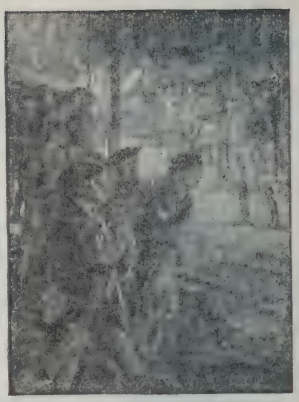
True to His Trust. By EDWARD S. ELLIS, A.M. Illustrated by J. STEEPLE DAVIS. The hero of this story is sure to win the sympathy and interest of every reader, and no person who follows his adventures and experiences can fail to be inspired by his true manliness and sturdy integrity.

Comrades True. By EDWARD S. ELLIS, A.M. A fascinating narrative of the exciting experiences and abiding friendship of two estimable boys. It is a study in character drawing, and besides, teaches a lesson that will prove valuable to all classes of young people.

Among the Esquimaux. By EDWARD S. ELLIS, A.M. The exciting incidents of this narrative occur among the snows and icebergs of the Arctic regions. Apart from the absorbing interest attached to this story there is woven into it much valuable information pertaining to this unexplored country.

The Campers Out. By EDWARD S. ELLIS, A.M. This story is bright, breezy, and full of adventure of just the right sort to hold the attention of any young mind. It is clean, pure, and elevating, and the stirring incidents convey a forcible lesson.

At the Siege of Quebec. By JAMES OTIS. Illustrated by F. A. CARTER. A story of the American Revolution. A graphic portrayal of Benedict Arnold's forced march through the Maine wilderness to join Montgomery's attack upon Quebec.



Andy's Ward. By JAMES OTIS. A story of the lives and experiences of "Museum Marvels." There are introduced several dwarfs and giants, a sword swallower, fat woman, snake charmer, etc., all of whom combine to give the story a peculiar interest to young readers.

Chasing a Yacht. By JAMES OTIS. Two bright boys have just fitted out a yacht, and are about to sail her when she is stolen from them. She is eventually recovered, but not until the boys have passed through many thrilling and exciting experiences, all of which combine to form an exceedingly interesting tale.

The Braganza Diamond. By JAMES OTIS. A record of the daring adventures of two boys who spend their holidays at Old Point Comfort. Their bravery and courage in the face of danger, their varied experiences and noble conduct furnish a narrative that holds the undivided attention from beginning to end.

Under the Tamaracks. By ELBRIDGE S. BROOKS. The scene of this charming story is laid at the beautiful Thousand Islands. General Grant, who was a visitor there at the time, figures prominently in the narrative, thus making the story semi-historical.

In the Days of Washington. By WILLIAM MURRAY GRAYDON. A story of the American Revolution, giving in detail the history of the Wyoming massacre and introducing various well-known characters of colonial times. Fact and fiction are so cleverly interwoven as to render this at once a most fascinating and instructive story.

The Lost Gold Mine. By FRANK H. CONVERSE. This story recounts in a most interesting manner the experiences of a little party bent upon the discovery of a gold mine, the location of which is but indefinitely known.

A Moonshiner's Son. By WILL ALLEN DROMGOOLE. Illustrated by F. A. CARTER. The scene of this story is laid among the Tennessee mountains, in the haunts of the illicit distillers. The thrilling experiences of the young and noble-hearted hero are most graphically portrayed.

The Moncasket Mystery. By SIDNEY MARLOW. The author understands that nothing makes morality so attractive to youth as when it is coupled with ingenuity, energy, pluck, and adventure, in all of which this story abounds.

Harry Ambler, and How He Saved the Homestead. By SIDNEY MARLOW. A narrative of a noble and courageous boy suddenly thrown upon his own resources, but who successfuly overcomes all obstacles. The story is ingenious in plot, and is characterized by sparkle and abundance of incident.

The Story of the Iliad. By DR. EDWARD BROOKS, A. M. A narrative in simple prose of the leading incidents of one of the greatest literary works of the world, the Iliad of Homer. It is not only interesting, but exceedingly profitable reading.

The Story of the Odyssey. By DR. EDWARD BROOKS, A. M. A narrative in simple language of the voyages and adventures of Ulysses in unknown lands. It will prove most fascinating and profitable reading.

The Story of the Æneid. By DR. EDWARD BROOKS, A. M. Virgil's story of the adventures of Æneas is here told in a simple, concise, and fascinating style, and in a way that is certain to hold the attention of young readers.

The Young Boatman. By HORATIO ALGER, JR. A most interesting tale of a bright, brave, and manly boy who endeavors to support himself and his mother. After many adversities he finally achieves a splendid success.

The Odds Against Him. By HORATIO ALGER, JR. Recounts the experience of an active and courageous boy who is compelled to leave home on account of the ill-treatment of his step-mother. He passes through many trying ordeals, but fights manfully the battles of life and comes out victorious in the end.

POPULAR HAND BOOKS

In Durable and Artistic Cloth Binding, Each, 50 Cents

In this busy, bustling age it is required that the information which books contain shall be ready to hand and be presented in the clearest and briefest manner possible. This series of handbooks is constructed on this plan. The volumes are replete with valuable information, compact in form, and unequaled in point of merit and cheapness. They are the latest and best books on the subjects of which they treat, and no person wishing to be informed upon these subjects can afford to be without them. THE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF SHORTHAND.

CATALOG OF

Phonographic Works

BY

BENN PITMAN AND JEROME B. HOWARD.

PUBLISHT BY

THE PHONOGRAPHIC INSTITUTE CO.,

CINCINNATI, O.

To supply the increasing demand for stenographers, schools of shorthand and typewriting have been establisht in various parts of the country, and with few exceptions, all business colleges now have a "department of shorthand." A number of systems are taught, but that of Benn Pitman is more generally used than any other in this country and may be called the "American System."—Extract from the Report of the Commissioner of Education (Washington, D. C.), for the year 1887–88, page 927.

The following is a graphic summary of the Table of Statistics on the Teaching of Shorthand in the United States, in the Bureau of Education Circular of Information No. 1, 1893, pages 40 to 141:

Benn Pitman, 747 teachers, 34.7 %.
Graham, 363 teachers, 16.8 %.
Munson, 228 teachers, 10.6 %.
Cross, 185 teachers, 8.6 %.
Isaac Pitman, 143 teachers, 6.7 %.
Lindsley, 81 teachers, 3.7 %.
Pernin, 64 teachers, 2.5 %.
Scott-Browne, 52 teachers, 2.4 %.
Longley, 52 teachers, 2.4 %.
McKee, 36 teachers, 1.6 %.
Pitman (unspecified), 35 teachers, 1.6 %.
Moran, 30 teachers, 1.3 %.
Sloan-Duployan, 24 teachers, 1.1 %.

Besides 38 others, each being less than 1%.
